

One Week Later from Europe. The London Morning Advertiser has the following announcement: We regret to hear that an interview which Lord Clarendon and Mr. Buchanan had together at the foreign office on Tuesday, very angry words passed between them relative to the Russian government. The despatches to the Russian government amplifying and confirming the telegraphic announcement of the unconditional acceptance of Austria's propositions, were received at Vienna on the 23d ult., and a courier immediately conveyed them to Paris and London. A memorandum embodying the propositions, has been signed at Vienna and sent to Paris and London.

It is reported that the Congress will meet at Paris on February 17th, that very little time will be lost in the discussion of the subject, and that the whole matter will be brought to a conclusion by February 25th. The signing of the preliminaries prior to the opening of the Conference, now only awaits the arrival of the Turkish plenipotentiaries. It is stated that Prussia refuses to agree to the conditions exacted by the Allies preliminary to their admission into the Peace Conference, and that consequently the plenipotentiaries of the Conference, but be invited to sign the final deed of settlement.

Baron Brum and Count Orloff are the Russian plenipotentiaries, selected by Messrs. Pitt and Fenton. Lord Clarendon represents England; Marquis D. Azeglio, Sardina; Count Bachi, Austria; M. Walowski, France; Derwish Pacha, Turkey. Flour and grain has considerably declined. Prices were irregular, and the market dull.

Ex-President Fillmore was in Rome, Italy, by his accounts, sitting for his bust in marble to Bartholomew, the celebrated American sculptor.

THE BOSTON POST, THE PRESS AND THE BOSTON STATESMAN & WEEKLY POST, FOR 1856.

THE terms of our Journals for the ensuing year, for the Daily Post, the Boston Statesman and Weekly Post, (Fridays) $1; and for the Statesman and Weekly Post, (Fridays) $2. These terms include postage by Chas. G. Greene and Richard Frothingham, Jr.; employ a large corps of assistant editors, reporters and correspondents; and neither labor nor expense is spared to make their columns valuable. They have been published nearly thirty years; have a range of subscription extended in extent and aggregate by no paper in New England; and so largely is their circulation increasing, that a new press has been ordered to enable the demand to be promptly supplied.

The reading matter consists of a great variety of useful and entertaining matter. Its columns contain domestic and foreign correspondence; reports of lectures; marine department; daily monetary article and weekly financial review; various notices; poetic contributions; and humorous matter, all carefully selected to meet every taste.

The advertising columns embrace an almost entire synopsis of the business of New England, and from the department of the paper alone can be obtained a correct impression of the character of trade, its facilities and its operations; while the financial editorials give an accurate view of passing events in the commercial world.

The Press and Post is made from the Daily's contents, and published every Monday and Wednesday morning, in clear type, and handbombed by printed on the paper, in clear type, and the subscription is four dollars a year.

The Boston Statesman & Weekly Post forms a useful and complete record of the times, and contains the news of every description; in fact, a brief and comprehensive history of passing events; foreign news in detail, domestic information, agricultural, commercial and monetary articles, statements of trade, of the weather, of crops, &c.; accounts of meetings, political records, news of every description, poetry, pleasant reading matter, interesting reports, and, in fact, a complete family newspaper—a vehicle for every species of useful and entertaining information—among which will be found in a large measure, the news of the day, and is printed on the largest sized paper and on new and beautiful type. It has a very large circulation and its rapidly increasing list is the best evidence of its popularity. It is supplied at the rate of two dollars a year for single subscriptions. Clubs, taking ten or more copies in one package, will be supplied at one dollar and a half a year.

The Commercial Department of these Journals involves a large expenditure; contains varied and accurate reports as to all branches of trade; and is second to that of no paper published in New England.

These Journals are carefully conducted and edited in a faith in democratic principles, but without any partiality to any party. As advertising mediums they are unsurpassed; penetrating, as they do, into such a variety of households scattered over the whole Union, and read as they are by all classes of the community, they furnish an opportunity for the diffusion of information which can scarcely be obtained elsewhere.
