A Human Life Saved.

DOWAGIAC, Mich. March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq.: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. CONKLIN says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify. Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGDON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to caution the public in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares,'" &c.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y., in favor of its perfectly harmless character, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations. JAS. A. RHODES,

Proprietor, Providence, R. I.

Read! Read!

MR. DAVID SIPE, of Carlisle, has been appointed Agent for the county of Cumberland, for the sale of FISK'S PATENT METALLIC BURIAL CASE, which is superior to any of the kind now in use, for ordinary interments and transporting the dead. It prevents immediate decomposition and obviates the necessity of hasty burials; for, being perfectly air-tight, it prevents any unpleasant odor from escaping and can be kept from day to day, until it suits the convenience of the friends of the deceased to inter. We might offer hundreds of certificates in corroboration of these facts, but the following will suffice:

Certificates from Clay, Webster and others.

WASHINGTON, April 6th.

GENTLEMEN—We witnessed the utility of your ornamental "Metallic Patent Burial Case," used to convey the remains of the late Hon. John C. Calhoun to the Congressional Cemetry, which impressed us with the belief that it is the best article known to us for transporting the dead to their final resting place. With respect we subscribe ourselves. Yours, &c.

$5000 Reward—Great Race.

THE great race between the Clothing Stores of Carlisle, resulted in the complete triumph of the new store of ARNOLD & SON, in the store room lately occupied by Wise & Campbell, corner of North Hanover and Louther sts. It is now conceded by all and every one that they stand pre-eminent among the clothing dealers in Carlisle, having succeeded in convincing their friends, that they can sell Clothing made and got up, according to the latest styles, from 20 to 25 per cent. cheaper than any other house is possibly able to furnish them. They have now on hand a large and splendid assortment of

Ready-made Clothing,

Furnishing Goods, Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings. Also, Hats and Caps, and every thing in their line for Men and Boys. Their materials were selected with the greatest care, purchased at the lowest cash prices, and at such houses only, who never deal in anything like auction trash. Their friends may therefore rest assured that articles purchased of them will and must give satisfaction. Clothing made at the shortest notice in the most fashionable style, having for that purpose secured the services of an experienced Cutter, and laid in a splendid assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c., which for beauty and durability cannot be surpassed. To the citizens of the surrounding country we would say, give us a fair trial. All we ask is a fair look at our stock and we will not fail to convince you that our Clothing is better made, of better materials, better trimmed, cut with more taste, and last though not least, cheaper than you have ever bought elsewhere. Also, a large lot of Trunks, Carpet Bags, Umbrellas, &c.

All hail creation far and near,
Of ARNOLD'S Store you shall hear;
Let pealing drums and cannon's roar
Proclaim the news from shore to shore;
Great bargains sure, are on the wing,
Rare wonders then we now will sing:
At first we'll speak of CLOTHING rare,
Such trophies, sure will make you stare,
Of broad and narrow cloth so cheap
We'll take a moment's time to speak.
Delighted too you can't but be
With prices and their quality;
Dress and Sack Coats—aye, Vestings too,
What bargains now for all of you!
The Gents will our compliments receive,
And call they must the wonders to believe.
In Pants we have all kinds of styles,
One dollar and upwards, piles on piles.
In Summer Goods—for soon 'twill come—
We'll give you bargains all for fun.
Frocks and Over-coats so very fine,
Great wonders you shall see in every line,
Hosiery, Suspenders, Under-shirts for all,
All kinds of Gloves to please all who call.
But we cannot stop to enumerate.
We have bargains both good and great.
Our stock too in the Furnishing line
Is plentiful, cheap and fine.
