Anecdote of James Buchanan.

Aside from his superior statesmanship and his admitted competency for the Presidency, it is not exaggerated praise to affirm, that no public man in the United States enjoys a more unsullied personal reputation than James Buchanan. When vipers assail him they gnaw a file. Before his unspotted personal excellence, grizzly form of calumny shrinks abashed into her gloomy caverns. In proof of the eminent personal uprightness of James Buchanan many interesting facts might be stated. For the present a single one will suffice.

When Mr. Buchanan first entered Congress, it was the universal custom for Senators and Representatives, not only to frank their own correspondence, but to grant their frank freely to friends whenever requested. The rates of postage then being much higher than at present, a large amount of revenue was thus kept out of the coffers of Uncle Sam. On a certain occasion a leading friend of Mr. Buchanan approached him, handing him a large letter, or package, requesting his frank as a Representative in Congress.

"Is the letter on public business?" asked Mr. Buchanan, turning it in his hand.

"It is a letter on private business," said the other, "a letter containing an enclosure to my wife. As the postage will amount to full one dollar, I am anxious to save it.

"Sir," said Mr. Buchanan, with marked emphasis, "if you are poor, I will give you a dollar—but, so long as I am connected with Government by no act of mine will I ever consent to defraud the National Treasury out of one cent of its honest revenue. Never, sir, never."

And this was characteristic of the man. The same uprightness has he exhibited throughout his entire public career. So tenacious, we learn, was Mr. Buchanan over the just interests of the Government that he would not frank a letter of his own when on private business.

He that is faithful in the least, is faithful also in the greatest. To such a man can the Presidency of the United States be committed with perfect safety.

CUT THIS OUT.—A correspondent of the London Literary Gazette, alluding to the numerous cases of death from accidental poisoning, adds:

"I venture to affirm there is scarce even a cottage in this country that does not contain an invaluable, certain, immediate remedy for such events—nothing more than a dessert-spoonful of made mustard, mixed in a tumbler of warm water, and drank immediately. It acts as an emetic, and is always ready, and may be used with safety in any case where one is required. By making this simple antidote known, you may be the means of saving many a fellow creature from an untimely end."

THE STATESMEN OF THE KNOW-NOTHING PARTY.—The Philadelphia Ledger (neutral) says:

"Mr. Buchanan is berated and abused for sentiments which, it is charged he uttered thirty years ago—the very best proof that his opponents can find nothing in his long career of public usefulness for thirty years subsequent which they may pick a flaw in. A man who can show a public life free from blemish for as long a period as some of his detractors have lived need not be ashamed of his antecedents."

QUALIFICATION OF A CANDIDATE.—"What a fine lady Fremont has," says the New York Tribune. "How nimbly he climbed the Rocky mountains," says the New York Times. "What a splendid woolley horse he sent me," says Barnum. "What a rich gold mine he owns," says the New York Herald. "What a noble young man he is," says Harriet Beecher Stowe. "But what has he done for his country?" says the still inquisitive rank and file. That's what they haven't found out yet.

Valuable Farm and Woodland AT PUBLIC SALE.

On THURSDAY, the 18th of September, 1856.

THE subscriber will sell at public sale, on the premises, in Frankford township, Cumberland county, on the road from Carlisle to Landisburg, 8 miles north-west of Carlisle, and 4 miles north of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, the following described valuable REAL ESTATE, viz:

128 Acres

of first-rate SLATE LAND, 100 Acres of it cleared, under good fence and in a good state of cultivation, the balance of it covered with good timber. The improvements are a Two Story STONE HOUSE, STONE KITCHEN, Stone WASH HOUSE, and Spring House, BANK BARN, 2 Wagon Sheds, Corn Crib, &c.—The buildings are in good repair, and under white pine roof. There is a well of never-failing water in the yard, and an ORCHARD of good fruit. The fields are nearly all supplied with water. A part of this tract has been limed. There is a stream of water running through this tract of sufficient power for manufacturing purposes. Twenty acres of this tract is good meadow.

SIXTY-NINE ACRES,

adjoining the above, two-thirds of it cleared, the balance of it covered with good timber. This is first-stone land of good quality, is well watered, and has a sufficient amount of meadow land for the upland. This tract will be sold in one, in two, or in three pieces, or will be sold with the farm, to suit buyers.

Sixty Acres, adjoining tract No. 2, and on the new road from McClure's Gap, to Carlisle. This tract is covered with heavy white oak and chesnut oak of the very best quality, and will be sold in lots of different sizes to suit purchasers.

The widow's dower of one-third of the purchase money of tracts No. 1 and 2 will remain in the land during the widow's lifetime.

Any person desiring any further information of any of the property, can call on Joseph Myers, on the premises, or on the subscriber, one and a half miles west.

☞ Sale will commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. on said day, when attendance will be given and terms made known by Public Sale of Real Estate.

On Tuesday, September 16th, 1856.

THE subscribers will offer at public sale, on the day above mentioned, at the Court House, in the Borough of Carlisle, the following described Farms, late the property of Andrew Holmes, Esq., dec'd.

No. 1, situated in South Middleton township, Cumberland county, about 1 mile south of Carlisle, near Boslar's mill, is bounded by the Letort Spring which runs along its entire western border, other land of the undersigned, & lands of C. Ahl, Stephen Cook and M. Gleim. It contains 188 acres and 12 perches of first rate Limestone land, about 40 acres of which are heavily timbered, and the balance in a good state of cultivation and under good fence. The improvements thereon are a two story STONE HOUSE, STONE BANK BARN, Wagon Shed, Granary, Corn Crib, and other out-buildings, with a well of excellent and never failing water near the door, and an Orchard of choice grafted fruit trees. There is also a very comfortable Stone and Log Tenant House with a garden attached, situated near the spring. A part of this farm is good meadow land.

No. 2 adjoins No. 1, and is otherwise bounded by the road leading from Carlisle to Craighead's mill, and lands of C. Ahl, Stephen Cook, Abraham Bosler and others. It contains 182 acres and 79 perches. The land is prime limestone and contains about 35 acres of heavy timber. The residue is in good cultivation and the fences in good repair. The improvements are a comfortable Log House, a new Stone & Frame Barn, having 2 threshing floors, Wagon Shed, Corn Crib, Granary, Cider Press in good order, and other out-buildings. There is also a well of never failing water and a good Orchard.

Any further information will be given by John Irvine, N. E. corner of the Public Square, Carlisle, who will also at any time accompany persons desiring to view the farms.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock on said day, when the terms, which will be easy, will be made known.

Carlisle Female Seminary.

MR. & Mrs. CLARK, who have been for several years engaged in teaching, respectfully announce to the citizens of Carlisle and vicinity, that on the 1st September, 1856, they will commence the second session, in Bonther st., near the German Reformed Church, of their

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

The Institution will be both a boarding and day school, in which all the branches necessary for the complete education of young ladies will be taught. Assistants of the highest character for qualifications and morality will be employed, in accordance with the rules of the Institution. The government will be conducted on strictly christian principles, while sectarianism will be as rigidly excluded.

The Principals flatter themselves that their long and successful experience as teachers, as testified by the recommendations in their possession, will enable them to establish an Institution of the highest character for young ladies. They are fully persuaded that such an Institution will be sustained here by the citizens and neighboring country, and hope that their confidence may not be disappointed.

The Scholastic year will consist of four terms, (eleven weeks each,) beginning on September 1, and ending on second Wednesday in July.

Terms per Quarter, (11 Weeks.)

Third Annual Fair OF THE Big Spring Literary Institute,

Will be held in Literary Hall, Newville, Pa., on the 12th, 13th, 14th & 15th days of August, 56.

TO this Exhibition Farmers and Mechanics, Artists and the Ladies, are cordially invited to contribute the products of their industry and skill.

It has been objected by some, that in the published list of premiums, too high a reward has been offered for the best Plowman, while nothing has been offered for the Second Best. In order to obviate this objection, the officers have agreed to the following changes, viz:

For best plowing a two-horse plow, worth $15.
" 2d best " $5, to be paid by the person to whom the first premium shall have been awarded.

For best plowing (by boy under 16)
The Scientific American.

For the purpose of inciting BANDS in the neighboring counties to honorable competition, a Silver E. Flat SOPRANO SAXE HORN, will be awarded to the Band which produces the best music during the Fair.

The Big Spring Saxe Horn Band, having procured a set of new Instruments, will be in attendance during the Fair to enliven the occasion with spirit-stirring music.

As quite a number of applications have been made for space in which to exhibit, it is desired that those who wish to exhibit many articles, should apply for room at as early a date as possible. For full particulars, send for a copy of the Rules and List of Premiums, which we have published in Pamphlet form.

☞ This Association is founded upon honest and fair principles. Each book purchaser gets the value of his money in the book, and on account of the good number sold, becomes a shareholder in much valuable property. A certificate will be presented to each book purchaser, entitling the holder to an interest in the above valuable property. As soon as the books are all sold, notice will be given to the stockholders, and a convention will be held in Newville, at the Institute's Hall, when a committee will be chosen, to whom the property will be delivered to be distributed among the shareholders. All the articles that can, will be exhibited at the Institute's Fair on the 12th of August.—From the very flattering manner in which this Joint Stock Association is received and patronized, and from the number of tickets already sold, it is confidently believed that the property can be delivered to the shareholders in a few months. For the character of the "Big Spring Literary Institute," and those connected with it, we are permitted to refer to the following gentlemen.
