The Foolstops of Disublon,

From Daniel Webster's fleply to Col. Hayne: "When my eyes, shall be turned to behold for the last, time, the Sun in heaven, May I not see him shiring on the broken and: dishom-ord fragments of a soice glorious Union -on States dissected, discordant, belligorint -on a land reut with fouls, or drenched; it may be, in fraterial blodd. Let their last feeble and lingering glance, sather behold the gorgeous ensign of the Republic, now known and hon-ord throughout the carth, still full high ad-vanebder/distarts. But every where -spread for tu molto no such misseable interrogalory for tu molto no such misseable interrogalory as, Witt is all this worth 1-nor, those other words of delusion and folly. Liberty first' and Union afterwards. But every where-spread all its apple folds, as they float over the sea and over the land, and in every wind under the whole heavens—that other sentiment, dear to every true And Orever, one and inseparable." This property offers rare inducements to pur-chasers, the location being a Domitful one, a convenient distance from town, and good routs leading to it. The farm is not only one of the most productive in the county, but the situation the most desirable. A desire on the part of the owner to more west prompts him to part with it, otherwise it would not be disposed of. For terms and further particulars enquire of A. I.
