Call the Roll, of the Democratic States.

Call the Roll of the Democrate States.

The result of the recent elections has shown that the prospect of a democratic victory in that the prospect of a democratic victory in November, is even brighter than many of our most saguing friends supposed. Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, North Carolina, and Texas arr largely Democratic. This secures, beyond, a doubt, the whole electoral vote of the South to Bucharian. He meds only twenty-ning-rotes from the North to make him Presidents. Howe has been carried by the Bepublicans by a raduced unjointy—15-is-said dinterthree-of-the State officers elected are Fillmore Know Nothings. At the President of the things of the Property of the State officers elected are Fillmore Know Nothings. At the President of the time the interest of the field. The so called Republican party will be broken in two in the middle? Aye fiave the firmest assurance from those of our friends who have travelled over the State that the Fillmore men are active and vigilants.

travelled over the State; that the Figures men are active and vigiliant men are active and vigiliant men are active and vigiliant men are active in the first her vote for Bichanan, there is scarcely a doubt. She Is already in the list of Democratic States, having been carried against the Republicans at the last election. There is a probability that the Whig party as a body will wheel in to the support of the Democratic moninces. Maine, has eight value. rotes.

CONNECTICUT.

Even Horace Greek line the frankiness to admit that inless the Republicans are more energetic and vigilant. This State is to be classed among the Democratic. The old Whigs are coming over to Buchanan in scores in fearly every county. You may safely set down the six votes of Connecticut in the Democratic column.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK.

The union of the 'Hards and Softs,' was a guarantee of a Democratic victory in New York. When theroughly united the Democracy of the Empire State have never been defeated. Their present union is perfect and complete. The Whigs of that State have recently held a Convention and resolved to support 'Filtmore and Donelson. This is another eruel' blow to Fremont. The indications are that the Republicans, will be this third party in that State. New York has thirty-five votes.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Since the nomination of a keperale Fillmore taket in the old Keystone State, the last, hope of Fremont has gone out in darkness. Western Pennsylvania thay 'possibly' be carried by the Republicans: but the Eastern portion will cost an overwhelming vote for Buchanian. The New York Tribine, good dusion authority, speaking of the State of Ruinsylvania, uses the following language:

"Frement could carry-at, by at least 20,000 language; Sould carry-it by at least 20,000 of Fillmore were out of the way, and we lrust he will carry-it still; but it can only be by an effort extending to every neighbothood of the State."

State."

Poor disconsidate Horace. Fillmore is in the way and Fremont is sure to be beaten. Pennsylvanda has twenty-seren votes.

XEW JERSHY.

This is another of the Stotes over which the Tribune is full of bitter lamentation." Hear

"If the election here were to morrow, we should apprehently the choice of the Buchanan electors. The apprehing the choice of the Buchanan electors. The apprehing the distorganized, and could not poll anything like its fair vote. A considerable inhiber are intent on throwing away their votes on the Fillmore electoral ticket, though it has no shadow of counce.

When the New York Tribune talks so doubt fully about the species of New Jersey, you may rest assured that her seven electoral votes will be cast for the favorite son' of Pannsylvania. We regard this as one of the certain Democrat-
