BY JOHN B. BRATTON. "OUR COUNTRY—MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT—BUT RIGHT OR WRONG, OUR COUNTRY." AT $2.00 PER ANNUM. NO. 24. CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1856.

Poetical

From the Dublin University Magazine. AUTUMN. BY JONATHAN PARKER BIRNEY.

The Autumn light is sleeping, Upon the yellow plain; The harvest-men are reaping, The golden grain...

MY LITTLE COUSINS.

Laugh on, fair cousins, for to you All life is joyous and serene; Your hearts have all things to pursue...

Miscellaneous

GO BLIF, BOSE; YOU'RE TOO LITTLE TO COME.

BY ELLEN LOUISE CHANDLER. There were three of us—Kate, Annette and myself—and we were going into the old woods...

THE ICE-REGIONS.

Dr. Kane's record of his expedition to the Arctic Regions in search of Sir John Franklin has been published, and is a work of commanding interest...

THE VASTNESS OF CREATION.

We extract the following from the Hon. Edward Everett's oration at the dedication of the Dudley Observatory, Albany, New York: "But it is when we turn our observations and our thoughts from our own systems to the systems which lie beyond it in the heavenly spaces..."

WOMEN OF NAPLES.

You have heard of the bright eyes and raven tresses, and music like language of the Neapolitans, but can you realize there is nothing like it here—that is to say, among the lower classes...

NEVER.

Never put your beard to a fowling, and pass a poor widow without seeming to see her. Never pass an aged man or woman without making a reverential obeisance, unless your house is on fire.

NEVER.

Never ride in a lady's carriage, and attend to the stable, while you frighten your wife out of the idea of keeping a nurse for the twins, by constantly talking of "hard times."

NEVER.

Never leave a letter unanswered, and use the stamp which was enclosed to you "reply with," on a letter to your own "sweet-heart."

VALUABLE RECEIPTS.

TO PRESERVE APPLES FOR WINTER.—Pick them carefully, and put them in barrels without bruising; then lead them up and keep in a cool, dry shed, till they are in danger of freezing, then remove to the cellar, and give them a cool, airy place until needed for use.

VALUABLE RECEIPTS.

HOW TO KILL MOLES.—Take any quantity of corn and soak it in a strong solution of arsenic or strychnine—say one dram of either of said poisons to one pint of water.

VALUABLE RECEIPTS.

LIQUID INDIA RUBBER.—India Rubber, cut into thin strips, and dissolved in turpentine in a close vessel and kept warm, will dissolve and in that state can be put on with a brush, forming a water proof coating for any object, however, of being equally available, except for coating wood or other work placed in water.

they being much the fatter and the meat greatly superior, in point of tenderness, and flavor. This would appear to establish, beyond a doubt, the benefit of charcoal for fattening purposes.

THE TOLLER.—One of the safest and best compositions for cleaning the teeth, is a mixture of two parts of cuttle fish-bone, and one of Peruvian bark, it both cleans the teeth and strengthens the gums.

THE PURITY OF THE BREATH being of so much consequence, and many being afflicted with impurity, without any neglect upon their part, we take pleasure in writing this receipt, which is certain to afford temporary, if not permanent relief: To half a tumbler of lemonade, add ten drops of hydrochloric acid, and sweeten to taste. It is a pleasant, refrigerant and tonic draught, and should be taken several days, for a month or six weeks.

A Man Starving Himself to Death by the Direction of Spitzel. The Dayton (O.) Gazette details a very remarkable instance of mania, which, we are told, is certain to afford temporary, if not permanent relief: To half a tumbler of lemonade, add ten drops of hydrochloric acid, and sweeten to taste. It is a pleasant, refrigerant and tonic draught, and should be taken several days, for a month or six weeks.
