near the German Reformed Church, or these SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

The Institution will be both a boarding and day school, in which all the branches necessary for the complete education of young ladies will be taught. Assistants of the highest character for qualifications and merality will be employed, in accordance with the wants of the Institution. The government will be conducted on strictly christian principles, while sectarianism will be as rigidly excluded.

The Principals flatter themselves that their long and successful experience as teachers, as testified by the recommendations in their possession, will enable them to establish an institution of the highest character for young ladies. They are fully persuaded that such an Institution will be sustained here by the clinean and neighboring country, and hope that their confidence may not be disappointed.

The Scholasic year will consist of four terms, (eleven weeks each.) beginning on September 1, and ending on second Wednesday in July.
