Forney presided over the disorganized, an-archical, often tunuluous assemblage, with eminent dignity, ability, and strict impartiali-ty. His position, for eight, weeks was one of the most trying we ever observed, and ho met its responsibilities with unswerving fludi-ty." DT At the Abolition Gouvention called last work at Worcester, Mass., it consider the ex-pediency of dissolving the Union, about 300 persons were present, including Wendell Phil-ips, S. J. May, Jr., Abiy Kelly and others... The President, J. M. Bird, in an address, said he saw no reason why the whole Convention should not be arrested for treason. If the handled Henry Witzen and J. P. Hale very soverely, saying that they were solling out the Republican party, and that it they had the power they would hang the dissubnists on the nearest tree. No sensible person would now say that the Union was worth a cent.

MAN FOUND DELD .-- ALTOONA, Pa., Januay 10. The body of a well dressed man was aund this morning two miles above this place, with his throat cut and hands and feet frozen. Ludlow, Mass., in that good old Commonwealth, parance indicate that a brutal murder had in perpetrated. A letter was found in his ket, directed to Samuel D. Norcross, Duntarred and feathered Mr. Alvord, of Springfield, wcket, an eith. Illir rodo him on a rail, and warned Mrs. Clark and hor sister to leave the town. It seems that the LADIES AMUSEMENT.--We are curious to spirit of Alverd's wife having entered into Mrs. ANUSEMENT. -- We are curious to now how many feet in femsie arithmetic goa ile; because we never met with a lady's foot et, whose shee' (by her own testimony) was only de spiritual communication with Mrs. O's istor.
