"OUR COUNTRY—MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT—NOT RIGHT OR WRONG, OUR COUNTRY."

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1857.

VOL. 43.

NO. 37.

Poetical.

NEVER SAY HAIL

Keep pushing—'tis wiser Than setting and sighing And waiting the tide. In life's earnest battle They only prevail Who daily march onward...

THE WORLD IS BRIGHT BEFORE THEE.

The world is bright before thee; It is summer flowers are thine; It calls to thee a young man or a boy...

Miscellaneous.

I HAVE NO MOTHER.

"Mayn't I stay, ma'am? I'll do anything you give me; cut out, go for water, and do all your errands."

Anecdote of Jefferson.

While this distinguished statesman and patriot was Vice President of the United States, it was customary for the individual holding the second high office to attend to business matters...

THE BARBER'S GHOST.

The following story is old, but a precious good one. We laughed heartily over it long time ago, and presume many of our readers never heard it, we give it up for their edification.

"Gentlemen," said Boyden, "there has been no gentleman here on horseback this afternoon, and no stranger at all, but one coming in on foot...

How the City of Sandusky was saved from Famine.

The Buffalo Republic is responsible for the following, which is as good as anything of its kind since Locke's moon story.

A Hard Case.

In the pretty village of Haddonfield, New Jersey, some years ago, there resided an old fellow who was familiarly known in town and country as "Old Joe."

AN APPOINTED HUSBAND.

A bereaved husband, standing by the grave of his deceased wife, was talking to himself...

DAMASCUS.—Independent of its central position, Damascus has attractions of itself...

STUBBS SECKS REVENGE.

"Poppy, old Smith's grey coat has broken in on our cabbage patch again."

EASILY SURPRISED.

The Cleveland Plaindealer says an old fellow, a member of the General Court, called to see the proprietor of a saloon...

GOON.

The New York Evening Post is responsible for the following conundrum.

County Newspapers—Their Use.

County papers are of much more use than people imagine. They very naturally aid in directing public attention to matters in which every citizen has an interest...

STEADY!

There is a valuable lesson to be learned from the popular use of this word—especially by the young.

GRAMMAR.—Jim, did you ever study Grammar?

"Yes, I did." "What case is Squire W.?" "He's an objective case."

Disaster on the Chicago and Rock Island R.R.—A Train Plugged into the River.

The Missouri Republic of the 10th, contains the following particulars of a disaster, which has been briefly announced by telegraph.

REPENTANT CRIMINAL.

The Governor of Mississippi has transmitted to the Legislature an application to him by Richard S. Graves, former Treasurer of that State...

IN A FIX.—Jimmy Downer had been out for the day...

"Yes, I know that, but where the devil do I live? Can you tell me that?"

WOMAN.—A pretty woman is one of the most common of the creatures of this country...

"What case is Squire W.?" "He's an objective case." "How so?" "Because he has been objecting to paying his subscription, which he has been owing for five years or more."

GRAMMAR.—Jim, did you ever study Grammar?

"Yes, I did." "What case is Squire W.?" "He's an objective case." "How so?" "Because he has been objecting to paying his subscription, which he has been owing for five years or more."
