THE STATE CONVENTION ... OUB CANDIDATES.

The Democratic State Convention met at Harrisburg on Monday. On the twenty-fourth ballot WILLIAM F. PACKER, of Lycoming, was nominated for Governor, and the nomination unanimously confirmed by the Convention.-NIMBOD STRICKLAND, of Chester, was nominated on second ballot for Canal Commissioner and Chief Justice LEWIS WAS nominated on see ond ballot for Judge of the Supreme Bench.

Such is the ticket. It is composed of mer well known for their integrity and talent, and it will afford us pleasure to do battle for it with all the energy we possess. Mr PACKER is a gentleman of commanding abilities, who is well versed in State affairs. Few men in the Commonwealth will compare with hun in his knowledge of the affairs of State, and those who know him best are his warmest friends and admirers. With such a man as as our standardbearer, victory is certain to perch upon our ban

The candidate for Canal Commissioner Hon. NIMROD STRICKLAND, of Chester county is the very man for this position. He is honest, capable, and worthy. We have known him since our boyhood, and have always regarded self-preservation. No doubt there are many who feel disappointed at the result of the Convention - disappointed because their par ticular friend was not nominated for this or that office. This is natural, and not to be condemned-but yet no one claiming to be a Democrat should permit his feelings to get the better of men, and swear in our hearts that the princi noble old State should again be cursed with a Know-Nothing Black Republican Governor-of every Democrat, and cause him to use every honorable effort to secure the election of the Democratic State Ticker. From present indications, we may rest assur ed that the opposition will be united on a tick et. There is no difference between Know-Nothingism and Black Republicanism-they hold to the same doctrines, and are willing to resort to any stratagem, and endorse any creed, if by so poses, and defeat the Democracy. Let Democrats, therefore, be warned in time, and let our watch-words henceforth be, PACKER, LEWIS, STRICKLAND, AND VICTORY !'

The Pennsylvanian says : Much inter t is manifested in relation to the action of the egislature upon the numerous applications ending for bank charters, and fear is entertained lest, from the varie'y of interests at work, the Legislature may be diverted from what has become the settled and well under-stood policy of the State in relation to these astitutions.
