

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

JOHN B. BRATTON, Editor & Proprietor. CARLSLE, PA., MARCH 12, 1857.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Governor, WILLIAM F. PACKER, Of Lycoming County.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, ELLIS LEWIS, Of Philadelphia City.

For Canal Commissioner, NIMROD STRICKLAND, Of Chester County.

Democratic Ward Meetings.

The Democrats of the West Ward, of Carlisle, are requested to meet at Burkholder's hotel, on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements for the Spring election.

The Democrats of the East Ward, will meet at Gostagman's at the same time, and for the same purpose.

COL. A. G. EGG.—This gentleman, who now hails from Kansas, paid our town a short visit a few days since. Of course his old acquaintances and many friends were glad to see him and take him by the hand.

"KANSAS AND NEBRASKA."—We invite the attention of such of our readers as desire to invest money and locate lands in Kansas or Nebraska, to the advertisement of Mr. T. J. GARDNER in another column.

A New Supreme Judge. The appointment of Hon. JEREMIAH S. BLACK to the Cabinet, leaves a vacancy on the Supreme Bench, which will be filled next election by Gov. Packer.

THE INAUGURAL ADDRESS. The inaugural address of President Buchanan is to be found on our first page, is a noble, straight-forward, statesman-like paper.

THE BOSTON POST. One of the ablest of all the New England Democratic journals, thus speaks of this masterly production of our new President.

WASHINGTON, March 6th.—The President, this afternoon, sent in the following nominations of Cabinet officers.

Secretary of State—Lewis Cass, of Michigan.

Secretary of the Treasury—Howell Cobb, of Georgia.

Secretary of War—John B. Floyd, of Virginia.

Secretary of the Navy—Isaac Toucy, of Connecticut.

Postmaster General—Anson V. Brown, of Tennessee.

Attorney General—Jeremiah S. Black, of Pennsylvania.

The nominations were immediately confirmed by the Senate.

THE WASHINGTON UNION.—This sterling Democratic organ has changed hands—Mr. Nicholson retiring, and Hon. John Appleton, of Maine, assuming the proprietorship and editorship of the paper.

A MURDERER ANNITED.—M'Kia, the supposed murderer of Norcross, has been arrested in the mountains near Wilkesbarre.

THE CABINET OF PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

All must admit that President BUCHANAN has been peculiarly fortunate in the selection of his Cabinet officers. They are unexceptionable, and will give general, if not indeed, universal satisfaction.

For Secretary of State, LEWIS CASS, of Michigan. The name of Gen. Cass is as familiar as a household word in every nook and corner of the Union.

For Secretary of the Treasury, HOWELL COBB, of Georgia. The appointment of Gen. Cobb is highly gratifying to every Pennsylvanian, as it must be to the whole people.

For Secretary of War, JOHN B. FLOYD, of Virginia. This is a most excellent selection, and at the same time a deserved compliment to the Old Dominion.

For Secretary of the Navy, ISAAC TOUCY, of Connecticut. Mr. Toucy was a late member of the United States Senate, and the only member of the present Cabinet, (save General Cass), who has ever before held a seat in that body.

For Postmaster General, ANSON V. BROWN, of Tennessee. We have the honor of a personal acquaintance with Mr. Thompson. He is a gentleman in the full strength of life.

For Attorney General, JEREMIAH S. BLACK, of Pennsylvania. We have ever since the election of Mr. Buchanan, contended that Pennsylvania was entitled to a Cabinet appointment.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, ELLIS LEWIS, of Philadelphia. To use the language of the Lancaster Intelligencer, Judge Lewis is so well known within the limits of Pennsylvania, and we might say beyond them, that it would seem almost unnecessary to add a word of commendation.

THE WASHINGTON UNION.—This sterling Democratic organ has changed hands—Mr. Nicholson retiring, and Hon. John Appleton, of Maine, assuming the proprietorship and editorship of the paper.

A MURDERER ANNITED.—M'Kia, the supposed murderer of Norcross, has been arrested in the mountains near Wilkesbarre.

All its members have been asked for the purity of their lives, the soundness of their principles, the integrity of their characters, and their intrinsic abilities. The anticipations which have been formed from Mr. BUCHANAN's superior judgment, have been fully realized, and the new administration commences its career under the most auspicious circumstances.

OUR FLAG IS THERE!

We to-day place at our mast-head the names of the gentlemen composing the Democratic State ticket. Most heartily do we support their nomination.

The Reading Gazette, in speaking of Gen. Packer, our candidate for Governor, says he has occupied a prominent position in public life for many years, and is, probably, as well known to the Commonwealth, as any living Pennsylvania statesman.

For Secretary of the Treasury, HOWELL COBB, of Georgia. The appointment of Gen. Cobb is highly gratifying to every Pennsylvanian, as it must be to the whole people.

For Secretary of War, JOHN B. FLOYD, of Virginia. This is a most excellent selection, and at the same time a deserved compliment to the Old Dominion.

For Secretary of the Navy, ISAAC TOUCY, of Connecticut. Mr. Toucy was a late member of the United States Senate, and the only member of the present Cabinet, (save General Cass), who has ever before held a seat in that body.

THE WASHINGTON UNION.—This sterling Democratic organ has changed hands—Mr. Nicholson retiring, and Hon. John Appleton, of Maine, assuming the proprietorship and editorship of the paper.

A MURDERER ANNITED.—M'Kia, the supposed murderer of Norcross, has been arrested in the mountains near Wilkesbarre.

Under the circumstances, it would be strange, if it could regard anything but the interest whatever is calculated to promote your happiness and advance your scientific and literary attainments.

There are certain great improvements, the completion of which I earnestly desire to witness during my official term. I trust they will be accomplished. Should a wise Providence permit me to visit you hereafter, I hope to find gushing fountains from the Great Falls of the Potomac everywhere in your city.

At the conclusion of these remarks the authorities and citizens, individually, shook hands with the President, many lingering to express their gratitude for his courtesies and kindness since he has occupied the presidential chair.

Several large deputations of clerks from the Treasury and other departments were then in turn presented to pay their adieux, and there was no diminution of the influx of visitors, until the President was forced to retire, that he might attend to the pressing official business.

President ever elicited more regret from the community of Washington; no one of his predecessors has been easier of access, more kind in courtesy, more attentive to the bereaved and suffering among us, more devoted to all the interests of the city.

Official position is no longer required to command him to the esteem and respect of the people of Washington, and their best wishes for his health and happiness, with that of his estimable family, will ever attend him.

Resolved, That we congratulate the Democratic party and the country upon the triumphal election of James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States, and that in view of the whole political history of Mr. Buchanan, rendered memorable by his steady and patriotic adherence to the Constitution and to the maxims of his fathers, we, the representatives of the Democratic party of the State, in full Convention assembled, do most confidently pledge to our brethren of the State, with conservative and patriotic administration of the Government under the guidance of a Pennsylvania President.

Resolved, That in the late proceedings which resulted in the election of Simon Cameron to the U. S. Senate, the opposition to our party openly and shamelessly exhibited their lack of high principles, of honor, their contempt for the known sentiment of the people, and their utter disregard of the apostles from our own ranks, by whose aid the result was accomplished, should be everywhere denounced by all men of virtue and honor.

The following additional resolution was offered by Mr. Cassina, and adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania are due and are hereby tendered to Col. John W. Cameron, for his able, energetic, and consummate tact exhibited by him in the discharge of the duties which devolved upon him in the late Presidential campaign as Chairman of our State Central Committee, and although defeated by the Democratic party, for his high and noble position in the great heart of the Keystone Democracy.

The Committee to wait upon the nominee for Governor here entered the Hall, and Mr. McDowell said: Mr. President: In behalf of the Committee, I have the honor to present to you, and this Convention, Gen. Wm. F. Packer, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania.

Gen. Packer then said: Mr. President and Members of the Convention: For me to say to you, and through you to the people you represent, that I am grateful for the high honor conferred upon me, would be but a small evidence of my gratitude.

To be selected under any circumstances as the candidate of the Democratic party is an honor, but it is peculiarly so to me now, when I have been brought into contact with some of the most distinguished men in the Commonwealth, and who have so partially disesteemed me over them.

But, gentlemen, the distinction which I feel most that I am chosen to bear the standard of Democracy. That banner is one that I love and revere. It is the banner of Liberty and Equality. It is the Standard of Freedom, and beneath its broad folds every man may rest in security, and serve his God according to the dictates of his conscience.

I have just elevated a Pennsylvania to the highest office in the world, and to-morrow he enters upon the discharge of his official duties. Shall the burning shame be fixed upon Pennsylvania, next fall, that it failed to sustain its chosen representative in the Presidential election?

That banner has traveled through many a hard-fought contest, and it has never yet been dishonored; and, gentlemen, my efforts shall always be given to its support.
