NEW APPORTIONMENT BILL.

We notice by the proceedings of the Sta enate, that the select committee appointed by he Speaker of that body to apportion the State to Senatorial and Representative districts, re ported a Bill for that purpose on Friday last .-The Bill is a curiosity. Cumberland and Danphin are hitched together, to elect one Senator, and Cumberland county is to have one Repre sentative. We protest against any such arrangement—we have no interests in common with benighted Dauphin, and cannot consent to be brought into close relationship with her .-

The people of our county are staid and conserentire and their great interest is agriculture. Dauphin county is now, and has been for many years, in the keeping of a few selfish and unrincipled Harrisburg politicians, who change heir principles and their views almost as often st they change their linen. But a few years since that county was crazy on the subject of anti-masonry, and a large majority of its delanti-masonry, and a large majority of its delanti-masonry. as they change their linen. But a few years anti-masonry, and a large majority of its del-uded citizens were made believe that the Democrats had murdered Morgan, and that Gen. Jackson sported a pair of horns! This hobby served the politicians at the Capitol for several years, and enabled them to carry the county at every election by sweeping majorities. The anti-masonic humbug at length exploded, and Know-Nothingiam, with its infamous oaths. and grips and lies, was the next bug-a-boo got ship elections, on Friday last, resulted gener- up by the sharpers to frighten the honest but ally, in favor of the Democrats. Bank Suspension.

Pittsense, March 21.—The Bank of New Castle, the credit of which has for some weeks been impaired, has finally stopped payment. It is an item of the camount of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he the amount of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he the amount of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he might of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he might of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he might of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he might of coin in the bank yesterilay, to redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he redeem notes amounting to over $100 000 he many just four dollars. The Cashier, Mr Wag onseller, it is said, has absconded with $50, 000. The Directors, who are all men of re spectability, have been sadly duped by the Cashier, who was a fast liver and deeply involved in castern speculations. Large sums have been recklessly boaned to corporations, much of which will be lost. Among others, is an item of twenty thousand dollars to the Gramercy Bank of Indiana.

failure is attributed to the dishonesty of the cashier. Hundreds of mechanics, laborers. widows and business men will be rained by the suspension of this bank. In all sections of the country we hear of bank failures and the obbery of banks by their officers, and our own State has by no means been an exception .-And yet in the face of these facts, the Senate of Pennsylvania is passing charters for new banks almost daily, and the House is not far behind the Senate in this work of infamy. In the name of sense, what do the members of our State Legislature mean ? Are they determin ly successful in both Wards. in which be says:

FAREWELL ADDRESS

Covernor Ceary,

TO THE PEOPLE KANSAS TERRITORY. Having determined to resign the Executiva, office, and retire again to the quiet scenes of private life and the enjoyment of those domestic comforts of which I have so long been deprived, I deem it proper to address you on the occasion of my departure.

The office from which I now voluntarily withdraw, was unsought by me, and at the time of its acceptance, was by no means desirable. This was quite evident, from the deplorable moral, civil, and political condition of the then, with a special, Jealous and suspicious eye, those who are continually indulging surmises of renewed hostilities. They are, not the friends of Kansas, and there is reason to lear that some of them are not only the enemies of this Territory, but of the Union itself. It dissolution is their, ardent wish, and Kansas has been selected as a fit place to commence the accomplishment of a most nefarious designities that not been abandoned. You are entrusted, not only with the guardianship of this Territory but the peace of the Union, which depends upon you in a far greater degree that you may at present suppose.

You should, therefore, frown down every effort to foment discord, and especially to army settlers from different sections of the Union in hostility against each other. All true patrols, whether from the North or South, the East of West, should unite together for that which is and must be regarded as a common cause, the preservation of the Union; and he who shall whisper a desire for its dissolution, no matter what may be his pretensions, or to what faction or party he claims to belong, is unworthy of your conflictnee, deserves your strongest reprobation, and should be branded as a trailor to his country. There is a voice crying front the grave of one whose memory is dearly cherished in every patriotic heart, and let it not ergin vain. It tells you that this attempt at dissolution is no new thing; but that, even as agitated by ambitious aspirants for place and power. And if the appeal of a still more recent hero and patriotion of the Union, has a length become an ordinary and familiar subject of discussion. Has the warning voice of Washington been forgotten to all of those who have taken an active part in these unwise and unprofitable discussions.
