From the Lycoming Gazette. Important, Correspondence.

Important. Correspondence. Since the nomination of Mr. Wilmot, by the Black Republicans, there has been much writ-ten and much said by his party. Iriends with a view to induce him to invite Gen. Packer to meet him for the purpose of stumping the State together. That such a plan was not pursued.for. the reason sot forth by Mr. Wilmot in his let-ter, not because his friends had any hope that he would distinguish himself in the discussions which would ensue, is obvious to any man who is in the lesst acquainted with Gen. Packer; for it is well known that he is one of the ablex pub-lic operators of the Democratic party are invul-nerable. Their object in making such a propo-sition, it is very plain, was either for the par-pose of securing for Mr. Wilmot such an audi-one as neither fuls cause nor his abilities could command; or elso, knowing that the Democrat-idate should travel the State with the Black Re-publican nominee, an opportunity to beast would the he har field. blican nominee, an opportunity to boast ould thus be afforded.

publican nominee, an opportunity to boat would thus bo afforded. By the correspondence which we publish bo-low, it will be seen that very recould M. "Wil-mot sout a letter containing such a request to Geni. Packer, and that the Democratic State Committee, who have coultrol of all important questions pertaining to the manner in which the carrais shall be conducted, have decided that the proposition ought not to be accepted for the reason that it would establish a causton not here-totore known in Pennsylvania, and one too that is of the most questionable propriety. Mr. Buckalew's lotter to Gen. Packer, setting forth at large the considerations which governed the form which in making their decision will be found unanswerable, and will go far toward proven-ing the adoption of such a planat any future prod.

ting the adoption of such a plan at any future period. We do not know what course Gen. Packer would have pursued in this matter, had he felt at liberly to follow bis own inclinations; but for ourselves we are heartily glad that the State Committee thave strangled the practice in Pean-syrania at its birth. No conceivable good could ever arise from it, but on the contary all the evils of which the chairman speaks, as well as innumerable others, would inevitably follow. The State would at once be turned into a nam-phitheatro, and the candidates for its chief mag-istracy into a pair of gladiators, whose business it would be to go up and down for the purpose of making an exhibition of their individual prev-ess, and thus bring the result of the campaign to a dependence upon the militant skill of the coma dependence upon the ministration of the con-batants, instead of the principles they each rep-esont. It is not intended, we presume, by the decis-It is not intended, we presume, by the decis-ion of the Committee, that the Democratile can-didate shall not address the poople whenever he may think proper. If the opposing candidates travet the State it is hardly to be supposed that Gen. Packer will remain quietly at home.— Their main object undoubtedly was to cut off the feature proposed by Mr. Wilmot, which would make the whole canvass assume more the aspect of a series of prize.fights than the calm reasoning of sober men.

A Desperado ... Bloody Encounter.

A case of homicide occurred at West Chestor, Pa., on Saturday morning, concerning which various reports are afloat, but the principal facts are briefly as follows: About daybreak on Saturday morning, Mr. Wm. Lynch, constable of West Chestor, and his assistant, Mr. C. M. of West Chester, and his assistant, Mr. C. M. Layman, went, at the instance of the District Attorney, to the house of Wm. Baugh, of West Pikeland, some ten mlies north of Lionville, for the purpose of arresting him on a warrant for an assault and battery with intent to kill, he having a few days ago driven off a constable of the neighborhood, who visited his premises on a like errand. They found him at a wood-pile splitting wood, and having approached within a few feet of him, informed him of the object of their call-Layman being somewhat in advance of his colleavue. He at once raised the are. of his colleague. He at once raised the axe, and swore he would kill the first man that offered to lay hands on him. Layman, looking him in the eye, and at the Layman, bound and the object of a function of the same time reaching back his hand to wards Lynch for a pistol, pleasantly remarked to him, "You would not kill a man would you t" The words had scarcely been uttered when Baugh made a stroke at him with an axe. Layman threw his head to one sido, and the edge of the weapon entered downwards between the shoulder and head to one side, and the edge of the weapon entered downwards between the shoulder and reck, close up to the latter, making a deep and sorious wound. Layman immediately fired a pistol, the ball of which morely grazed Baugh's shoulder, and Layman and Lynch both rushed upon him, and, after a struggle of a few minutes, succeeded in putting handcuffs upon him.— They then placed him into their wagon and sta-ted for West Chester, Layman bleeding very mach from his wound. After they had goen about a mile, Layman said to Lynch.— till, you must take care of yourself, I feel weak and faint, and can't hold out much longer." Baugh, who was a stout, resolute, reckless man, thereupon sprang upon Lych, who is not physically robust, but of good pluck, and, not withstanding be was handcuffed, almost succeed-ing too weak from loss of blood to rendor effec-tive ald. Lynch warned Baugh to desist or ho would shoot him is but he dared bin to shoot, and still pressed upon him. Lynch then pulled the trigger, and the ball entored Baugh's head near the eye, when he exclaimed "yon have killed me," and foll over. If edied in about an hour. No judicial investigation of the affair has yet been had. The general sentiments of the community, lawyers and laymen, appear to bo, that the killing was clearly a case of justif-has head.

F. GARDNER & CO. May 21, 1867—19

JHE great race between the Cithing Stores of Carlislo, resulted in the complete triumph of the new store of ARNOLD & SON, in the store room lately occupied by Wise & Camp-bell, corner of North Hanover and Louther sts. It is now conceded by all and every one that they stand pre-emineat among the clothing deal-ers in Carlisle, having succeded in convincing their friends, that they can sell Clothing, made and get up according to the hates styles from FIRE INSURANCE. THE Allen and East Pennsboro' Mutual Fire Insurance Comjdny of Cumberland county, incorporated by an act of Assembly, is now fully organized, and in operation under the manage-ment of the following Managers, viz : Daniel Baily, Wm. R. Gorgas, Michael Cock-lin, Melchoir Brenneugan, Christian Stayman, John C. Dunlap, Jacob H. Goorer, Lewis Ilyer, Henry Logan, Benj. H. Musser, Jacob Muama, Jos. Wickersham and Alexander Catheart. The rates of insurance are as low and favora-ble as any Company of the kind in the State.--Persons wishing to become members are invi-ted to make application to the Agents of the Company who are willing to wait upon them at any time. BENJ. II. MUSSER, Pres. FIRE INSURANCE. and got up, according to the latest styles, from 20 to 25 per cent. cheaper than any other house is possibly able to furnish them. They have now on hand a large and splendid assortment of Ready-made Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Cloths, Cassimeros and Vest-ings. Also, Hats and Cops, and every thing in their line for Men and Boys. Their materials were selected with the greatest caro, purchased at the lowest cash prices, and at such houses only, who never deal in anything like adefon-trash. Their friends may therefore rest assured that articler purchased of them will and must give satisfaction. Clothing made at fits short-det the transformer of the services of an ex-perienced Cutter, and lath in a spichaid assort-ment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, §c., which for beauty and durability cannot be surpassed. To the clitzens of the surrounding country we would say, give us a fair trial: All we nak is a fair look at our stock and we will not fail to con-vince you that our Clothing: is better made, of better materials, better trimmed, cut with more itate, and last though not least, cheaper than you have ever bough telsewhere.
