AMERICAN VOLUNTEER

JOHN B. BRATTON, Editor & Proprietor. CARLISLE, PA., SEP. 10, 1857.

Democratic State Ticket. FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM F. PACKER.

Of Lycoming County. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, NIMROD STRICKLAND,

FOR SUPREME JUDGES. WILLIAM STRONG, Of Berks Count JAMES THOMPSON, Of Eric County.

Democratic County Ticket. Assembly,
HUGH STUART, of South Middleton.
CHARLES C. BRANDT, of Perry county.

Prothonatary,
PHILIP QUIGLEY, of Carlisle. Clerk of Courts,
DANIEL S. CROFT, of Southampton. Register, SAMUEL N. EMINGER, of Mechan

Treasurer,
MOSES BRICKER, of Monroe. Commissioner, SAMUEL MEGAW, of Mifflin Director of Poor, JOHN TRIMBLE, of Silver Spring.

ding different and distinct political views. How comes it then, that we find these men banded Are they actuated by any honest motive, or influenced by any political principle? Evidently ings of the fathers of the Whig party, Clay and Webster, is in favor of a high protective tariff, a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands, and a strict construction of the Constitution. He is willing to encourage emigration to our shores, and to protect the emigrant in his rights after he is here. He is for protecing the people of all the States, in their rights as guaranteed to them by the Constitution, and pposed to alienating one portion of our counry from the other. Such were the principles the old Whig party professed to advocate.

And the Republican —another ingredient of the Union ticket—what is he in favor of, and what opposed to? First of all, he is in favor of the negro, and opposed to domestic slavery ; opposed to the Supreme Court of the United States, when its decisions do not agree with his own opinions; recommends sedition, and a defiance of the constituted authorities; treats with contempt the rights of our Southern brethern, and boldly sneers at our Constitution and form of gov-the agent had examined them, and by throwing set pleasure; and that this expression of your creat and respect for me as a man and an officer, will be cherished among the most pleasurable of the many recollections which Fshall carry with me through life.

Wishing you cach and all a kind good byo, I and the complete shall remain always your friend.

C. A. Max,

U. S. Army.

To Moss. J. B. Parker, W. M. Porter, J. B. Bratton, E. M. Biddle, R. M'Cartnay, W. M. Wilson, and others.

The agent had examined them, and by throwing being the most pleasure; and that this expression of your cut the bales and bundles into the road for accommend an early meeting of such a committee to day appointed to solect a proper number of such Conferences for this County.

Resolved, That we authorise the Standing of the we approve and indorse the nomination of Hugh Stuart for Assembly, made by the Democratic Convention of Clumberland County, and pledge him our undivided support.

Resolved, That we approve and indorse the nomination of Hugh Stuart for Assembly, made by the Democratic Convention of Clumberland County, and that this expression of your countries from each county, and that we recommend an early meeting of such a committee to day appointed to solect a proper number of such the support to the

The opposition papers tell us that theirs is a "Union ticket"—a ticket composed of old line Whigs, Know-Nothings and Republicans!—
Their State ticket, they call a "Union ticket "rote of them controlled in what manner he should conduct it would exceed to the transport of the present, that they iell the truth," should exceed to the conduct where the conduct was and that their is a commonwealth.

The Brief but Inglorious and Infquitous Reign of Know-Nothingism.
The Brief but Inglorious and Infquitous Reign of Know-Nothingism.
The Brief but Inglorious and Infquitous Reign of Know-Nothingism.
The Nashville Union vividly and powerfully portrays the results of Know-Nothingism duration it may be subject to either on its epithel or litionist. But, for the sake of argument, we will himself, and giving him to understand how he admit for the present, that they iell the truth, should execute the laws of Kansas. The impuand that their ticket is composed of men holders. We we England Clergymen' is beyond endurance. Not long since some three thousand of these same gentlemen attempted to together in opposition to the Democratic party?

dictate to Congress, as to its duties, and even counsel free to Messis. Meredith and Buckale to the they actuated by any honest motive, or inwent so far as to invoke the vengeance of God for their late services to the Commonwealth not. An old line Whig, if he follows the teach to oppose the prayer of their petition. The re- preme Court, against the sale of the Main Line hoped, would serve as a lesson to them for all islators last winter. time to come, and teach them to attend to their own business in future. But in this we have an, conferred special privileges on the Pennsylbeen mistaken, and now we find that crazy ab- vania Railroad Company, clearly and unques Vain, weak men.

impertinent officiousness deserved. He exposes out its good effect in bringing such persons to a

| The content of the

We are surprised to see papers professing andor and fairness finding fault with the Auditor General and State Treasurer for paying for their late services to the Commonwealth in upon Senators and Representatives who dared canvassing the injunction case before the Subuke they received on that occasion we had under the iniquitous bill passed by reckless leg-That bill, says the West Chester Jeffersoni-olition fanatic and agitator, Prof. B. SILLIMAN, of Yale College, and others of like kidney, writing to the President and prescribing his duties! at the same time deprive the people of one of at the same time deprive the people of one of their legitimate and constitutional rights—the We invite attention to the President's reply. right, through flieir representatives, to provide He is dignified and courteous, but at the same means for the support of the government by time administers them a rebuke such as their just and equal taxation. The works thus to be disposed of, were in the their ignorance, and gives them to understand that he properly understands his official obligations are their views in reference to a just and equi-tions, and that, by the help of God, he will table sale, they were bound in honesty to their onscientiously discharge them. His answer to constituents to see, in the sale and transfer, that these misguided men will not, we trust, be with-out its good effect in bringing such persons to a rights. They were the legitimate guardians proper consideration of their own conduct, and in satisfying the public mind that Mr. Buchanan means to be President while he is in office. for stepping forward to prevent the real plun-

The Nativi Union vividiy and powerfully of Know-Nothingism.

The Nativi Union vividiy and powerfully portrays the results of Know-Nothingism during the decisions of the feed States in 1854, when that daugrous arere.

In the elections of the feed States in 1854, when that daugrous are for the third or the state of the feed states and the elections of the feed States in 1854, when that daugrous are for the third or the state of the feed states and the elections of the feed States in 1854, when that daugrous are for the country for the feed and the feed of the feed states and the feed of th opium, but the poor woman soon fell into "tho ohy, alsep that knows no waking."

"I ought to specify more particularly a con-