RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met: That the following amendments are proposed to the constitution of the commonwealth in accordance with the provisio: s of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article cleven, as follows:

Secreton 1. The state may contract debts to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or of one or more acts or the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such dobts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited

SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in whr, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

a sum not less than two hundred and flity thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the said of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invaof government, and unless in case of war, inva-tion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than ir extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Section 5. The credit of the commonwealth SECTION 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corposition ration.

Section 6. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebt

SECTION 7. The legislature shall not author rize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its ns, or otherwise, to become a stockholde in any company, association, or corporation : or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to any cornoration, association, institution, or part

SECOND AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows:

No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or otherwise,) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof: nor shall any new county bo established, containing less than four hundred source miles.

From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respective; "from section five, same article, strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several-counties;" from section seven, same article, strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in her thereof the words, "and no," and strike out "section four, same article," and in lieu thereof insert the following:
"Skoryon 4. In the year one thousand pight

" SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight "Szorton 4. In the year one thousand tight hundred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of the hundred, shall be apportioned and districts, in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof: except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxables, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxables, to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal-taxable population as near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative." shall elect one representative.

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory as nearly equal in taxable population as possible, but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The lavislature at the first service after the

The legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and repretative districts, in the manner above m ded; such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FOURTH AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional section to the first article of said constitution, which shall be numbered and read as follows:

Section 26. The legislature shall have the nower to alter, revoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or un-der, any special; or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be mjurious to the citizens of the commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the cor
