We con- a child. dense the account, and give the following facts: Herrible Murder at the St. Lawrence Hotel-Herrible Murder at the St. Jawrence Hatel-Arrest and Statement of the Murderer.—Yester-day afternoon, one of the most horrible murders we have eyer been called upon-to record; occur-red at the St. Lawrence Hotel, in Chestnut St., above Tenth; it was the murder of Richard Car-ter, President of the Anthracite Bank, at Tamaqua, Penn'a., by a man named Thomas Washington Smith, who shot Carter with the contents of a six-barrel revolver—five barrels of which had been discharged. Mr. Carter arrived in this city yesterday morning, and entered his name at the St. Lawrence. It appears that, yesterday afternoon, at about half-past five o'clock, Smith alled on the clerk of the house, and asked r. Richard Carter was in ; Carter was nointed in one corner of the front room. After having in one corner of the front room. After having been scated there some fifteen minutes, Smith jumped up quickly, and drew a revolver from his pocket; and discharged five barrels, the contents of which entered the body of Carter.—

on the floor, and all that was heard from him was wOh! Oh!" While sitting on the sofa, there was no such talking which would indicate anger. After committing the deed, the murderer drew a long knife, and stated no man should come hear him except he was an officer of the law.—
He then walked out of the house, and went across Chestnut street, then came back and walked down towards Tenth street, when Rehim to the Central Police Station, where he had hearing before Alderman Eneu. The murderer (Smith) is about five feet eight inches in height, and about thirty years of age. He is the travelling agent for De Bow's Review, published in Washington, D. C. The dirk, which he had, he gave to the officer who arrested him, and the following inscription was discovered it, "Tom. Wash. Smith, De Bow's Review, N. O. and Wash., D. C."

The murdered man, (Carter,) is about six The murdered man, (Carter.) is about six feet two inches in height, and about forty-flve years of age. He resides in Tamaqua, Schuylkill county, Pa., and was President of the Anthracite Bank of that place. He is represented as being very wealthy and largely interested in the coal business. He weighs about 250 pounds.

Last evening the case was investigated by Coroner Fonner, and the following evidence was adduced:

was adduced:
H. S. Fiemming, of Allegheny City, sworn-Mr. Carter, the deceased, and the man that shot him, were sitting on a sofa in the front parlor, engaged in a very low and carnest conversation for some time; I got up and walked out into the back parlor; I got immediately opposite where they were sitting; they both got to their thet without a word passing between each other; the prisoner had his arm right up against his breast; he fired one shot; he shot the secand time before Carter fell; he fell forward on on the floor: I could hear no conversation; he pulled out his bowie knife and told me to stand off; he would give himself into the hands of the law, and no one else:

Jas. McCandless, of the firm of Jas. McCandless & Co., Pittsburg, sworn—I was sitting at a sitting room; I heard a report of a pistol; Mr. Carter was on his feet and was in the to; Mr. Carter was on his leet and was in the act of falling; saw the prisoner shoot; I was under the impression he shot five times; he put his pistol in his breast pocket and then pulled out a large knife; (knife here produced;) that is the knife; he then said stand off, I will submit to the law; I followed him out into the street; I saw him in custody and I returned again.

wm. S. Campbell, proprietor St. Lawrence Hotel, sworn-I was standing in my office, some distance from where the shooting occurred; my attention was attracted by two reports of a pistol; I looked from my office through the par-lor; I saw Mr. Carter on his feet; my impression is he was trying to catch the person who shot; he fell; while down I saw this man standing almost over him, as it were, and fire two shots; I started for the parlor, where the shooting was going on; by the time I got there the man was conting out of the door; I let him pass me, and followed him out on the street, kept close behind him, expecting to meet a police where; he crossed at Ninth and Chesnutstreets, when a filter and the little this of the street. when an officer; caught him; the officer asked hiti if he had any arms; he then handed him the dirk knife; he asked if he had any more, he put his hand in his pocket and handed him a pistol; I left him in charge of an officer and

Dr. Brown, sworn—I made a post mortem examination of the body of R. Carter, the decoased; I found one gunshot or pistof wound on the left side of the thorax, between the fourth and fifth ribs, about an inch from the strenum or breast botte; it passed through the right and left duticles of the heart; it also went through the descending aorta and lodged in the dorsal Yertebræ; there was a wound on the left side of his back, about two inches from the spinal colinn, about own inches from the spinal col-tinn, about one inch below the clavical on the left side; that ball remains in; there was a shot on the right side, about six inches from the spi-nal column and att inch above the crest illium, . that run around the body about six inches and came out on his abdomen; there was another ball on his left side, in about the same position as the one on his right side, and passed into the vertebræ column; upon lifting the deceased in the bed a ball was found; I think it was the the bed a ball was found; I think it was the one that struck him on the right side and came out of the abdomen; there was evidence of being struck with four balls, which entered his body; the wound on the left side of the thorax was the world that covered death.

Though healt'y-looking, his lungs were ulcerated, and his death, had he lived out a natural life, would in all probability have been caused by consumption. Among his effects was a sum of money and promissory notes, amounting to over five thousand dollars, and a handsome gold watch, all of which were taken in the part of fifty police has been sent for.

Deeds of Blood in Baltimore. "AMERICANS RULING AMERICA;" THE WAY THEY DO IT.

Baltimore city is in the keeping of the Know-Nothings, and of course no man's life is safe for an hour. The Mayor is a rowdy, and he countenances rather than condemns the outrages committed by his partizans. From the Baltimore Sun of Saturday we take the following: Between 6 and 7 o'clock, yesterday evening.

man named Thomas Pierce, well known in the eastern section of the city, was killed at the house of Catharine Shriver, on Caroline street, near Lancaster. Dr. Dashield was called, and pronounced her in a dangerous condition, though he could not tell what would be the probable result, as she was nearly pulseless, and there was no probability of early reaction. The assassins fled, pursued by a police officer, who fired after them, but they effected their escape. Information reached the Station House, about that time, that a fight was going on in the same vimuskets, were detailed to patrol that part of the city. Up to a late hour, however, there its. had been no further outrages. The Mayor had given orders for the arrest of all disorderly persons, and before 10 o'clock last night the Castern Station House was full.

The State of Affairs in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7, 1857 The exciting times incident to our late elections have nearly passed away, but no peaceful security for life and property remains to afford even a slight consolation for the injuries inflicted on our city and State. Scarcely had twilight on the 4th instant warned us that our city had been surrendered anew into the hands of trict, Mr. Kunkel, the democratic candidate, is our oppressors, whose rule is anarchy and reign in all probability cleeted—a gain. In the Apprenium district Gen Bowie is triumph a term of terror and violence, when the work of malicious destruction was begun by the burning of twenty-four dwellings, whose inmates The know nothings of Baltimore claim to have carried the city by a majority of some ten Germans, thus, at the hour of night, sending forth over a hundred persons, homeless and wanting in every necessary of life, to die of ress of atessis. Harris and the called -was cold or starvation mid the frosts of the coming winter. The incendiaries were seen carrying fragments of burning wood from house to house, lest some should escape the malicious intent of the perpetrators of so fiendish a deed. No arrests were made, our police being too busily engaged in celebrating the triumph of violence over the constitutional rights of our citizens.

The papers this morning record two-cold-blooded murders and several attempted assassinations, together with many outrages on pri-vate property and sacking of stores, dwelling houses, &c.; but they are far from noticing one-half that transpired.

one-half that transpired.

Yesterday and Thursday, all day, several gangs of rowdies, glorying in the appellations of "Rough Skins" and "Rip Rhos;" traversed our business thoroughfares in omnibuses, and with yelling and shouting for the "Natives," fired their deadly weapons, in all directions At several places where liquor was sold they of er satisf stroyed the decan:ers, emptying their centents into the streets. Citizens were attacked and beaten in all parts of our city; as usual on such occasions, the police being everywhere else.

To-day, at the meridian hour, an outrage of unusual character to be perpetrated on the streets, was committed, in the presence of a number of witnesses, in Fayette street, near the both of Cumberiand county. Sun fron building. It exhibits such unblushing effrontery and deprayity of morals as to cal for indignant punishment even from the hands of a stranger, and a fair exponent of the daringand impudence of the villains who infest our city. Two highly respectable and fine looking young ladies one of whom was accompanied by a small child, whilst passing the street re-ferred to, were encircled by a gang of ruffians, who had just emerged from a neighboring drinking saloon, and notwithstanding the resistance and screams for help, were roughly embraced and kissed by two of the desperadoes, and another paying a like compliment to the terrified child. Shortly after the above occurrence, a highly steemed citizen was attacked in the cinity, and running into Barnum's City Hotel, was purposed by one of the rufflans, and was only saved from perhaps death by the interference of several citizens; whilst in company one of our officers, to whom he appealed for protection, he was again attacked and brutally beaten by a comrade of his first assailant; over those having claims will present them properly fifty men witnessed the second attack but dared not interfere, when the sworn officers of the law afforded no security against the assailants. The frequent recurrence of worse scenes of vioner of Morris street and Brodway, just above the Bowlin Green, when a fine looking young woman sprang to the sidewalk, and collared a defy all law and authority and act openly evedefy all law and authority and act openly everywhere as their malevolent propensities dictate. The supincess of our citizens will be remarked and be a subject of amazement to your readers, but the end is not yet. Two thousand men of the worst stamp, thirsting for the blood of all who are opposed to the manner roared out lustily, and with a desperate effort in which they as Americans rule America, live wrenched himself loose; but she sprang after in our midst, most of them idle and profligate, all him again. and catching him by the skirts of his anxious to vent their ill will on the persons and property of the Democratic citizens; what better have we to expect: a reign of terror we now enjoy the intention to burn and destroy private prop erty has been openly and frequently manifested, the powers of the government in our city is al-ready in the hands of, not their leaders, but their tools, the rowdies, Plugs, &c., are the dictators. They rule in the convention of clubs, and Mayor Swann and his police dare not diso-bey their commands. This is not idle talk, but the citizens know it and feel it to be a fact too apparent for denial. This state of affairs i sheet in our city, a disgrace to a free and enlightened republic; it is supported only by the rowdies and their more respectable adherents; it pudlishes no fact without the varnish of a falsehoood, casting opprobrium on all opposed to the actions of the clubs, of whom it profeses

Assassination in Baltimore.—On Frida vening last, while a man named Thomas E earce, was sitting in a house of bad rep kept by Kate Shriver, on Caroline st. near Lancaster, playing cards with two women, the door was opened and a gun fired which killed him. The assassin fled, and has not been taken. Persons who saw him from the outside testify he wore light clothes and a slouched hat, and he is suspected to be one Robert Dudley, who has been a good deal in Philadelphia, and who has repeatedly threatened to kill Pearce.
