Gov. Brown's Inaugural Address.

The new Governor of Georgia is not disposed to shrink from the duties and responsibilities of his high office. In his inaugural address to the legislature he thus firmly and boldly declares his position in regard to the banks of his State:

"In the midst of a high state of commercial prosperity, with abundant crops, and a bright prospect for the future, the country is suddenly shocked by an almost general bank suspension...

"You, gentlemen, are the representatives of the people, and it is for you to consider what constitutional remedy you have in your power to apply. The fault lies not with you; it lies not with the honest masses of the people..."
