

ment, and to attempt it would be grossly unwise. The Democratic party has held up its hands since, and asserted it a year ago, by endorsing his (Mr. Douglas's) report, by the Committee on the subject. Three hundred thousand copies were circulated as a party document, and he himself paid for one hundred thousand of them. [Laughter.] Mr. Bigler then protested and claimed the status of limitation. He said that the President's principles laid down twenty years ago under entirely different circumstances. It is not half so long since Mr. Douglas declared the Missouri line was the best compromise, and in 1848 he proposed to extend it to the Pacific ocean, yet he repudiated the whole of it. Mr. Douglas denied the right of Mr. Bigler to offer a statute of limitations. None but the authorized attorney of the party can thus interpose. As the Senator has denied his authority to speak for the President, he cannot file a bill, and was ready to vote for it again. By doing so, there would be no quarrel. It would not do to taunt him with once voting for a measure he would not vote for now.

From Washington. The Executive Session of the Senate—Nominations of Col. Richardson, as Governor of Nebraska, and Gen. Denver confirmed. WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The nomination of Col. Richardson, as Governor of Nebraska, was, to day, confirmed by the Senate. The Senate has nearly appointed the Secretary of State of Kansas confirmed by 29 Democratic votes, Mr. Douglas being absent. Nineteen Republicans voted against it. Gen. Denver has been informed of his appointment by telegraph to Boonville. Thomas Schenck has been appointed U. S. Attorney for the District of New Orleans, his predecessor being removed on the ground of not using sufficient vigilance to prevent the escape of Gen. Walker and his party from that point. Hon. Nathan Clifford's appointment, to supply the vacancy in the Supreme Court Bench, has not yet been definitely acted upon by the Senate.

From Utah. St. Louis, Dec. 14.—The Kansas City Journal of Commerce of the 3rd inst., says: Joseph Magens, a trader on the Green river, arrived on Tuesday, being the latest arrival from Utah. Mr. Magens confirms previous advices. He reports that the winter emigrants trains were crowded from Mormon depredations; that their wagons being burned, and their cattle stolen. A large quantity of grain and forage stored at Fort Bridges, had been burned by the Mormons to prevent its purchase by the Government. The wagons had also been burned all the grass on the route beyond Fort Bridges. The snow was 3 feet deep in the mountains. The country was covered with snow as far east as the Blue river. Buffaloes were very abundant.

Accidental Shooting of Col. Wynkoop—Fatal Result. TAMPAQUA, December 14.—Col. Wynkoop, late U. S. Marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, was accidentally killed while hunting near this place, yesterday. He was returning to his camp, in company with his servants, when the gun in the hands of one of the latter was accidentally discharged. The load took effect in Col. Wynkoop's leg, and he died in half an hour from the effects of the wound. Mr. Wynkoop was a Colonel of the Pennsylvania Regiment of Volunteers, in the Mexican War.

THE TREASURY REPORT.—The Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, Hon. HOWARD COHEN, is a very able and interesting document, and reflects great credit on the talents and industry of its distinguished author. We should gladly publish the Report, had we room, but its length (being about the same as the President's Message) precludes its insertion. We may take some extracts hereafter.

THE REPORTS OF THE SECRETARIES OF WAR, NAVY, INTERIOR, AND OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL, are all excellent and interesting documents, showing that the business of the departments over which they preside, has been ably and satisfactorily performed, and that they are the right men in the right places.

Soon as next—Christmas, and oh! where shall we look for a turkey dinner? Echo answers: Nowhere.
