"William, look up," said lawyer Groy ; "tell us who made you ?

William, who was considered a fool, screw-ing up his face and looking somewhat bewildered, slowly answered-"I dun'no-Moses, I 'spose !"

"I dun no-Moses, I spose : "That will do, William." "Now," said the counsel, addressing the court, " the witness says he 'sposes Moses made him. This, certainly is an intelligent answermore than I thought him capable of giving, for it shows that he has some faint knowledge of the holy scriptures; but I submit that it is not

"TO THE WORLD.

"When a man commits suicide, the world wishes to know why he did it. The answer in my case lies in a nut shell-I am tired of living.' Life is a farce, happiness a humbug, and the cares, trials and tribulations which I see before me, offer no inducement for a prolongation of this earthly sorrow. 'With a good heart' and a calm mind, I plunge in medias res and try the realities of an unknown world. Looking forth upon the horizon of my life, all looks dark and dreary, save one spot where twinkles

the star of hope and love. "To those of my friends who have watched my career for the past three years, they will see nothing strange in my present determina-tion. It is not rash, for I have calmly considcheap.
