THE FARMER SHOULD BE A MAN OF TASTE. -Every farmer should be a man of taste and accomplishment, as well as of skill and of sound knowledge. "He is," says a correspondent, 'an ii-dweller of nature's temple, and is every. accomplianment, as well as of skill and of sound knowledge. "He is," says a correspondent, "an in dweller of nature's temple, and is every-where surrounded by the beautiful creations of art supreme. Here he may take lessons from the choicest pencilings of the only perfect Master. In matters of taste, order and neatness, the American Farnier need be second to none, these qualifisations being manifest in all his op-

When in passing the domain of a large farm musical instruments of all kinds and at all prices when in passing the domain of a large larm-er, I find his spacious dwelling and his exten-sive barns and stables side by side—door yard in close juxtaposition—the latter oderiferous of its fertilizing contents—I at once see that with all his acquisitions, the proprietor has neglect-ed to store his mind with a little humanizing together with an innumerable variety of articles elegantly finished and at low rates. Also, ar extensive collection of BOOKS, comprising the various English and American Annuals for 1858 various English and Americali Annuals for 1858, richly embellished & illustrated Poetical Works, with Children's Pictorial Books, for children of all ages. His assortment of School Books and School Stationary is also complete, and com-prises every thing used in College and the Schools. It also desires to call the particular attention of families to his elegant assortment of tasic. A few ideas and principles of order and propriety would have put his barns and stables with all their unpleasant accompaniments, in rear of the dwelling, giving the latter prominence and character, showing that the farmer and his household consider themselves superior to the attention of families to his elegant assortment of beasts of the stall. and are unwilling to live virtually in their midst. Considerations of this kind would greatly improve the rural appearance of our own beloved New England, and greatly enhances the at-tractiveness of her sweet and quiet homes.

HONOR TO THE FARMERS .- The Middletown (Conn.) Constitution says that the farmers in the neighborhood of that city having resolved te contribute wood and other necessaries for the poor there, entered the aity with their teams to the number of one hundred and twenty-nine yoke of oxen, with seventy loads of wood, of excellent quality, closely packed. Twenty dol-lars and fifty cents in money were contributed, besides a large quantity of provisions. A din-ner was provided at the M'Donough House, by Bank. subscription from citizens, at which ninety sa down, among whom were the Mayor, and Rev. Dr. Goodwin. It passed off in good shape. Honor to the good farmers of Connecticut for this generous example. Why should it not b followed elsewhere by our liberal yeomanry ?

GOOD ROADS .- A writer in the Tribune exains the pi naving goo all times, in all parts of the country. It is ex-ceedingly simple and entirely practicable. It consists in keeping the road dry. Ditch the road on both sides, so that no water can stand so as to soak into or under the road. Where the track is very level, cross ditches should be made at proper distances, to convey all the water away from the side ditches. In this manner with a trifling additional expense, a good road can be secured forever, and a vast amount o expense in constant repairs, and in the wear and tear of horses, cattle, and carriages be saved.

Heavy Failure in York !

The announcement of the failure of Mr. Alex Demuth, one of our principal Dry Goods Mer-chants, has caused a great excitement among a number of our citizens, and it has been the general topic of conversation, in our town, since Saturday morning last. We hear his liabilities variously estimated at from 50 to 90 thousand dollars. It is said that a number of persons will sustain heavy losses, through this failure, and it is feared some of them will become greatly in-volved in their pecuniary affairs.—York Press.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION .- At the election on Tuesday last, the Black Republicans, as was anticipated they would do, carried the placed themselves fair and square on the Lecompton platform, instead of on the anti-Lecompton plank as was done by their State Committee, it is more than probable the result of the election would be different from what it is.

As it is, the Black Republicans, into whose hands the Democratic State Committee played, have swept the old Granite State from the borders of Massachusetts to the White Mountains. and left the Democracy in the same minority they have been for the last three or four years.

"KEEP TO THE RIGHT."-A. grumbler at our side snys the time was when this old rule of walking and driving was observed, but it is im-satins, ribbons, flowers, etc.; coronation, cru-vella and crinoline skirts; brass hoops; also, possible now, as the ladies' hoops are so enormous that they make a person get into the gut- variety. ter, no matter what side he wishes to take."
