may be "unfair," or oven marked by usurpa-tion and corruption at everystep, yet the State must come into the Union. The State may be palpably anti-republican, but it makes no difference. It may repudiate the constitutional laws of Congress, but the President would have no discretion. We submit in all candor whether such a proposition is upon dogs and sluts, owned or kept within the not disroputable to Congress. If Congress is limits of this Rorough, be and the same is here bound to know that the government of a State asking admission is fairly made, how can Con-gress neglect to exercise that right, or how au-thorize the creation and admission of a State which may be the offspring of corruption and usurpation? The reason these gentlemen asbig for returning the Lecompton constitution, is, that it may not have been fairly made.— Upon what decent plea then can they authorize the same people to make one that may be un-fair from beginning to end, and force it into the Union? The proposition involves more than absurdity, and we shall not characterize it as it deserves because we are convinced it received thoughtless votes. It may answer the purpose of defeating admission. It is fit for nothing else. If the democrats who are allied with the Ware House, on West High street, where he republicans wish a settlement, why do they not will keep constantly on hand a large supply of insist upon a fair and reasonable, or at least a the best quality of CoAL, to wit: insist upon a fair and reasonable, or at least a certain proposition ?

Then, again, they propose to remand the Le-compton constitution to a select class of peo-ple, who have been in Kansas for six months. and not the whole body of the electors. This is an act of high handed dictation, setting at defiance all that they have said from the beginning. All parties have voted for admission un-der the Lecompton constitution. Then why not come a little further and vote for the Senate bill, a proper and legal admission, under which the people can at once have just such a government as they please?

For these reasons, which must strike every mind, it must be obvious to the country, that the Senate of the United States, however anxi-ous they may be to unite with the House upon a plan for the immediate settlement of this Kan-ner execution connect consent to do so under as question cannot consent to do so under the House bill, which is unconstitutional, unfair in its provisious, and objectionable altogether.

Popular Sovereignty Recognized.

The protracted struggle on the Kansas ques-tion, says the Harrisburg Union, has been productive of at least one good effect. ' It has com-mitted all parties in the country to the doctrine of popular sovereignty. The Montgomery bill, objectionable only because it defers the admis-sion of Kansas until a future day, without giving any practical result which would not be equally attainable through the Lecompton Constitution,

Dr Letters have been received at Washington from ex-Dresident Pierce, conveying the gratifying intelligence that the climate of Ma-deria continues to prove highly beneficial to the deria continues to prove highly beneficial to the health of his estimable lady.

and clearly and distinctly recognizes the legal ity of the territorial laws, and, therefore, of the present and past territorial legislatures. This bill provides that all may vote, "who are legal voters under the laws of the Territory of Kan-sas." The Republicans in Congress voted for these provisions, and the Republicans out of Congress are everywhere rejoicing that they did so vote. For years they have stouly denied the validity of the laws of the Territorial Legis-latures, and now they turn around and endorse the great fact that the laws passed by these Le-gislatures really are binding upon the people.
