The Conference Act and the Democratic

Press. We have watched with great interest the ows of the press upon the passage of the bill lmitting Kansas into the Union. North, tones of sincere gratulation the administration only about one mile from the anchorage of the fown, and in two fathoms water, an open bout was seen standing towards the brig, in which were in our power he would gladly republish twere in our power he would gladly republish the numerous articles, all in most excellent tember, which we find in the entire Democratic ter, which we find in the entire Democratic tris also a most notable fact that were Minimum with the state of the s the opposition press express satisfaction with conclusion of a subject which has done uch to vex and annoy the country, and the antinuance of which in the halls of Congress uld effect nothing but wischief and injury.fere and there we find, it is true, an expression of chronic asceticism, and disappointment by the Republican press, manifesting chagrin at the loss of a favorite hobby, rather than was afterwards found, and proved to be a Minpointing out real, solid objections to the act

The reply was—"Heave to, or, by G—d I will let you know what I yeart!" The vessel was the commission of a crime by the opposition, the commission of a crime by the opposition, arrested and scattered them, and are in a fair

The captain replied that he didn't heave to. The captain replied that he doubt not, thousands have come to believe it. This would be all well enough, or at least endivable, if it were not almost certain to be accompanied by extreme professions of devotion on the part of the Republicans to northern interests. On the subject of the admission of new States into the Union as exhibited by the legislation of this session we have a bit of practical the brig before their attention was called to it. lation of this session, we have a bit of practical test worth all the theories in the world. Kansas came to Congress with a constitution recognizing slavery; every republican voted against her admission, and set up a fearful howl over the act. Minneso:a came next, with a free consti-tution, and the great body of the Northern and tious effort made on the part of the republicans there no life for the abolitionists but that of ag-itation and alarm? At least they should no longer, with the records before them, accuse gen-tlemen of the South with being governed by sectional prejudices, partialities or antipathies. It would be a sacrifice greater, we fear, than our institutions could bear, to permit the republicans to control for a brief period the federal administration: otherwise surely the experiment could not fail to be of immense advantage to the country. It is disagreeable to take med icines, and it often weakens the system; so it might be in the case of the elevation of the republicans to office: but once installed and made responsible for their acts, and the people of the United States would become as thoroughly cured of that kind of political remedy as a sufferer even was of epecac .- Washington Union.

· BRITISH AGGRESSION .-- The following is said to be a correct record of the outrages committed on American vessels by British ships of war, lately, in the Gulf of Mexico, under their assumed right of search for slaves:

"Ship Tropic Bird fired into boarded, and through life. searched : schooner Cortez seized, and now de tained at Inagua : schooner N. B. Borden fired into, boarded and searched; schooner Mobile fired into, boarded, and searched; brig Robert Wing fired into, boarded and searched: bark Glenburn overhauled at sea: and bark W. H. In California, on the 23d of March, Mr. Jacon Chandler boarded and searched, while lying at Hion, formerly of Newville, Pa., in the 69th anchor in the port of Sangua la Grande.

their departure thence, and as they rose to a great height from the ground, as though for a long journey, it is a melanckoly conclusion that they are coming up vegetation in Ohio. It is, therefore, no very violent supposition that Pennsylvania, with a rather milder climate than lower is not unlikely the bey sixted by the considered of the control of the considered of th is not unlikely to be visited by them. These insects are not like the common grasshopper, which are every summer found in our fields and roads, but are of the size of a locust, with the same gregarious habits. The ordinary grass-hopper is weak of wing, and never rises to a great height, whereas the legions which have so great height, whereas the legions which have so repeatedly desolated. Utah and Texas rise far into the upper air, and move off together to great distances, like wild, geese. They appear in innumerable hosts, and, instead of scattering, alight in a body upon some devoted locality, which they attack and destroy with the systematic movement of an army. They will thus eat up a crop of corn or cotton in a very short time. In Utah this plague visited the growing traceled with atter destruction as often as three cereals with utter destruction as often as thre times in one season, so that the afflicted Mor-mons were reduced to extremities for food.— They seem now to have attacked our frontier States, and to be moving gradually into the body of the republic. The horrors of famine have never been felt in our country, and, accus tomed to the most prolific abundance, it is a calamity to which no one has ever looked, vet these grasshoppers are a terrible visitation to a region .- Phila. A lady tells this story: I have been out in Indiana on a visit, and while there I found a kitten, which I brought home for a plaything for my two children. To prevent any dispute about my two children. To prevent any dispute about the ownership of puss, I proposed, and it was agreed, that the head of the kitten should be mine, and the body should be the baby's, and Eddie, the eldest—but three years old—should be the sole proprietor of the long and beautiful tail. Eddie rather objected at first to this division, as putting him off with an extremely small share of the animal, but soon become reconciled to the division, and quite proud of his owner. to the division, and quite proud of his owner-ship in the graceful terminus of the kitten.

One day, soon after, I heard the poor puss maahlp in the graceful reminded.
One day, soon after, I heard the poor puss making a dreadful mewing, and I called out to Eddie: "There, my son, you are hurting my part of the kitten. I heard her cry." "No, I didn't, mother; I trod on my part, and your part with their patronage, on the most reasonable terms and in the very best style.

Another Shot from the British:

The brig Wingold, of Boston, Captain Loring, which arrived at this port yesterday from Sierra Morena via Cardenas, was fired into by a British views of the press upon the passage of the bill crusier, under the following circumstances.—
Idmitting Kansas into the Union: North,
Idmitting Kansas into the Union: The vessel cleared at Havana in ballast for Sierra Morena, to load, and on the 15th ult., when outh, East and west send que a mosern in elt rejoicing at this result; and everywhere, in elt rejoicing at this result; and everywhere, in only about one mile from the anchorage of the town models to the send que to the se furthermore, being in short hailing distance, Captain Loring very naturally concluded that if they had wanted to communicate with him, they could easily have done so without the warlike preliminary of firing a gun. The boat was not more than half a cable's length from the vessel. A third musket ball, however, was soon fired, ion. It is obvious from the general He immediately hoisted the American ensign, Minnesota and the Black Republican Factionsits.

It has been so often asserted that the souther and selfish in all our federal relations, that, we should not know they wished to speak with him, the contenting in the book of all speaks with him, are stated to the commission of a crime by the opposition, arcerdingly hove to, and the boat ranged along side, when six or eight men, with cuttasses in hand and revolvers by their side, sprang upon deck. Capt. Loring asked what they wanted. A man, apparently the officer of the party, all attention of the coal consumers of Carlisle and vicinity, and the public generally, to their superior quality of Coal, such as greasy cap, said he belonged to an English man of-war, and accompanied the remark with an oath. The captain inquired the name of the man-of-war, but the officer replied—"it is none of your business," and asked Capt. Loring why he didn't heave to. The captain replied that he did not know they wished to speak with him, step the commission of a crime by the officer of the party, all attention of the coal consumers of Carlisle and vicinity, and the public generally, to their superior quality of Coal, such as greasy cap, said he belonged to an English man of the remark with an oath. The captain inquired the name of the man-of-war, but the officer replied—"it is none of the collection of the coal consumers of Carlisle and vicinity, and the public generally, to their superior quality of Coal, such as greasy cap, said he belonged to an English man of the remark with an oath. The captain inquired the name of the man-of-war, but the officer replied—"it is none of the coal consumers of Carlisle and vicinity, and the public generally, to their superior quality of Coal, such as greasy cap, said he belonged to an English man of the coal consumers of Carlisle and vicinity, and the public gener the brig before their attention was called to it.

The officer finally demanded a sight of the ship's papers, which were readily shown to him, and after examining them he expressed himself satisfied and left the vessel. Capt. Loring then proceeded on his course, and shortly after dropped his anchor at Sierra Morena.

It was afterwards learned that the officer re and Southern democrats voted to receive her fused to tell that the boat belonged to the Bri into the Union precisely as they had voted in tish war steamer Buzzard, which was cruising the case of Kansas. The latter State having on the coast, and had sent his boat in near the been unconditionally admitted under the constitution, we then find a most violent and factious effort made on the part of the republicans boat, who numbered about twenty, as the dirtto prevent the members of Congress sent here lest set of fellows he ever saw, and he at once by a northern free State constituency from takg their seats. What does all this mean? Is boat was stowed away a twelve pounder, which the men were just bringing up into position when the brig hove to.

The general appearance of the men and the molent bearing of the officer after coming on deck, if they did not confirm any previous ap-prehension of pirates, certainly did not raise the sually good opinion entertained of the manly bearing of the men composing the Royal Navy, and the gentlemanly qualities of their officers Boston Journal of Monday.

Another British Gutrage:-The barqu John Rowe, arrived Saturday at New York, reports having been boarded twice by a boat from the British war steamer Buzzard—once in the Gulf, and a second time in the port of Sagua la Grande. This makes the twenty-second outrage of the kind.
