Distressing Casuality. We are pained to learn that a most interesting little girl, between six and seven years old, daughter of Mr. George Swords, residing in Papertown, was drowned on Friday last, in mounpertown, was drowned on Figure 3 and on a sand dollars, has been carried to to the Crystal foot-log. It seems that the mother sent this Palace at Sydenham for exhibition. A London paper in giving the following the following little girl, and another small sister and brother, little girl, and another small sister and brother, to a neighbors a short distance off, for cabbage to a neighbors a short distance on, for cabbage plants, and having to cross the stream which was much swolfen by the late protracted rains, on reaching it the brother stopped to fish, whilst on reaching it the brother stopped to fish, whist the little girls proceeded to cross on a foot log. Having got about midway over; the foremost fittle girl heard a splash in the water; but could not venture to stop to see what had occurred, lest by losing her equilibrium she would be precipitated into the stream, and having with considerable difficulty attained the opposite gold was subsequently found. It was found shore, and turning around to look for her sister was made acquainted with the painful fact that she had fallen into the stream and was buried speedily given to the neighbors, but too late to save the life of the unfortunate little girl. The body was found in the Vellow Procedure. specarly given to the negations, save the life of the unfortunate little girl. The body, was found in the Yellow-Breeches creek, a about 2 feet 4, inches long, 10 inches broad, and mile below where the casuality occurred.—Carmile below where the casuality occurred .- Carlisle American, of last week.

How Bishop according to the Episcopal canons, is as follows: The Convention is divided into two Houses—clerical and tay. The clergy express their preference first, and elect in the first instance, and, subsequently, the lay members, by a majority, either confirm or yeto the choice of the clergy. Both Houses must agree before a selection can be made. If this is done, and a selection is made by both bodies, then a majority of the Bishops must agree; and also a majority of the standing committees of the Church throughout the country, being applied to, must give in their assent. To complete the necessary preliminaries, the "Presiding Bishop," as he is called, (the highest functionauy in the Episcopal connexion, and now the Rey. Dr. Brownell.) appoints a time and place for the consecution of the prelate-elect into the full powers of the Episcopal Coffice. of the Episcopal Office.

A Duel Frustrated.

WASHINGTON. June 5.—In the House of Repiesentatives, on the 2d inst., Mr. Harris, of Illrnois, denounced a personal statement made by Mr. Hughes, of Indiana, as false, when Mr. Hughês called him a liar. Mr. Harris replied ... It is false, and you can wear it at your pleas

Mr. Hughes subsequently sent a challenge to Mr. Harris, who promptly accepted it. Through the influence of the friends of both parties, the challenge was afterwards, suspended or tempo challenge was atterwards, suspended or tempority withdrawn for explanations. And late tonight an arrangement was made by which the offensive language was withdrawn by each in the order that it was uttered, and thus the difficulties have been amicably adjusted.

DISTRESSING SUICIDE. -On Thursday nigh last, a young man named Reed, of East Hanover township, committed suicide at his home He had been attending the religious revival in his vicinity for some time, and appeared under deep impress, and with very great emotion in regard to his fate. On going to bed, he menful was about to happen him-that he felt ful was about to happen num—that he left so bad he hardly knew what to do with himself.—She endeavored to console him, but he did not get to sleep till near midnight. On waking in the morning, the wife found him absent, and not dreaming of anything wrong, though some what surprised, went about her cooking. One of the children was sent for some articles to the garret, who came hurrying down stairs, saying that somebody was hanging from the rafters .-The unliappy wife at once conjectured the whole affair, and hurried up stairs, where she found her husband suspended by a small chain to one of the pieces of the roof. The family had been in rather destitute circumstances and by the death of the husband and father, will be ne cean of the nusoand and lather, will be placed in a state of poverty, unless the neighbors aid them, which they will probably do.—
The above facts are given by a correspondent residing in the township.—Harrisburg Herald.

THE INUNDATION IN VIRGINIA.—At Piedmont, Va., a day or two since, the rise in the north branch of the Potomac was so great as to overflow a large portion of the the town. The citizens were obliged to leave their houses in skills hog-troughs, or in rafts, and one fellow who, in spite of the remonstrances of his neighbors, persisted in remaining at his house, was flually compelled to abandon it by swimming with his wife on his back. The fellow came near losing his life by the operation, and was only saved by clinging to logs and planks which had been sent o him by those on the shore.
