The London Times.

We make the following extract relative to the "British Thunderer" from an interesting article, by Dr. R. Shelton McKenzie, upon English politics, which we find in the Press :

Mr. John Walter, M. P., for the borough of report the roads between there and Fort Lara-Nottingham, is principal proprietor of the mie very heavy, and much cut up by the pass-age of trains. The mail came as far as Fort Laramie, under an escort provided by Gen. Times newspaper, holding nineteen shares out of the twenty-four into which that valuable publication is divided. The publisher, who is responsible for all libels, &c., has one share. Mr. John Delane, the editor, has one share ; nated. and Mrs. Carden, mother of Sir Robert Carden, the present Lord Mayor of London has three shares. It is estimated that each proprietory share is worth over $10,000 a year, making the agreeable, sum of $240,000 to $260,000, per annum out of all the shares. Mr. Walker's individual receipts from this source may be avernged at some $200,000 a year.

Mr. Robert Lowe, M. P., for the borough of Kidderminster, is the leading political writer in the Times. He is now 47 years old, and, in many respects, rather a remarkable man.
