Democratic State Nominations. SUPREME JUDGE, WM. A. PORTER, Of Philadelphia CANAL COMMISSIONER, WESTLEY FROST, of Fayette Co.

Democratic County Ticket. FOR CONGRESS. JOHN A. AHL, of Cumberland county. [Subject to the decision of the Conferees.]

ASSEMBLY, HUGH STUART, of South Middleton.

SHERIFF. ROBERT ALLISON, of Carlisle.

COMMISSIONER, NATHANIEL H. ECKLES, of Hampden. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR ABRAHAM BOSLER, of South Middleton.

AUDITOR. GEORGE SCOBY, of Carlisle.

We call the attention of capitalists to the advertisement of LEM'L. Todo, Esq., President of the Carlisle Gas and Water Company, who offers for sale the Bonds of the Borough. To those who have money to invest this is a good opportunity, as it will be perfectly safe, and the interest paid promptly when due.

MILITARY ENCAMPMENT .- The "Junior Cadets," under the command of Capt. J. Duncan STEVENSON, were encamped in the neighborhood of "Noble's Ford," on Friday and Saturday last. Some of the officers from the Barracks were on the ground, and expressed gratification at the order and strict military discipline which appeared to prevail. The Company are indebted to the politeness of Col. CRITTENDEN, for the use of the government tents, furnished them by him for that occasion.

NOT VERY ENCOURAGING .- When Colonel M'CARTNEY received the nomination for Sheriff. by one majority, in the mongrel Convention, on Monday, one of his friends, with more zeal than discretion, moved that the nomination be ratified by a unanimous vote of the Convention,-The motion was responded to by the M'DER MOND and SNYDER delegates by a very decided hiss and threatening gestures. Such was their answer to the imprudent motion.

TEARING DOWN TO RE-BUILD .- Our neigh bor Innorr, has commenced to tear down the old-stone building in which he has kept his Grocery store, to erect on its site an elegant three-story brick, with open iron front. This will be quite an improvement on Hanover street, which, by the way, has become, in the way of business, the street of Carlisle. His Grocery store, in the mean time, will be kept in the basement of his dwelling, next door,

WE notice a large number of strangers at the hotels from the cities, who seem to admire the beauty and locality of our town. There is no more delightful summer resort in this or . any other State than Carlisle.

AGRICULTURAL HARVEST HOME .- Our agricultural friends turned out in large numbers, on Saturday last, to the Harvest Home Celebration of the Camberland County Agricultural Society. A considerable number of young farmers who are about organizing a Junior Society, also participated in the celebration. A very excellent cold dinner had been prepared, which afforded a plentiful repast to some 250. After the cloth had been removed, Judge WATTS, at the request of those present, delivered a very interesting and appropriate address, in which he spoke of the farming interests in general, and the Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania, and it when completed, the largest in the place. recommending it to the support of the County Societies. After he had finished, Mr. George W. Sheaffer offered a resolution, instructing cultural Society to pay to the Farmer's High and the meeting adjourned.

WHISTLING TO KEEP THEIR COURAGE UP.

Our opponents—we do wish they had a name, rick of our opponents; but when the day of pattle arrives, the ballot-box generally knocks of sentiment with the Democratic papers on the subject of Congressman, and this fact induces our opponents to cock their ears, look as wise as owls, and vainly imagine that they will have chance to elect their candidate! Without wishing to deprive them of their present anticipations, truth compels us to inform them that in regard to Congress they are "counting their chickens before they are hatched." There is no bad feeling existing among the Democrats of this District, and our word for it, the regular Democratic nominee will be cordially supported and triumphantly elected. Our opponents may as well, therefore, cease their beastings, for they can neither deceive the people nor benefit their sinking cause by this weak stratagem.

In the mean time, we would urge upon our Democratic friends of the different townships and boroughs the necessity of an early and thorough organization. By the 1st of September our organization should be complete, and we provided every Democrat performs his duty.is. Let all heart-burnings and bickeringsprinciples are eternal, and he must have a liminot sacrifice his feelings for men in preference vere. Commerd us to the man who can give up a friend for the sake of the principles he beieves in. It is an evidence of his integrityand index to his character. Then, away with grumblers and mischief-makers, and let us unite, heart and hand, and give a long pull, a a strong pull, and a pull altogether, for the ticket; the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket. THE PIO NIC parties of the Sunday School If we do this, honestly and fearlessly, the twin Scholars, on Thursday of last week, passed off brothers, Sam and Sambo, will not be seen after the second Tuesday of October.

The American of last week, in speaking of the Democratic County Convention, says that the ticket placed in nomination is the weakest that has been named for a number of years. If our memory serves us, we believe our neigh bor made the same remark when he snoke of scholars connected with the German Reform | the Democratic County ticket this time last Church of our borough, of which the Rev. The mongrel opposition ticket appears to satisfy no one, and can and will be defeated by at least 500 majority, if our friends do their duty. Fall into line, then, Democrats, and give your undivided support to the Democratic candidates. Let us have no scratching of the ticket this fall-no halting as to our duty. "The ticket, the whole ticket," must be our watch-words.

OPPOSITION TICKET .- The Opposition Convention met in the Court-House, in this place, on Monday last, and placed in nomination the following ticket-to be defeated in October next:

Assembly -- John M'Curdy, Shippensburg Sheriff. -- ROBT. M'CARTNEY, Carlisle. missioner .- PETER MOHLER, of Monroe D. of Poor.—Geo. D. GRAIGHEAD, of South Auditor. - DAVIDSON ECKELS, of Carlisle.

The Convention was dull and spiritless-a sure indication of defeat. More anon.

PRISBYTERIAN CHURON.-The new church bout being erected by the Presbyterian denomuntion at Mechanicsburg, is progressing rapidly, almost the entire foundation being already aid. The length of this church is sixty-five if true, would remove us from office and send wound up by giving a history of the progress of feet, and the breadth 44 feet, which will make us to prison for the balance of our life. Our opponents are fond of making mountains out of mole-hills—large calculations out of very trifling affairs. For instance, after they have escaped the ponitentiary by a flaw in the law-attempt to put on airs and to assail those in whose shadow they dare not stand. A proper respect for our readers would prompt us not to notice the ravings of a venal and corrupt sheet; but, as there are two distinct charges made against our official character, we feel it our duty to notice them, notwithstanding our "unfortunate" who stands sponser for them .-We quote from the Herald as follows:

"When we attempt to fleece the Common wealth by a false bill of entries, and are caught in the fact by an investigating committee of the Legislature, or open a letter addressed to another, and abstract from it a valuable enclosure, with the intention of converting it to our own ise, we may well blush to notice the lighter of ences of others.' As we never had any dealings with the Comnonwealth, except in the capacity of State Printer, we presume our neighbor refers to the exploded accusation that was made several years ago, which accusation was, that all State should be ready to call the roll and number our Printers, for the ten years previous, had overmen. [See Senate Journal, Session 1843.] After this we were elected Printer to the Senate. And this is what our unprincipled assailant calls our "attempt to fluece the Commonwealth!" Poor devil; fortunate would it have been for his bail, had his "attempt to fleece the Commonwealth" resulted in the same satisfactory manner. The next implication contained in the extrac we have quoted above from the Herald, is that we, taking advantage of our position as Postmaster, "opened a letter addressed to another, and abstracted from it a valuable enclosure." If we have been guilty of such a crime, the editor has only to report the fact to the P. O. Department, and our removal will follow inside of forty-eight hours. We dare him to do it, or stand convicted of falsehood. We know the letter he refers to, we suppose, and for his benefit we give him the following information relative to it.-A mail contractor failed, and sold a man makes a long speech, he has not digested out his contract to a sub-contractor. A con- his subject properly, either from indolence, tractor is paid by drafts from the Department .-These drafts were of course drawn in favor of the original contractor, and he gave our Deputy difficult of all the arts connected with either (then Col. MATEER,) orders to lift them and hand them over to the sub-contractor, (in pay Our Deputy did so, and every three months a draft arrived, directed to the original contractor, which was handed over or passed to the credit of the sub-contractor. This lasted for some two years, when the time of the contract The Democrats of this county have only came to a close. The last draft arrived, and our Deruty, as usual, gave it to the sub-contractor, who left it in our hands for collection. We waited on the original contractor to get his endorsement on the back of the draft, but he of the floods. Droves of hogs turned out upon were to leave San Luis on the 12th of July for refused, and demanded the draft himself. As his object was to deprive the sub-contractor of the money due him, we assumed the act of our Deputy, and refused to deliver the draft to him, but returned it to the Department, with a letter explaining the whole circumstance. We received an answer to our letter from the Post-master General in a few days, in which he approved our own and our Deputy's action, "but," added the letter, "as the sub-contractor neglected to have his name entered upon the books of the Department, the original contractor can demand the draft." Such is a history of the letter we opened containing "a valuable enclosure." There is scarcely a Postmaster in the State who has not performed this very duty. We know a Postmaster not a hundred miles from Carlisle, who, in obedience to orders, opens, each quarter, some half dozen of these letters "addressed to another," and hands the drafts they contain to sub-contractors. We have had this duty imposed upon us frequently ever since we have held the Post Office, and no doubt we shall continue to have it to the end of our term. How wicked and devilish, was it then, for the editor of the Herald to dare charge us with a crime, which, a man who can be base enough to thus attempt to impugn the character of a public officer, will not hesitate to rob a County Treasury as often as an opportunity is afforded him But, enough. We have nailed to the counter, as base coin, the slanders of an ingrate, and our object is accomplished. We don't know that we can advance the interests of the Democratic party in this Congressional district by a prolonged discussion with the York Gazette, York Press, and Bloomfield Democrat in regard to the "rights" of the three counties. We feel that in having advocanated, and thus convince the people of lows ted the re-nomination of Dr. Aur, we but discarried a plain duty that was due to the people of our county. An Appropriate Reception.

On the 3d of July the Republicans of Ashtabula. Lake and Geauga cos., Ohio, gave a public reception to Senator Wade and Joshua R Giddings. They formed a procession, which, o use the language of the Ashtabula Sentinel the Republican organ, "was headed by twelve beautiful negro girls, each bearing a banner representing the twelve States that are true to reedom," who, also, with their flags occupied the stand. Giddings and Wade, in their Congressional action, made the interests of the negro paramount to those of the white people, and it was proper that in the procession welcoming them negroes should take the lead of the whitees. We do not consider, in fact, that Giddings and Wade are in any sense the representatives of the white people of Ohio, but solely labor for the interests and carry out the views been made out, and then unanimously reported flag should have been but eleven stars on it inthat voted for Fremont.

> Long Specches .- Mr. Jefferson said he had been in deliberate bodies with Gen. Washington and Dr. Franklin, and that he had nevel heard either of them make a speech more than fifteen minutes long, and then always directly to the point. He adds that there were no members who possessed more influence, or who were listened to with more profound attention. Mr. Jefferson himselt, we believe, was never noted for much speaking, although every speech he made told among the members. One secret of Patrick Henry's almost superhuman eloquence was that he never spoke unless he had something to say, and always stopped when he had gotten through. Mr. Madison and Chief Justice Marshall were famous for the strength and compression of their speeches. In general it may be set down as an incontestable fact, that when from want of time, or from lack of capacity .-Compression requires study, and is the most writing or specifing. Mr. Webster, in his fam-ous speech in the Indian Rubber case, apologised to the Court for its length, on the plea-o of want of time to condense his ideas.

The thief, the forger, the murderer, as he fices from place to place to hide himself from the outrage law, changes his name, and endeavors to move unsuspected through the world by the aid of a hundred aliases. So with the Opposition. They are so fearful of being detected in the bypocritical trickery, that they assume a different title every year. Therefore let men who respect themselves at once cut loose from such organization, and enlist under the broad folds of that flag which, since the days of Jefferson, has been inscribed with no other name than the eternal and ineffaceable watchword Democracy!

We would greatly prefer drinking thirty cent whiskey, fresh and warm from the still, than these compounds which are generally sold at $1 to $1,25 per gallon. The law has some severe enactments in regard to lottery dealers. Yet, we doubt, if the lettery dealers do half the mischief-that is done by dealers in bogus "old whiskey."

The expenditures during the quarter were $22,780, including nearly $4,000,-000 for interest on the public debt and the payment of treasury notes.

It is worthy of remark that both the Democratic and Opposition candidates for Supreme Judge in this State, Porter and Reed, are from Philadelphia, and the two candidates for men live within eight miles of each other.

THE NEXT CONGRESSMAN.

I am sorrry to sec. (from the tenor of some of the Democratic papers of this District,) that there is a disposition to be too much excited upon this question. Let us take a calm and —after the recent failure—unexpected announcement of the arrival of the U. His renomination will be simply an act of justice, due to him by this District for his uncompromising support of that measure, and the Administration. He has re-deemed the District from Know-Nothing supremacy. This question of rotation by counties, is essentially wrong. It is on that account that the south have the advantage of us in Congress. They retain their members for many years, without reference to rotation. I feel confident that the good sense of this District will prevail and conceed a renomination to Dr. Ahl. POLICE IN LONDON.—A letter to the New York Express, speaking of the London police, says: "They are bold men, perfectly fearless, most of them of long experience, and ready at any moment to grapple with a rogue or ruffian. I have seen them handle two or three fellows who were disposed to resist their authority in a way which was a caution to peace disturbers. If gold be as plentiful as is imagined, then a strenuous effort must be made by the Government to open and protect the leading emigrant route to the land of promise. Gen. Stevens says his route will be preferred. because it is the shortest and most direct to Frazer's River. The route through Utah will be most convenient for a portion of the Middle States. It will be better, he thinks, to open several routes, because the crowd will be so great that the first emigrant trains on any one route will consume the grass on their way, leaving none for those who are to follow.

The tribes to be dealt with are rich in cattle and horses. They cure beef, and, through their commerce in cattle, they obtain sugar, tea and coffee, as well as the best rifles and other implements of war. Well fed and well armed, they are formulable enemies. It will be folly to send a small force of a few hundred regulars against the Spokanes, flushed as they are with their recent chase of Steptoe's command, and the capture of his artiflery.
