NEW GROCERT STORE .- By reference to ou advertising columns, it will be seen that Mr WM. BENTZ, has opened a New Grocery store in the room formerly occupied by John G. Williams. His assortment is large and well selected, fresh, good, and cheap. All who feel discest and well-meaning voters who were deluded est member of that political fraternity. This posed to give him a call will find him attentive into the belief that they would be the gainers modern Bonisace prided himself upon the skill and obliging.

OPENED OUT .- Our friend INHOFF opened out his new store room last week. It is large and well adapted to the Grocery business, every thing being well arranged and a great deal of taste displayed in exposing the goods. His give him a call.

the Good Will Hose Company are about purohasing an Engine. It is the intention of the Company to hold a fair during the Holidays to raise funds to pay for it, and if they do, we hope our citizens will patronize them liberally. The Company is composed of smart, active young men, and no doubt would be of great service at a fire with the addition of an Engine.

Lost CHILD .- A child named William Davis. son of Mr. Valentine Davis, of Wormleysburg, this county, disappeared from home last week, and has not since been heard of. The purents are in great distress, and would be thankful for any information that might lead to his recovery.

FARMER'S CLUBS .- We notice in some of our exchanges that the farmers in various portions of our country seem to be sensible of the importance of meetings for the purpose of advising and comparing notes with one another in regard to their agricultural doings and experience .-Farmer's clubs are now organized in many parts of the country, and at their meetings discourses are given on such subjects of husbandry as may seem deserving of special discussion, while at the same time a free and unrestrained conversation is encouraged upon all matters which may casually have been referred to during their debates.

Long Evenings.

The summer work is done; the harvest has been gathered; the busy days of toil are to be succeeded by the season which a beneficent crcator seems to have designed for the reinvigoration of the prolific earth, and the mental im provement of his creatures. From the autumnal to the vernal equinox, the long evenings suggest and afford the proper opportunity for rest, recreation, and instruction. And the family newspaper, the school-teacher, and the popular lecturer are, perhaps, equally important in subserving these varied purposes. The newspaper will keep the reader in practical relations with the progress of the world and the doings of his fellow-beings around him; the schoolteacher will make him better acquainted with the books of the present and the lore of the , past; while the lecturer will introduce him to the more intricate problems of art and science, and the more familiar details of the advancing philosophies, in their numerous applications to the varied purposes of human life.

The Washington Union announces tha the Hon. J. Glancy Jones has accepted the Mis sion to Austria, and adds, "should the Tariff question be before Congress at the next session, his loss will be severely felt,"-from which we infer that he will immediately resign his seat as a member of Congress; in which event a "special election to supply the vacancy will have to be appointed.

> ENGLISH RAILROAD LAW. -- A case is reported in the London police records, wherein a Miss Sophic Taylor was summoned before a magis trate to answer to the complaint of the London and Brighton Railway Company, for unlawful ly leaving a train at the Balham station while it was in motion. The lady had her face severely injured. As the accident was caused by the carelessness of the passenger, and not from inattention on the part of the railroad servants, the defendant was fined 5s. and 2s. costs. In future, the magistrate said he should inflict the full penalty. Such justice may seem to be a caricature of the quality, but it no doubt conduces to the safety of the travelling community, as well as to the protection of railroad in

Besides, his profits on the article were great, because he realized all above the first cost in his own person-there being no intermediate dealers to 'take off the cream." The leaders of the Republicans thronged the tavern on the day of the meeting, and talked loudly about "protecting home industry" and persistently drank whiskey, and would not touch the apple-jack. At last the patience of the landlord was exhausted, and with true indignation he exclaimed:

"I tell you what, I don't like all this talk about 'encouraging home manufactures,' because it's a miserable cheat. > WHAT AN OLD LINE WHIG SAYS .- The venerable Deacon Broughton, editor of that wellknown O'd Line Whig paper, the Norfolk Herald, alludes to the result of the late elections, and then adds:

"The question is, whether that issue [Lecompton] may not die ont before the next two years come round, and Democracy, as it has heretofore done, become again in the ascendant, just in time to reap the 'spoils.' In former years the Whigs could sweep these States at the end of the first two years of the Presidential terms, when there was nothing to be gain cd; but it generally happened that when it came to the second heat,—the division of the spoils—the Democrats were sure to be ahead. won't work,) and we are to have a balloon race If there is to be any organized and formidable opposition to the Democratic party in 1860, this had better be borne in mind."

INTERESTING TO GRASS WIDOWERS .- A remarkable case has just been decided in the Brooklyn City Court, to the effect that a single woman can recover damages from a married man for breach of marriage promise. In the case alluded to, the defendant, like many other scoundrels who fail to get their deserts, had deserted his wife and played bachelor lover to a derman girl. Failing to marry, according to promise, she sued him, and he had the cowardly meanness to crawl off by saying that as he had a wife already his promise was an empty lie. The jury thought otherwise, and gave $5,000 damages. An appeal was taken, but the General Term affixed the judgment. Married men who desert their wives for more attractive faces, will do well to remember this

An Arkansas Tragedy---Three Men Killed.

We learn from Mr. J. D Harris, of Pontotoc county, says the Chic. and Choc. Herald, the an awful tragedy was enacted in that county, a There was a free negro living in that county, who, some time since killed a white man, near Fort Smith, and Governor Harris issued orders to Mr. Young Brown, Sheriff of that county, to arrest him. He accordingly with two other men went to arrest him. When they got near the house, the negro ran to a crib, where he had fire arms. One of the Sheriff's party ran to the door of the crib, and seeing the negro with a pistol presented, he ran away, and the other man that was with the Sheriff then ran up to the door, when the negro shot him dead. The Sheriff then shot the negro, wounding him; at the same time the Sheriff received a shot in the head, the ball entering the upper part of the the negro cut him all to pieces, and thus ended his troubles. The negro being wounded, found he could not get away, and shot himself. His mother and sisters laid him out, thinking they would give him a decent burial, but Mr. Brown's father-in-law took the body, threw it on a log heap, and burnt it up. The Fort Smith Times says :- "The negro above referred to is undoubted y the one who, in cool blood and without cause, murdered Mr. S. B. Stephens, in this county, two or three met his just reward, though at the sacrifice of the lives of three men."
