The Bulletin has the following special dis-Mrs. Twiggs, for the murder of Mrs. Clark, by poison. Her companion in crime was executed h short time since :

DANVILLE, Oct. 22.—The Clark and Twiggs ragedy was to-day brought to a conclusion by the execution of Mrs. Twiggs for having takes part in the murder of her husband and Mrs. Clark.

The condemned woman passed last night

ather comfortably, sleeping with her children in her arms. She bade farewell to her brother and children this morning, and after devotional exercises in her room, was taken to the scaffold at a quarter past ten o'clock, leaning on the arm of one of her spiritual advisers.

The chapter having been read, and an impressive prayer offered up on the scaffold, Mrs. I wiggs spoke for six or eight minutes, protesting her innocence, declaring her readiness to die and her trust in a first Judge only regret-ting to leave behind her her two orphan chil-

She was much affected throughout. The soemnity of the scene was made more impressive by her groans and sobs. Even after the cap was drawn over her face she appealed to God in the most carnest manner, and she asserted

At ten o'clock and thirty minutes the drop fell; and, after struggling for a few moments, the wretched woman hung lifeless.

Very Late from Utah.

Sr. Louis, October 23 .- The Salt Lake mail with dates of the 25th of September, reached St. Joseph on the I6th. Sixty trains had passed Fort Bridger up to the 23d ult., 20 were met on the Sweetwater, and eight more north of the crossing of the Platte. Snow was encountered cast of Fort Laramie. Two companies of cavalry, returning via Pike's Peak, were passed on the Big Blue. Judge Eckels was met on the Big Sandy. Colonel Wilson was at O'Fallon's Bluff, progressing finely. The Indians were numerous, but peaceable. It was thought that several trains would be overtaken by snow in the mountain, and much suffering was antici-pated. Business was very brisk at Salt Lake. Trains were constantly arriving from California with goods and provisions. There was good feeling between the Mormons and Gentiles.— The former speak in high terms of Governor Cumming. Gen. Johnson's command consists of 7000 or 8000 men, including troops and employees, all of whom were consolidated in one grand encampment, and would remain together grand encampment, and would remain together during the winter. There were about 4000 troops at Fori Bridger under Coonel Camprey. Colonel Morrison, of the Seventh Infantry, had rrived at Camp Floyd.

From Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—New Orleans papers received here, contain the particulars of the defeat of Vidaurri by Miramon. The former was not on the field when the engagement commenced, and his army appears to have been attacked when least apprehensive and prepared

The rumors at Brownville were that the defeated army lost five hundred men, killed, and that two thousand of them were taken prisoners, with their artillery and provisions. An express from Montery to Matamoras, however, says their loss was not so great and that only a portheir loss was not so great and that only a por-tion of the artillery and munitions were captured by Miramon's forces, and that the Liberal party made their retreat from the field in good order. An official paper received at Montery, says that Vidaurri has already sent orders to the commander of Tampico, for another park of ar-tillery, (where there is along to be had which tillery, (where there is plenty to be had,) which will soon be in the field, together with the many forces concentrated about Vidaurri, to renew Tampico on the 2d inst., for the interior, with 300 infantry and three pieces of artillery.

A Terrible Scene.

We have already noticed the disastrous consequences of a fire which broke out in the shatt-ing of an English coal pit, in the county of During of an English coal pit, in the county of Dur-ham. There were eighty-six men and boys in the various workings of the pit, and after great exertion the fire was extinguished, but not until ten of the number were sufficiated by the smoke The bringing up of the living was watched by thousands of spectators; but when the dead be-gan to be brought up, the scene, it is said, was distracting in the extreme. A local paper, in distressing in the extreme. A local paper, still in the pit, that those dear to them might be saved, were destroyed. A chain and sheets were given to the staithesman. With these he descended into the durk abyse on his fearful frand. The excitement and anxiety were now painfully intensified. After a longer interval than least the discussion of the property of the present the discussion of the property of the present the discussion of the disc scented into the dark abyss on his learnil errand. The excitement and anxiety were now paintally intensified. After a longer interval than usual, the signal was given; one dead body had been fastened to the staithesman, breast to heart breast; the rope was raised a yard or two; another corpse was slung to the rope; and now the dreadful load is being drawn up. The wo-men cluster to the pit-mouth, and the bodies arrive. The first is that of a fine boy, about 13 arxivo.—The first is that of a fine boy, about 1s years of age. There is a beautiful expression upon his countenance, and nothing to indicate that his young life had been taken by a violent death. The body is unstrung, and a stalwart miner carries it, with the tenderness and gentleness of a mother nursing her child, to the anxious crowd. The child is recognized by its patients of agony rend; the rents and sisters, and cries of agony rend the air. The other brought up is enveloped in a shrond; it is taken from the ropes, and the anshrond; it is taken from the ropes, and the announcement that it is poor Kellett is made. Renewed wailings startle the spectators, as he is borne to his home. This fearful scene is five times repeated. Each time the rope descends, it brings with it two corpses, one of a boy, another of a man. They are placed on stretchers and taken to the crowd, to be recognized and claimed, and the repetition of the same frightful scene produces the deepest feeling of awa and horror."

The scene at the bottom of the pit, while the fire was raging in the shaft, is thus described:

"At the bottom of the shaft was a furnace constantly burning to secure ventilation. Around this furnace 17 of the men collected during the pight for the purpose of securing air and warmth; but they eventually became alarmed, lest the fire should draw the gas from the workings, and so cause an explosion. They therefore put out the fire, and during the remainder of the time that they were imprisoned they were in utter darkness. The other men and boys were in other parts of the workings. other parts of the workings; some were congreother parts of the workings; some were congre-gated in groups and engaged in prayer, while others were singing and joking and telling tales, in order to cheer their companions. One of them says he lay down at 9 o'clock, and quietly slept

HIGHLY IMPORTANT QUESTION .- Among the ost important topics discussed in the newspaers, now-a days, is whether the individual at e Trinity Bay end of the cable is De Santy or Sauty. The Hartfort, Ct., Times adjures im as follows:

'Thou operator, silent, glum, Why will you act so naughty?
Do tell us what your name is, come-De Santy or De Sauty?
"Dont think to 'humbug' any more, Shut up there in your shanty—
But solve the problem—once for all—
De Sauty or Santy?"

CONFESSION OF OSCAR MYERS.-We learn from the Wheeling (Va.) Times that Oscar Myhatch, giving an account of the execution of ers, the young man implicated with John Burns in the murder of Mary Ann Montony, has made a confession, from which the following is an ex-

> "I have been a bad boy, and would say t all who are now growing up to mannood, to shun the paths I have trod—to remember that running about in loose company leads to drink-ing—that drinking will lead to crimes of all kinds, and for which they will sooner or later be brought to the bar and sent to punishment. And I would ask all good people if they cannot believe me innocent, as I am, at least to think kindly of me once in a while, in the long years I shall have to serve in the penitentiry, and send up a prayer to heaven that I may come from that place a better man."
