WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-The President to sent to the Senate a message in reply to e resolution calling for copies of the corres dence which may have been had with the overnment of Spain; or with other govern nents, in relation to the proposed purchase of he Island of Cuba by the United States—not en communicated to Congress. He adds:

"In my last Annual Message, I stated that the publicity which has been given to our for ner negotiations on this subject, and the larg propriations which may be required to effect purpose, render it expedient before making ther attempt to renew the negotiation that hould lay the whole subject before Congress "I still entertain the same opinion, deeming highly important and indispensible to the s of any negotiation which I might insti tate for the purpose should receive the previous sanction of Congress."

The message was referred to the Committee on Foreign relations.
