An extension of the patent was refused by the appropriate committee, and consequently it is now within the reach of mechanics generally to make and improve that excellent harvesting implement to any extent. We have no doubt that some of the enterprising machinists in this county will enter into the manufacture with excellent profit, and perhaps add improvements which will render it still more valuable.

LECTURES .- We are sorry that the sudden illness of Rev. O. Hi TIFFANY, prevented his Lecture, as announced on Tuesday evening last. We trust, however, that he will be able to give it in a subsequent part of the course. In consequence of this derangement of the plan of the Committee, the first Lecture will be given by MORTON M'MICHAEL, Esq., of Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening next. From his fine reputation as a speaker, and lecturer, we doubt not that our community will give him a cordial welcome.

MAYOR OF LANGASTER CITY .-- It will be gratifying to the numerous friends of GEORGE SANDERSON, Esq., our predecessor in the Volunteer, and at present the editor of the Lancas ter Intelligencer, to learn that he has been clected Mayor of Lancaster city. The election took place on Tuesday of last week, when Mr. S. was elected by a majority of 13 over THOS. H. BURROWS, the present Mayor. We predict that the Captain will make an able, efficient and popular officer.
