The people of Carlisle have already prevail, and the restless spirits who are so anxious for notoriety, and so bent upon disorganization, relent and return to the Democratic fold. The Convention, should it assemble, may perhaps be able to sow seeds of discord sufficient to defeat the Democratic ticket in October. This will be its object, and those engaged in treason like this, had better consider well the position they will be placed in should they follow up and consummate such an object. THE STATE CONVENTION.

We publish to-day the doings of the Demo cratic State Convention, which assembled at Inrisburg on the 16th inst. The proceedings were generally harmonious, if we except the little feeling occasioned by a resolution offered by Mr. LAMBERTON of Dauphin, approving of Gov. PACKER's State policy. The resolution was opposed with vehenlence by Mr. Johnston of Northampton, Mr. Monnaghan of Chester, and others. Finally a vote was had on the recolution, and it was defeated-veas 37, navs 84. It will be seen that the Convention took bold and decided ground in favor of the National Administration. The resolutions approving of for the guidance of the delegates, and conflict- has been estimated that the service which is ab. Mr. Buchanan's official acts were adopted ununmously, which is evidence that the President still retains the confidence, the respect and the friendship of the democracy of the old Keystone. After this emphatic expression by the regularly constituted delegates representing the ing next, the 24th inst., at 71 o'clock. He is Democratic party of the State, those who conalso expected to hold service at the same place tinue to oppose the President will be, and should be, regarded as mischief-makers and disorganizers. If they are Democrats, as they profess to be, they will now yield their opinions and Mr. THEODORE S. IRISH, has been appointed an join the great mass of the party and assist to sition to the National Administration in this State by a small minority—a mere corporal's guard-cannot be regarded with indifference any longer. Those who are not for us are against us, and those who disregard the unani mous sentiments of a full State Convention. cannot expect to be considered friends of the Democratic party. "The will of the majority? has always been regarded a principle in the Democratic creed, and those who, at this late day, attempt to repudiate this principle, will find themselves outside the pale of the Democratic party. We hope these men (Gov. PACKER and his Attorney General included.) are now convinced that " honesty is the best policy," and that the Democratic masses have no sympathy BUCHANAN is the representative of the demoin the cause of the people-too much beloved -to be injured by the puny assaults of small politicians who imagine that they have private that the democracy of Pennsylvania continue to to his administration, are unworthy the name for the last two and a half years, and has made a most efficient and worthy officer. He has been, we believe, anti-Lecompton in his views, and yet he received, as he deserved, a unanimons vote of a Convention composed of the friends of the National administration-an evidence that that question is considered settled by Mr. Buchanan's adherents, and that it was not thought of by the Convention. Mr. WRIGHT is now, and has been for the last three 'years, a State Senator from Philadelphia, and is a sound National Democrat, a high-minded honorable man, possessing capacity for almost any office in the gift of the people. With such m before us as our candidates, we think all can unite in their support, and, casting saide all heart-burnings, give a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether for Rows and WRIGHT .--

The body of a vagrant Scotchman was found, a few days since on Flat Rock, near West Chazy, Clinton county, New York. Near the spot where the remains lay is a large chasm or ledge of rocks, that has long been known as the den of a great number of rattlesnakes, and from the trails leading between the corpse and the rocks it is evident that the unfortunate man was killed by the serpents. The flesh was literally picked from the bones. It is supposed that the poor fellow wandered to the spot, and falling down in a state of unconsciousness became an easy prey to the reptiles.

James H. Bates killed his son, John Bates, near Fulton, Tennessee, on Monday night, March 7th. A dispute arose between father and son about some cards, which a younger brother was playing with, the father saying he did not allow such in his house, when the young man left the house, followed by the father, who told him not to return or he would stick his knife in him. The son returned, having no idea his fa-290 ther would use the knife, when his father stabbed him through the left breast, causing instant

NEXT GOVERNOR .- The Harrisburg corresndent of the York Gazette speaks favorably the Ron. Jeremiah Shindel, State Senator om the Northampton and Lehigh district, as candidate for the Democratic nomination for overnor in 1860. He says :- "Mr. Shindel a native of Northumberland county-a fine glish and German scholar-a high bred Pennsylvania German, with a character as high as it is pure, and with manners so pleasing and agreeshle as to win mone all who approach him. It is stated by a gentleman, direct from Guadalagara, Mexico, that the late explosion of On being told that the Governor had given him the government palace in that city was far more destructive to life than here reported. The Democratic State Convention.

Perhaps no body of Democrats, says the Philadelphia Argus, that ever convened in Pennsylvania, had more important duties to perform than the delegates to the State Convention which recently held its session in Harrisburg. For a and the utmost anxiety was manifested to know what course it would pursue on issues which were agitating the country, and which had, to a certain extent, proved disastrous to the present success of the Democratic party of the Keystone State. Different suggestions were offered ing views were proclaimed by those who assumed to belong to our organization. These things what the labors of the Convention would ter-

The Convention was as full as any that ever assembled in this Commonwealth. Every district and county was represented, and that, too, by men of known fidelity to the Democratic were young, active, intelligent men-men whose one fact conclusively demonstrates that the principles of our party have a strong hold upon the affections of the honest people, and is an unanthat the Democracy is controlled by mere partizan leaders.

Another fact which could not fail to strike every one who was present at the Convention. was the unanimity of feeling and sentiment that prevailed. On the great issues of the day-on the foreign policy of the country; the tariff as it affects our own State, and the doctrine of " popular sovereignty" as applied to the Territories -there was no difference of opinion. All united in demanding a full and emphatic endorsemend of the position assumed by the National Administration, which has thus far been in strict accordance with the course of our party since the commencement of the present century. The assiduous attempts of the recreant portion of the Democratic press to poison the public mind Partizan Motives Interfering with Executive on these subjects, and to engender a prejudice against the President and his assistants, proved to be entirely abortive.

Take the Convention throughout, from the hour that it assembled up to its final adjourn-Democrat could have desired. It was fearless, honest, straightforward and determined. No matter how startling an issue came before it, it was met with an unwavering courage. A few seemed inclined to pursue a middle course. prompted by motives of policy and expediency, but they were answered by an overwhelming. voice, "No terms with traitors!" The general sentiment appeared to be that defeat, with honnegades, traitors, and political prostitutes.

POSTPONEMENT OF THE EXECUTION .- The Baltimore American of Thursday morning, states that Gov. Hicks has granted a further respite to the condemned murderers, Gambrill, of the law. Crop, Corrie, and Cyphus, who were to have been executed on Friday last, until the 8th of April next. The visit of the sheriff to the doomed criminals is thus described: when the sheriff told him at once that he had just received from the Governor a letter granting him a respite. His countenance brightened Corrie was the next one who was approached. He, also, shook the sheriff's hand on entry .a short respite, he replied that he was gad he had a little longer time, and would endeavor to

On shaking the sherift's hand, and bearing that a few days had been added to his life, he was perfectly resigned to his fate, although an innocent man, and he then hoped it would

Washington Affairs. . . Washington, March 20 .- There is much re

erve maintained in official quarters relative to the extra session of Congress, and no satisfacrory response has thus fur been elicited; but there is reason to believe that it is held in obeyance for the present, and is liable to be taken considerable time preceding its convocation, the ing which probably produced the indecision—result of its deliberations were fully canvassed, namely, whether the mail service can be carried on by certificates instead of cash until Congress shall make the necessary appropriations. It is a generally accredited fact that nearly all the members of the Cabinet are opposed to an extra session. The compensation to postmasters, and the contingent expenses of their offices, amount to two millions per quarter, or equal to the revenue, leaving nothing for the mail service. I solutely necessary to be performed will require about twice as much as the entire receipts, to say nothing of the present indebtedness. As success, secured by an unholy alliance with re- strengthening circumstances to this charge against Governor Hicks, it must be remembered that during the campaign which resulted in his election, he visited Baltimore, met the as-sembled hoards of Know-Nothing desperadoes to which these condemned men belong, and then by all his powers incited them to action in his being given forth the eallying cry. His present conduct is cruel and tantalizing to the noor miserable men who are thus kept in an agonizing suspense between hope and despair. is equally cruel to the friends of the parties who are by this act incited to continue their exertions; it is trifling with the demands of justice, and with the public sensibilities, which are kept in a state of feverish excitement by this vacillation and unreliabilaty of official de

If, as is confidently asserted, political considerations are producing repeated interference with the law, that fact is a fearful one for the people of Baltimore, who have for years held their lives at the mercy of bands of desperate men, whose connection with the Know Nothing Order, and consequent political standing and usefulness, secured them from all punishment. When, however, an outraged public sentiment has brought to the bar of justice, some of the more prominent of the red-handed leaders of crime and murder, the sad spectacle is presented of the Governor of the State, interposing in order to delay, if not finally suspend, the action Censurable as was the former conduct of Mr. Hicks, in using this wild and will be insufficient for the unavoidable expenditurbulent element, under the control of secret oaths, for political purposes, his position at the obstinate adherence to it will result in the acpresent time is infinitely more so. Democratic State Convention. Nominations for Auditor General and Surveyor General.

THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION ENDORSED. Pursuant to a call of the State Central Committee, the members of the Democratic State I Convention, assembled in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, March 16, 1859, and were called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M. by R. Biddle Roberts, Chairman of the State Central Committee.

On motion, George M. Wharton, Esq., of Philadelphia, was chosen temporary Chairman of the Convention, and made a brief address on taking the chair.

J. Simpson Africa, of Huntingdon, W. J. Leib, of Schuylkill, J. W. Douglas, of Franklin, and John H. Bailey, of Allegheny, were apnointed temporary Secretaries.

The list of counties was then called over in alphabetical order, and the Delegates present support.

Resolved, That the prosperity of our State handed in their credentials, and were admitted

Mr. Wm. Hopkins, of Washington, moved that a committee of thirty-three be appointed corporate privileges and powers to gigantic trade, as carried on between China and Cal for the purpose of reporting permanent officers of the Convention-said committee to be designated by the delegates from the Representative

EVENING SESSION. The Convention was called to order at 7

'clock. P. M. Mr. Haldeman, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, offered the following report: Resolved. That the Democracy of Pennsylvania have unbated and full confidence in the triotism, integrity and capacity of James Bu-chanan, the President of the United States, and desire to sustain his administration from a conviction of the intimate connection of its principles with the best interests of our common Resolved, That the complete success achieved by James Buchanan in amicably settling with Great Britain, in accordance with the American doctrine, the long mooted question of "the freedom of the seas," from the surveillance and annoyance of a maritime police; in quieting the civil broils of Kansas; in promptly and effectu-ally suppressing an armed disaffection and re-bellion in Utah; in speedily terminating the Indian wars which threatened to desolate our Western frontier; and his resolute efforts to secure for American trade and travel safe and proper transit routes between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans; to maintain the influence and nonor of the nation, and to protect the lives, business and property of citizens of the United States, in the anarchical or ill-governed States of Mexico, Central America and South America, entitle him to the esteem, gratitude and confidence of the people of Pennsylvania, as well as of the whole Union. Resolved, That the Democracy of Pennsylva-nia have always advocated and still advocate an adequate encouragement and discriminating pro-tection of iron and coal and of the industrial interests of this State, within the scope of a tariff for necessary revenue; and believing that tures of the Federal Government, and that an e security for human life, if men in high exe- al debs, always dangerous to the peace, liberty nestly invite the people of this State, by a frank and cordial support of the policy of the first President whom Pennsylvania has given to the Union, to aid and strengthen him in his future endeavors to procure a revision of the tariff act

Resolved, That while an econo and the best judgment of the people; it is, at the same time, incumbent upon us to sustain the proper dignity of the country at home and abroad, and not to neglect the prompt supply of aggression, and for the assertion and protection of the rights of all American citizens everywhere, and especially on this continent. of Cuba by honorable and peaceable means, would be of vast importance to the prosperity and security of our whole country; and also advance in an eminent degree the cause of humanity, by its tendency to check the progress of the slave trade; and that the proposition of the President to obtain the possession of that Island by a fair purchase from the government House of Representatives has decided, without of Spain, was a manly and upright step to call of the yeas and mays, to adjourn on the wards the attainment of so desirable an object: an object which has received the sanction and approval of Jefferson, Madison, J. Q. Adams

Resolved, That across the Central American

Isthmus lies the great highway to our Pacific States, and that we have witnessed, with pleaure and pride, the earnest efforts of the President to keep them open and make them safe in which view he should be seconded by Congress with the necessary-powers to enable him to insist upon the fulfilment, by the States ossessing those territories, of the treaty guaranties which they have given to our citizens. Resolved, That this Convention highly approve the course of the Hon. William Bigler, enator in Congress from this State, and desire to record their sense of the ability, consistency, patriotism, and sound national Democracy which have distinguished his public acts as one of the Representatives of Pennsylvania.

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT HALIFAX DR. JOHN WRIGHT KILLED, AND ONE OF HIS LIT TLE DAUGHTERS SERIOUSLY INJURED!-We have just received the particulars of a fatal accident which occurred on the Northern Central rail all necessary means of defence against foreign aggression, and for the assertion and protection resulting in the death of Dr. John Wright, for merly a member of the Legislature from thi where, and especially on this continent.

Resolved. That the acquisition of the Island of Cuba by honorable and peaceable means, would be of vast importance to the prosperity and security of our whole country; and also advance in an eminent degree the cause of humanity, by its tendency to check the progress of the slave trade; and that the proposition of the President to obtain the possession of that Island by a fair purchase from the government is a member of the Legislature from this country, and for some time past occupying the position of Brigade Inspector. It appears that the Doctor and two of his children—a boy and girl—took a walk up the railroad in the atternoon. While resting in the bridge above Halifax, a coal train came along, and before they could get out of the way, ran into them. The Doctor was instantly killed! The little boy, named Clarence, managed to reach the side of the bridge, and clinging to the arch; escaped unburt. The little girl, Annie, was struck by unhurt. The little girl, Annie, was struck by the train, had her arm cut off close to the shoul der, and was otherwise injured. She was tol-erably comfortable at last accounts, but fears were entertained of her recovery. Harrisburg Telegraph.
