The unanimous favor which has attended the introduction of Wheeler & Wilson's Family Sowing Machine, is sufficient evidence of its excellence. It is needless now to say that this practical instrument is becoming a domestic stat. useful instrument is becoming a domestic insti-tution; the fact is recognized by its successful use in thousands of families in every runk in life. To those who have hitherto refrained from availing themselves of its advantages, it may not be amiss to say, that its utility is not a pro-blem to be solved, but a success already real ized. The highest testimony is constantly of fered, confirming the verdict which has give this instrument so wide and enviable a reputation.

This shows our lock stitch. This machine is conceived on a principle en tirely original, being specially and admirably adapted to the most perfect work on every kind of material; and, having been subjected to of material; and, having been subjected to three years' test of the most scarching chara-ter by families, and in various branches of man-ufacture, with distinguished success, it is belie-ved that, in all the great points requisite to complete and practical Sewing Machine, it can: not be approached in excellence.

Among the undoubted advantages it poster ses over all others, may be named the follow.
