A daring robbery, and probably murder, was committed on the 24th inst., in Baltimore The pastor's residence attached to the Church of the Immaculate Concertion was broken into by some daring robber. The burglar entered he chamber of the Rev. Mr. Giustiniani, who, upon arising from his bed, was knocked down with a billy or slung-shot, and left insensible upon the floor, while the villain rifled his pockcitize taking therefrom what meney he could and also the gold watch of the pastor, Hampden—George Seirer, Wm. Sheely, that was lying on the table. The Republican Lower Allen—Christian Eberly. of the 24th inst., gives the following particu-

The Rev. Mr. Quigley, the associate pashe noise, and got up to inquire what was the matter. Upon going towards his brother's point he net the burglar, who instantly presenting pieces, and demanded his oner or his lite. Mr. Quigley begged that he anoners' Being allowed to bass, he went into the room of Mr. Giustiniani, and found him ly-ing on the floor, weltering in his blood. Seeing watchman's rattle in the room, Mr. Quigley threw up the window and sprang the rattle with all his strength. Instantly the villain, who was walting for him, fired upon him, and fied out of the house. Fortunately Mr. Quigley was not hit the ball whizzing past him, and burying it-self in the window frame by which he was stau-ding. A police officer shortly answered the rattle, but too late to intercept the daring bur-giar. The injuries of the Rev. Mr. Giustiniani are so serious as to cause painful apprehensions

DOWN ON THE QUACKS .- The Lehigh Register, is down on the quack doctors who are now preinbulating the State, humbugging the people and cheating printers out of their bills. We repeat the advice given on a former occasion, to put no faith in the highfulutin statements of these traveling impostors and swindlers. We have regularly educated physicians at home, men whose reputations are established, and in whose skill we can place implicit confidence .-Always patronize these, in preference to the unknown prefenders who go about seeking Whom they may victimize and murder.

Important to Females. DR. CHERSEMAN'S PILLS.

THE combinations, of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild, in their operation, and certain of restoring nature to its proper channel. certain of restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance; changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good leading whees she is regular; and whenever an electricion takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and they want of such a remedy has been the cause of so want of such a remedy has been the chiro of so many consumptions among young females.— Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of tood, and disturbed sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of na-ture; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowaces of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less effi-cacions in the cure of Leucorrhea, commonly
