

13" "I loved my wife," said Mr. Caudley "and for the first in months I felt as if I could Miscellaneous.

if such pouring in processes, be worthy of such

By carefully watching the effect of our 'show-ing how,' upon the mind of the child, we may

ORLEANS. BATTLE OF NEW

BY A BRITISH OFFICER.

A British officer, who was at the battle of staff, and as we advanced, watched through our glass the position and arrangements of our enemy with that intensity an officer only feels when marching into the jaws of death, with the assurance that while he thus offers himself as a 12 have been there. sacrifice to the demands of his country, every action, be it successful or otherwise, will be judged with the most heartless scrutiny. cotton bales-a new material for breastworkwith the crowd of human beings behind, their heads only visible above the line of defence.-We could distinctly see their long rifles laying over the bales, and the battery of Gen. Coffee directly in front, with its great mount gaping stowards us, and the position of Gen. Jackson, with his staff around him. But what attracted our attention most was the figure of a tall man our attention most was the figure of a tall man the breastworks, dressed in linsey. General fired the following shot, en ricochet, woolsey, with buckskin leggins, and a broad and the curtain fell: rimmed felt hat that fell around his face, almost "I have now, yo concealing his features. He was standing in one of those picturesque and graceful attitudes peculiar to those natural men-dwellers of the peculiar to those natural men-uveners of the integration sources, several source is source in the source integration in the integration of the source integration with the source integration with the source integration of the source integratic integration of the source integrate the toe of the right foot, while with his hand he raised the rim of his hat from his eyes, and advancing column. The cannon of Gen. Coffee ago."

had opened upon us; and tore through our ranks alvance, unwayering and cool, as if nothing | two or three years ago? You have grown up threatened our progress. The roar of cannon seemed to have no effect upon the figure standing on the cotton bales, but he seemed fixed and motionless as a statue. At last he moved, threw back the hat rim over the crown with his left hand, raised the rifle to reat that we looked at each other and smiled. We saw the rifle flash, and my right hand com-

the rifle again flashed, another of us dropped to and shot, you have only to keep your eyes steathe earth. There was something awful in march- | dily fixed upon him, and move slowly round the ing on to certain death.

ter balls played upon our ranks. We cared and his eyes following yours, his neck is soon twisted off. was levelled towards us, and its bullet sprang from the barrel, one of us must as surely fall ! To see the gleaming sun flash as the iron came down, and see it rest motionless, as if poised upon a rock; and know when the hammer struck and the sparks flew to the full-primed on Wednesday last she died.

pan, that the messenger of death drove unerringly to its goal-to know this, and still march on, was awful. I could see nothing but the tall figure standvidowed who are out of their minds. As to the previous occupations of those who have beco insane, though farmers and laborers might be A British onor, many New Orleans, mentions an incident of thriling strangeness, and very descriptive of the Wes-tern hunters, many of whom marched to the defence of New Orleans, as voluncers in the ar-mv, under the renowned Andrew Jackson: mv, under ought to be, according simply to the proportion of their numbers. The merchants, from the exciting nature of business, furnish more than the hospital, while out of 21,000 carpenters but

A GREAT BORE .- General Palmer, an officer of great distinction in the British service, was It was a strange sight, that long range of as remarkable for his eminent abilities as for playful retort and brilliant repartee. On one occasion, when in India, a young and forward officer, whether of the company's civil or military service, the chronicle sayeth not, was rather freely and pertly cross-examining the Gen eral as to his early career and rapid promotion

> "I have now, young gentleman, had the pleasure of satisfying your curiosity : will you likewise permit me to indulge mine ?"

"Assuredly, General-I shall willingly an-

Doubtless, General. I left England in the Kent, as a guinea-pig," (an inferior sort of our future history.-Journal of Commerce. seemed gazing from beneath intensely upon our midshipman.) "It was two or three years

"Really ! Well, upon my conscience, had opened upon us; and tore through our ranks "Really! Well, upon my conscience, I professes to speak from experience writes thus with dreadful slaughter; but we continued to thought soc. Are you sure, though it was only of marrying for money: such a great bore since.

SHOOTING AFFRAY .- An unfortunate affray happened at New Orleans, on the 19th instant. between J. M. Vernon and Joseph O. Bossier, co-proprietors of the Louisiana Courier, which the crown with his left hand, raised the rife to be proprietors of the housiant bourser, when his shoulder, and took aim at our group. Our eyes were rivited upon him. At whom had he levelled his piece? But the distance was so breat that we looked at each other and smiled. Some business matters. Some high words were great that we looked at each other and smiled. We saw the rifle flash, and my right hand com-panion, as noble a looking fellow as ever rode at the head of a regiment, fell from his saddle.--the head of a regiment fell from his saddle.--the head fell not taking effect. Mr. Vernon then ferd fere head is head for the head fell not taking filest. The hunter paused a few moments, without mo-the ball not taking effect. Mr. Vernon then the his rifle from his shoulder, then reloaded fired four shots in quick succession ; two of the

did not smile, but cast short glances at each owl is looking at you from a tree, if you wish to while the baby, Zenobia, in my lap, who never other, to see which of us must die; and when bring him down without the expense of powder sleeps more than half an hour at a time, and tree ; in his eagernes to watch your movements

teries a hundred times more destructive without quailing; but to know that every time that rifle quailing; but to know that every time that rifle home in that city, on the 8th instant, came home in the evening acting strangely, saying she was to be hung on Friday; would partake of no food nor medicine. She gradually sauk, ex-pressing much gratification at the thought of dying, as it would save her from hanging, and on Wednesday last she died > remedy, and the smallest dose is generally sufil. as I did-not for love, but for fear-for fear of cient.

ding,) by a clerk of the name of Lee, on the per-son of Col. Hume, of Virginia, who called him to account for accusing him of stealing Lee's pocket book-an accusation which everybody knew to be unfounded. Unfortunately, Hume eyes fixed on the ground. He threw me one lance and resumed his downward look. He carries a heavy load on his conscience. If there e not so many street fights in the metropolis as in some of our western towns-I mean with Congress have carried them concealed. One back of his neck, displaying it occasionally by way of intimidation. Having a consumptive would have store would have stood a poor chance in a bodily struggle. Gen. Foote drew a pistol in the Sen-ate Chamber on Col. Benton, which was taken from him and locked up in a drawer. Col. Benton himself, when once threatened by a pug-pacious Missourian, is said to have gone heavly armed, to the Senate for a few days. The eatures of American life, not so much as to catures of American life, not so much as to pronounce us wicked above other nations, as making a more salient and terrific exhibition of our wrath, something, after the fashion of our you sure of the horses?" "Les, Prince." "Are you sure of the horses?" "Les, Prince." "Are The captain left in his boat with some of th our wrath, something after the fashion of our Indians, who brandish the tomahawk and scalping knife over their enemies. Let us take the hint, and confess that we are rather too much a "law unto ourselves," and grow more civil in years ago, and mey have been ten years of pur-gatory. I have had bad luck as a wife, for my husband and I have scarcely one task in com-mon. He wishes to live in the country, which I hate. I like the thermometer at seventy five degrees, which is hates. He likes to have the children brought up at home instead of at school, which I hate. I like music, and wish to go to concerts, which he hates. He likes roast pork, which I hate; and I like minced we both like. and that is what we both cannot A speaker, enlarging on the rascality of we both like, and that is what we both cannot have, though we are always trying for it-the last word. I have had bad luck as a mother.

MARRYING FOR MONEY .--- A woman

cries all the time she is awake, has been aroused by their din to scream in chorous. I have had bad luck as a housekeeper, for I never keep a chambermaid more than three weeks. And as to cooks, I look back bewildered on the long were also presented. phantasmagora of faces flitting stormily through my kitchen, as a mariner remembers a rapid succession of thundergusts and hurricanes in the Gulf of Mexico. My new chambermaid propficiors of rat-pits.

dying old maids.

eyes were seen peering. The guns rattled vol-ley after volley. But the flock of wolves in- They should be made to work enough, at the They should be made to work enough, at the acquisition of the beautiful truths they may be creased instead of diminishing; and soon it was not a flock, but a vast herd of wolves in thick learning, to make them emphatically their own. If they are poured into them, without any la-bor on their part, they will make but little imserrice columns which gave chase to the sleigh. The wolves bounded forward so rapidly they seemed to fly over the snow, and so lightly, not a sound was heard ; their numbers continued be soon forgotten. "Come easy, go easy," is a to inorease and increase, and increase; they common axiom in regard to money, and is seemed to be a silent tide, drawing nearer and equally true in regard to acquiring knowledge, nearer, and which the guns of the party, rap-idly as they were discharged, had no effect on. increased so rapidly they seemed to spring out of the ground. There was something weird in their appearance, for where could three thou-sand wolves come from in such a desert of snow? The narty had there the death of the death. Alas!

Cannibalism in the South Seas.

The Chinese passenger of the St. Paul, who was rescued by the steamer Styx, and arrived on Tuesday, has furnished us with the follow-ing account of a massacre of the Chinese pas-sengers by the St. Paul, wrecked at Rossel is-sengers by the St. Paul, wrecked at Rossel is-the starplices of snow, while bid-notes come input of the starplices of snow, while bid-notes come input of the starplices of snow, while bid-notes come input of the starplices of snow, while bid-notes come input of the starplices of snow, while bid-notes come input of the starplices of snow, while bid-notes come a pretty larg sexes. Many The Chinese passenger of the St. Paul, who and threatened to envelope the party. If one of land :

an appellation.

roun mm and tocked up in a drawer. Col. Benton himself, when once threatened by a pug-acious Missourian, is said to have gone, heav-y armed, to the Senate for a few days. The ondon Times takes sharp notice of these rough attres of American life, not so much as to vnounce us wicked above other nations, as the horses should have given out the fate of the whole party was sealed. "What do you think "The ship went on shore during the night.

you sure of our safety ?" The driver made no crew, and, we were not disturbed by the na-tives for a month after he was gone : they then came over from the mainland, distant about ter than ever. The driver excited them to an three-quarters of a mile, and made an attack on them describe a curve which intersected one of but we got frightened, and threw them away. he horns of the cresent. The wolves opened The only white man left with us, after the de the horns of the cresent. The woives opened The only white man fert with as, area the co-their ranks and let the horses pass. The Prince raised his gun to his shoulder. "For God's who, having armed himself with a cutlass, sake I don't fire!" exclaimed the driver, "we have dead man if you do ¹². He obeyed Ivan. of marrying for money: I was married for money. This was ten years ago, and they have been ten years of pur-gatory. I have had bad luck as a wife, for my husband and I have scarcely one taste in com-mon. He wishes to live in the country, which I hate. I like the thermometer at seventy five ted their attention, as they were continually opening it to observe the reflection of their fa ces in the glass.

At night we were placed in the centre of clear piece of ground, and fire lit in several places, the natives keeping a regular watch over us, and during the day they would select four or five Chinese, and, after killing them, the devil, got off the following: "I tell you that the devil is an old liar; for dually voked together : roast the flesh, and cat it : what was not con sumed being deposited in their nets. Their mode of proceeding was as follows: The victims being decided on, they were ta ken out and beaten all over (except the head) with a kind of club, and then dispatched by ripping the stomach open. The body was ther cut up in small pieces and divided, the fingers, James' Palace on the 6th of April, Mr. Dallas, the American Minister, and Mr. Benj. Moran, toes and brains being eagerly sought after ; the bones were all collected, and either burnt or the American Minister, and Min. Bell, Morah, Assistant Secretary of Legation, were present in the Diplomatic circle. Hon. Thomas L. Oling-ham, U. S. Senator from North Carolina, had a special presentation, Mr. J. F. Delaplain, and Mr. Edwdard Quackenbos, M. D., of N. York, thrown away. I saw ten of my fellow-passen gers killed in this way. On one occasion som of the Chinese took a boat which belonged t

night to get some water, but never returned, so we thought they were killed. I saw these five the day the steamer came in sight, but when There is a man in Philadelphia who owns the natives saw the boats coming on shore they took them to the mountains. I was sick two good brick houses and a feed store, and has four thousand dollars invested in stocks; that I watched my opportunity and contrived on them to conceal myself among the rocks until the boat came on shore. They are very numerous,

IF At a lato trial, the defendant, who was and then glance in the mirror at my own cada-verous, long, doleful visage, without wishing myself an old maid. Yet half of my sex marry the indictment read, rose and exclaimed: "Them allegations is false, and that 'ere all-dogs, I saw neither animals nor fowls of any tured her leg, but fortunately escaped without ther knows it?' gator knows it !"

the ship, and went over to the mainland at all of which he has accumulated solely by the and lame, and they would not carry me, so should grow weak, you couldn't keep spectacles business of catching rats, which he sells to that I watched my opportunity and contrived on them."

but do not appear to have any chiefs among nggy ran away while she was taking a ride. She leaped from the vehicle, by which she frac-

Hurrah! school's out; merry shouts ring through the air, as troop after troop of noisy boys come rushing into the street; faces bloom-ing, eyes bright with joy and smiles, for school is out an hour carlier than usual and they are brimul of fun and elee. Hark! there is a clamor, a scattering of timid meh's lips. suspect their object is to get near the gentle-boys as a frightened horse comes dashing madly through the streets—a wild piercing shriek and little Charlie has fallen beneath those murderous 137 It was said of an exquisite portrait that, to judge by the eye, it did not want speech; for this could be detected only by the ear. hoofs. There he lies, his sunny ringlets trail-

ny We don't know that any person would be forgiven by God for killing himself, but cering in the dust, their glossy beauty sadly mar-red by the crimson drops slowly welling from that cruel wound, a stiffed sob, an upward look of the gentle eyes o'er which the death-film has tainly a good many would be treely forgiven by mankind.

UF Travelsts are oniffer to courtesy and politeness. The man who underfates to con-duct a railroad train should have learned to con+ duct himself.

cold, and dark, although the warm sublight Contained in this simple toptered: "Juhn Pi comes dancing through the vines that drape the window; the sunny slopes are rosy with the Brady gave me a black walnut box, of quite a cold, and dark, although the warm sunligh comes dancing through the vines that drape the

DF Slyness or cunning is a characteristic of a pretty large proportion of the better of the sexes. Many a woman, like the Spartan boy; carries a fox in her bosom. darkened home, lies hushed and still, his golden finglets tenderly lid back from a check no lon-ger blooming, but cold and damp as marble, his hands like folded lillies placed upon his breast with dewy buds between." His useless cap hangs in the hall, books and IF "I am sure I cannot live long," said a very dirty-looking patient to his physician, fils that any reason, sir, why you should carry dirt enough to bury you ?".

CF A Russian merchant announces the sale toys are tossed upon the tuble as he had left them in his childish play; a few violets, the first of the season, which Charlie had found and in his watchouses at Odessa and Schastopel, of 7,351 tons of iron and cast iron, projectiles picked up in the Crimed after the war. brought in to mamma, are smiling in their beau-y as fresh and joyous as if the little hand that

OF An Englishman is never happy but when he is miserable; a Scotchman is never at home but when he is abroad; and an Irishman never Dear little Charlie, you will never be sorry gain, the smile that dwells upon those placid at peace but when he is at war.

DF It is the part of wisdom to do great here shall be no more sorrow, no more tears. things without a fuss. When Solomon, the wiscus of men, built his wondrous temple, no Fold back the ringlets from the dear one's head, Strew summer blooms above the pallid breast. sound of saw or hammer was heard therein. Then breathe a prayer, while burning tears are

EF If the great llarvey, who discovered the circulation of the blood, had not differed from And gently bear him to his dreamless rest. "Oh, God t thou who dost temper the wind to all the physicians of his own day, all the physi-the shorn lamb," have mercy upon that stricken cians of the present day would not have agreed mother, now suffering a bitterness beyond the with him.

pangs of death, for there is no greater anguish than the remembrance of an unkind word, a Is a beautiful custom in some Oriental lands to leave untouched the dates that are shawrong done to loved ones sleeping the slient sleep with the kiss of death upon their brow, ken from trees by the wind; these being regard-ed as sacred to the poor and the stranger.

solution in the server since again, and since the drama of life, and. like friction in me-changes from pallid lips now hush-

A GOOD MATCH .-- A writer in the Home DF True religion chows its influence in every part of conduct; it is like the sap of a living ournal describes a couple who were " not unetree which penetrates the most distant boughs. And, what was worse, supremely lazy : A kind of trouble hard to cure, 137 What is the difference between a good soldier and a fashionable lady? Ans. One faces the powder, and the other powders the

His wife was just his proper match— An idle gossip and a slattern, Whose frock from time and frequent patch, face. OF Dress don't make the woman but when a woman is made she looks a great deal better. dressed up. They lived, as 'twere from hand to mouth-

There are three dangerous institutions in the world, viz : kicking colis, pretty callco, and , She dwaddling over pans and kettleszunpowder. And both in frequent want of vituals.

IF The Society of Natural History in Stockton has received a present of a large, live rat-tic-snake, which has not eaten anything since April, 1858:

13 A discovery has been made by a modern writer, that without a month a man could 'nei-ther eat, drink, kiss the girls, nor chew tobocco.

Senator from Georgia, encountered a fearful neighbor's prospects used too short a fuso and peril on the 14th ult. A horse attached to a got blown up himself.

137 "You always lose your temper in my company," said an individual of doubtful repu-tation to a gentleman. "And shouldn't won-der if I lost everything I had about me."

Dr An old soldier whose nose had been croped off by a sabre cut, happened to give a few pence to a beggar, who exclaimed in return,

"God preserve your eyesight." "Why so ?" inquired the veteran. "Because sir," he replied, "if your eyes

He in a constant state of drought,

In short, the man was very poor.

But such as rarely drives one zrazy.

Know nevermore its native pattern.

ucked them was not cold in death.

shed.

ps tells of a glorious home in Paradise,

IT Mrs. Toombs. wife of the United States

