

TERMS. Subscription—One Dollar and Fifty Cents, ad in advance; Two Dollars if paid within one year; and Two Dollars Fifty Cents, if not paid within the year. These terms will be rigidly adhered to in every instance. No subscription discontinued until all arrears are paid unless at the option of the Editor.

American Volunteer.

BY JOHN B. BRATTON.

OUR COUNTRY—MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT—BUT RIGHT OR WRONG, OUR COUNTRY.

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1859.

AT $2.00 PER ANNUM.

NO. 52.

ber, condemning ten prominent persons to death for having had relations with Mazzini, having circulated a quantity of the certificates of his loss, and having even planned an attempt upon the sacred person of the Emperor. They were: 1. Henry Tazzoli, Priest, Professor in the Seminary of Mantua.

At Massa, in the Venetian States, the fiscal agent, Giovanni, having concealed a large sum of money to escape the enormous taxes which succeed each other so incessantly, begged the presence of a company of soldiers to protect him. Six hundred men were sent, who installed themselves in the houses of the village, and took possession of all the wine, provisions and fuel they could find.

Among the most regretted of the victims is the young Covarrubias, son of the well-known Vera Cruz poet of that name, and himself the author of many beautiful lyrics and other pieces which gave great promise for the future.

The number of known victims is fifty-three, though it is believed to be much larger. They were assassinated in the streets, in the houses, anywhere the brave martyrs chanced to meet them. Finally they were all carried off in common carts to a neighboring ravine, into which, as together one great Golgotha, they were all thrown.

THE DEVIL'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.—The "Scalpel," the Cayenne pepper in the caustic story of a New York Journal, tells the following story: A worthy citizen of a town in the interior of the relation of the religious experience of its members, said he had been severely tried by a young devil. Said he, "I came last night and sat down on the side of my bed, and grined at me as I was saying my prayers."

THE POOR MAN'S STATUS.—When the Athenians built the temple of Minerva, a statue was wanted to place upon the top. A poor mechanic was induced by his friends to compete for the prize with a favorite and wealthy sculptor of noble birth.

LAUGHABLE MISTAKE.—A contemporary tells of a young lawyer who resided upon Nanticoke creek, and in times of the absence of the young pastor of the "district meeting" acted as clerk.

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-

The Mexican Massacre at Tacubaya.

The first victim was Gen. Lazcano, an old soldier who was walking in the Archbishop's gardens at the time of his seizure. It would appear that he had been a severe disciplinarian and his former subalterns, in conducting him to the place of execution, took that occasion to avenge themselves with insults to which the General replied, "It is cowardice to insult a man condemned to death."

Among the most regretted of the victims is the young Covarrubias, son of the well-known Vera Cruz poet of that name, and himself the author of many beautiful lyrics and other pieces which gave great promise for the future.

The number of known victims is fifty-three, though it is believed to be much larger. They were assassinated in the streets, in the houses, anywhere the brave martyrs chanced to meet them.

REASONS FOR TURNING LEAF.—Among the many reasons which are effectual in urging a man to turn leaf, the following may be named as a few of the most powerful: 1. You are never bothered with tailors or boot makers' bills.

THE TURKS ABHOR THE HAT; but uncovering the head, which with us is an expression of respect, is considered by them as a disgraceful act; no offence is given by keeping on a hat in a mosque, but shoes must be left on the threshold.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FOUR CLERKS.—A writer in the New York Tribune states that in the winter of 1854-5, four young bank-clerks used to meet for euchre, playing alternately at their residences in Brooklyn.

THE DEVIL'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.—The "Scalpel," the Cayenne pepper in the caustic story of a New York Journal, tells the following story: A worthy citizen of a town in the interior of the relation of the religious experience of its members, said he had been severely tried by a young devil.

THE POOR MAN'S STATUS.—When the Athenians built the temple of Minerva, a statue was wanted to place upon the top. A poor mechanic was induced by his friends to compete for the prize with a favorite and wealthy sculptor of noble birth.

LAUGHABLE MISTAKE.—A contemporary tells of a young lawyer who resided upon Nanticoke creek, and in times of the absence of the young pastor of the "district meeting" acted as clerk.

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-

Too Big to obey a Mother.

A boy "too big to obey his mother" and one such boy must be larger than a giant, and with strange ideas of the rights of big people. I should not like to live fear him, nor even see him, for I expect he would feel too big to mind the laws of his country, or the laws of God.

Among the most regretted of the victims is the young Covarrubias, son of the well-known Vera Cruz poet of that name, and himself the author of many beautiful lyrics and other pieces which gave great promise for the future.

The number of known victims is fifty-three, though it is believed to be much larger. They were assassinated in the streets, in the houses, anywhere the brave martyrs chanced to meet them.

REASONS FOR TURNING LEAF.—Among the many reasons which are effectual in urging a man to turn leaf, the following may be named as a few of the most powerful: 1. You are never bothered with tailors or boot makers' bills.

THE TURKS ABHOR THE HAT; but uncovering the head, which with us is an expression of respect, is considered by them as a disgraceful act; no offence is given by keeping on a hat in a mosque, but shoes must be left on the threshold.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FOUR CLERKS.—A writer in the New York Tribune states that in the winter of 1854-5, four young bank-clerks used to meet for euchre, playing alternately at their residences in Brooklyn.

THE DEVIL'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.—The "Scalpel," the Cayenne pepper in the caustic story of a New York Journal, tells the following story: A worthy citizen of a town in the interior of the relation of the religious experience of its members, said he had been severely tried by a young devil.

THE POOR MAN'S STATUS.—When the Athenians built the temple of Minerva, a statue was wanted to place upon the top. A poor mechanic was induced by his friends to compete for the prize with a favorite and wealthy sculptor of noble birth.

LAUGHABLE MISTAKE.—A contemporary tells of a young lawyer who resided upon Nanticoke creek, and in times of the absence of the young pastor of the "district meeting" acted as clerk.

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-

Science Answering Simple Questions.

Why is rain water soft? Because it is not impregnated with earth and minerals. Why is it more easy to wash with soft water than with hard? Because soft water unites freely with soap, and dissolves it instead of depositing it, as hard water does.

Among the most regretted of the victims is the young Covarrubias, son of the well-known Vera Cruz poet of that name, and himself the author of many beautiful lyrics and other pieces which gave great promise for the future.

The number of known victims is fifty-three, though it is believed to be much larger. They were assassinated in the streets, in the houses, anywhere the brave martyrs chanced to meet them.

REASONS FOR TURNING LEAF.—Among the many reasons which are effectual in urging a man to turn leaf, the following may be named as a few of the most powerful: 1. You are never bothered with tailors or boot makers' bills.

THE TURKS ABHOR THE HAT; but uncovering the head, which with us is an expression of respect, is considered by them as a disgraceful act; no offence is given by keeping on a hat in a mosque, but shoes must be left on the threshold.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FOUR CLERKS.—A writer in the New York Tribune states that in the winter of 1854-5, four young bank-clerks used to meet for euchre, playing alternately at their residences in Brooklyn.

THE DEVIL'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.—The "Scalpel," the Cayenne pepper in the caustic story of a New York Journal, tells the following story: A worthy citizen of a town in the interior of the relation of the religious experience of its members, said he had been severely tried by a young devil.

THE POOR MAN'S STATUS.—When the Athenians built the temple of Minerva, a statue was wanted to place upon the top. A poor mechanic was induced by his friends to compete for the prize with a favorite and wealthy sculptor of noble birth.

LAUGHABLE MISTAKE.—A contemporary tells of a young lawyer who resided upon Nanticoke creek, and in times of the absence of the young pastor of the "district meeting" acted as clerk.

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-

Who Paid for the Kiss.

A stout drover, on his way to the capital with twenty or thirty boxes, passed in a farmer's house, in the front of which happened to stand a remarkably buxom, blooming woman, the farmer's wife. Inflamed with the sudden passion of admiration the dusty-footed traveller, approached the cottontail beauty, and not knowing how else to enter into conversation, asked for a glass of water.

Among the most regretted of the victims is the young Covarrubias, son of the well-known Vera Cruz poet of that name, and himself the author of many beautiful lyrics and other pieces which gave great promise for the future.

The number of known victims is fifty-three, though it is believed to be much larger. They were assassinated in the streets, in the houses, anywhere the brave martyrs chanced to meet them.

REASONS FOR TURNING LEAF.—Among the many reasons which are effectual in urging a man to turn leaf, the following may be named as a few of the most powerful: 1. You are never bothered with tailors or boot makers' bills.

THE TURKS ABHOR THE HAT; but uncovering the head, which with us is an expression of respect, is considered by them as a disgraceful act; no offence is given by keeping on a hat in a mosque, but shoes must be left on the threshold.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FOUR CLERKS.—A writer in the New York Tribune states that in the winter of 1854-5, four young bank-clerks used to meet for euchre, playing alternately at their residences in Brooklyn.

THE DEVIL'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.—The "Scalpel," the Cayenne pepper in the caustic story of a New York Journal, tells the following story: A worthy citizen of a town in the interior of the relation of the religious experience of its members, said he had been severely tried by a young devil.

THE POOR MAN'S STATUS.—When the Athenians built the temple of Minerva, a statue was wanted to place upon the top. A poor mechanic was induced by his friends to compete for the prize with a favorite and wealthy sculptor of noble birth.

LAUGHABLE MISTAKE.—A contemporary tells of a young lawyer who resided upon Nanticoke creek, and in times of the absence of the young pastor of the "district meeting" acted as clerk.

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-

To Acquire a Beautiful Form.

Take abundant exercise in the open air—free, attractive, joyous exercise, such as young girls—when not restrained by artificial proprieties—are wont to take. If you are a weakly person, or get there, run the hills and the woodlands, botanize, geologize, seek rare flowers and plants; hunt birds, nests, and chase butterflies.

Take a lesson from the English girl, as described in the following extract: "The English girl spends more than one-half of her waking hours in physical amusements; that is, in amusements which tend to develop, and invigorate, and ripen the bodily powers. She rides, walks, drives, rows upon the water, runs, dances, plays, swings, jumps the rope, throws the ball, hunts the quail, draws the bow, keeps up the shuttlecock, and all this without having it forcibly impressed upon her mind that she is thereby wasting her time."

THE AUSTRIAN CAVALRY. No power can boast of such a body of cavalry as Austria. It is enormous in number. The horses are excellent—well bred, hardy, active and courageous. The men are bold riders, good swordsmen, and better still, in the light weight, are recruited in great part from two of the greatest equestrian nations in the world, the Poles and Hungarians.

THE FIRST EFFECTS OF THE WAR.—We are now beginning to learn some of the first horrors of the fearful war raging in Italy. The Austrians are laying all bare and desolate before them. The contributions and exactions in the shape of rations for the support of the troops and villages and farms of the country, which they are exacting, are such as to strip all the towns and villages of their produce.

THE TURKS ABHOR THE HAT; but uncovering the head, which with us is an expression of respect, is considered by them as a disgraceful act; no offence is given by keeping on a hat in a mosque, but shoes must be left on the threshold.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FOUR CLERKS.—A writer in the New York Tribune states that in the winter of 1854-5, four young bank-clerks used to meet for euchre, playing alternately at their residences in Brooklyn.

THE DEVIL'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.—The "Scalpel," the Cayenne pepper in the caustic story of a New York Journal, tells the following story: A worthy citizen of a town in the interior of the relation of the religious experience of its members, said he had been severely tried by a young devil.

THE POOR MAN'S STATUS.—When the Athenians built the temple of Minerva, a statue was wanted to place upon the top. A poor mechanic was induced by his friends to compete for the prize with a favorite and wealthy sculptor of noble birth.

LAUGHABLE MISTAKE.—A contemporary tells of a young lawyer who resided upon Nanticoke creek, and in times of the absence of the young pastor of the "district meeting" acted as clerk.

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-

WHOLESALE EXECUTION.—The official Gazette issued at Milan, in its number of December 8, 1851, give the text of a sentence passed at Mantua on the 6th Decem-