Matrimonial Crimes.

We group together for our exchanges of the last week or two, the following exhibit of the crimes which appear to have sprung directly out of the marriage relation.

A WIFE MURDER IN CONNECUT.—John P. Warren, arrested at Willington, Connecticut, for the murder of his young wife, by strangling her in a bath, while she was bathing.

STOPE OF A FRAUD AND FATHERS WIFE.—Mrs. Mary Doring, formerly residing with her husband at No. 111, Chestnut street, died on Wednesday at the New York Hospital.

ANOTHER SUICIDE TRAGEDY.—We learn this morning, says the Wilmington (N. C.) Herald of Wednesday week, that Mr. Jere Collins, on Saturday last at Gaintuck, in this county, shot and killed a free negro named David Jones.

SAD TRAGEDY.—A MOTHER DROVES HERSELF AND CHILD.—On Thursday week last, Coroner Canole, of Queens county, held an inquest upon the bodies of a woman named Jane Winterson and her little daughter, aged ten months.

WHEN THE CALF IS TAKEN FROM THE COW.—When the calf is taken from the cow it should be removed as far as possible from the mother.

AN AXO TO GRIND.—Origin of the Term. "When I was a little boy," says Dr. Franklin, "I remember one cold winter morning I was accosted by a smiling man with an ax on his shoulder."

ANOTHER HORRIBLE SUICIDE.—A YOUNG MOTHER KILLS HERSELF THROUGH GRIEF FOR THE LOSS OF HER CHILD.—On the 14th ult., a horrible suicide was committed in the Gracia road, near McNair's lane, St. Louis, Mo.

AN AUSTRIAN DETACHMENT TAKES PRISONERS BY A RAILWAY ENGINEER.—Among the many lighter passages of the war with which the Parisians amuse themselves, we find in the sports of the press the following case of detachment.

EVERETT'S OPINION OF LOUIS NAPOLEON.—He has given to France the strongest government—equivalent, I fear, to that of the best government, which she has had since the downfall of his uncle.

When you have any business to transact with a modern financier, and he asks you to go and dine with him—don't you do it.

Good and Bad Luck.

Good and bad luck are much more intimately connected with character than is generally acknowledged. H. W. Beecher, in a recent lecture, says: "There are men, who, supposing Providence to have an implacable spite against them, become in the poverty of a wretched old age, the misfortune of their lives."

Milan, the capital of Lombardy, has a population of about 180,000 persons, not including the Austrian garrison and the transient temporary residents there.

Milan is a very ancient city, being founded 400 years before the Christian era. It was inhabited and embellished by many of the Roman Emperors, and has been the birth place of many eminent men, including a number of Popes.

An Exhibition of very remarkable and unusual character attracted a most highly respectable audience at the Madison on Thursday evening last.

It has been well said that death is no respecter of persons. Many a victor has fallen before the conqueror. None are too insignificant to become his prey, nor so powerful as to escape him.

MANNERS.—Young folks should be mannerly, but how to be is the question. Many good boys and girls feel that they cannot behave in a proper manner in the presence of company.

It has been well said that death is no respecter of persons. Many a victor has fallen before the conqueror. None are too insignificant to become his prey, nor so powerful as to escape him.

ROMANCE EXTRAORDINARY.

A PENNSYLVANIA WOMAN TRAVELING WITH A CIRCUS SEVEN YEARS IN MALE ATTIRE. Recently two individuals, calling themselves Jack and Charlie, made their appearance in Chambersburg, and while sauntering through the town, attracted much attention.

A most remarkable incident occurred in one of the most busy streets of Elk on the other day, and the cause of it we have been informed, as follows:

Some eighteen months or two years ago, Mr. J. Parrish, of Todd county, a gentleman of good family, who stood fair, and who had heretofore been a member of the Legislature.

JEALOUSY AND REVENGE.—WOMAN SHOT.

About 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, an attempt was made by Mr. Robert C. McDonald, a cotton shipping merchant, from Mobile, to murder Miss Virginia Stewart, keeper of a house of ill fame in the city of Mobile, Ala.

On reaching the Brantford House, he drew a revolver, and Miss Stewart, fearing that he intended shooting her, screamed and rushed upon him, and from the time she started, she was instantly shot down.

The Sickles's Reconciliation.

We find the following letter from Daniel E. Sickles, respecting the reconciliation of himself and wife, in the New York Herald of Wednesday, the 20th ult. The letter will command universal attention, and set at rest all doubts of the first report.

Through the course of sad events, which during the last few months have brought so much affliction upon my family, I have been silent.

CALVES.

Nothing is more important to the successful rearing of stock, than that the young animals should receive a "good start" in life, and it is idle to expect a return from any animal which has been half-starved and uncared for during the first few months of its existence.
