Election Proclamation.

WHEREAS in and by an act of the General Assembly, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of July, A. D. 1839, it is made the duty of the Sheriff of every county within this Commonwealth, to give public notice of the General Elections, and in such notices to enumerate:

1. The officers to be elected.

2. designate the place at which the election is to be held.

I, ROBT. M'CARTNEY, High Sheriff of the county of Cumberland, do hereby make known and give this public notice to the electors of the county of Cumberland, that on TUESDAY, the 11th day of October next, an election will be held at the several election districts, established by law in said county, at which time they will vote by ballot for

One Person for Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One Person for Surveyor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One Person to represent the counties of Cumberland, Perry, Juniata and Mifflin, in the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Two persons to represent the counties of Cumberland and Perry in the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

One person for Treasurer of Cumberland county.

One Person for Commissioner of Cumberland county.

One Person for District Attorney of Cumberland county.

One Person for Director of the Poor of Cumberland county.

One Person for Coroner of Cumberland co.

One person for Auditor of Cumberland Co.

One Person for Surveyor of Cumberland county.

The said election will be held throughout the county as follows:

The election in the election district composed of the borough of Carlisle and the townships of North Middleton, South Middleton, Lower Dickinson, and Lower Frankford, will be held at the Court House, in the borough of Carlisle.

The election district composed of Lower West Pennsborough township, will be held at the North School House, in Plainfield.

The election in the election district composed of Silver Spring township, will be held at the public house of Jacob Ottstot, in Hogestown, in said township.

The election in the election district composed of Hampden township, will be held at the public house formerly occupied by Henry B. Stone, in said township.

The election in the election district composed of the township of Upper Allen, will be held at the public house of John Floyd, in Shepherdstown.

The election in the election district composed of the township of Lower Allen, will be held at the wagon-maker shop of Jonas Hunchbarger, on Slate Hill.

The election in the election district composed of East Pennsborough township, will be held at the house now occupied by Benjamin Clay, at the west end of the Harrisburg bridge.

The election in the election district composed of New Cumberland, will be held at the house formerly kept by W. H. Bohl, in the borough of New Cumberland.

The election in the election district composed of the borough of Mechanicsburg, will be held at the public house of Jas. A. Meloy, in said borough.

The election in the election district composed of Monroe township, will be held at the public house of Thomas Liggit, in Churchtown in said township.

The election in the election district composed of Upper Dickinson township, will be held at the house now occupied by Jacob Redsecker, in said township.

The election in the district composed of the Borough of Newville, and townships of Mifflin, Upper Frankford, Upper West Pennsborough, and that part of Newton township, not included in the Leesburg election district hereinafter mentioned, will be held at the east end of the Public School House, in the borough of Newville.

The election in the district composed of Hopewell township, will be held at the School House in Newburg, in said township.

The election in the district composed of the borough of Shippensburg, Shippensburg township, and that part of Southampton township not included in the Leesburg election district, will be held at the Council House, in the borough of Shippensburg.

And in and by an act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, passed the 2d July, 1839, it is thus provided; "That the qualified electors of parts of Newton and Southampton township, in the county of Cumberland, bounded by the following lines and distances, viz: Beginning at the Adams county line, thence along the line dividing the townships of Dickinson and Newton to the turnpike road, thence along said turnpike to Centre School House, on said turnpike, in Southampton township, thence to a point on the Walnut Bottom Road at Reybuck's, including Reybuck's Farm, thence in a strait line to the Saw Mill of the heirs of George Clever, thence along Krysher's run to the Adams county line; thence along the line of Adams county to the place of beginning, be and the same is hereby declared a new and separate election district, the election to be held at the public house formerly occupied by Wm. Maxwell, in Leesburg, Southampton township."

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

That every person, except Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, of if this State, of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislature, executive, or judiciary departments of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or of any incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector, or clerk of any elections of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of such election shall be elligble to be then voted for.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth, passed July 2d, 1839, further provides as follows, to wit:

"That the inspectors and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have recieved the second highest number of votes for inspector, shall not attend on the day of the election, then the person who shall have recieved the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceeding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

'It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white freeman of the age of twenty one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days preceeding such elections and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months; PROVIDED, That the white freeman, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty one and twenty-two years who have resided in an election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners, unless First, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years, of a state or county tax assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof. Second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in this State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as required by this act and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word 'tax,' if he shall be permitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word 'age,' he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like votes in the lists kept by them.

'In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessors, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such persons on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next immediately preceeding said electinn, and shall also himself swear that his bone fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

'Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

'If any shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be inprisoned not less than six month nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement challenge or invite any person to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or to be bet.

'If any person not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election in this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualifications, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

'If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudlently fold or deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or shall procure anothere so to do, he or they offending, shall on convition be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

'If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth, agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months."

Agreeably to the provisions of the sixty-first section of said act, every General and Special Election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

And the Judges of the respective distficts aforesaid, are by the said act required to meet at the Court House, in the borough of Carlisle on the third day after the said day of election, being Friday the 14th day of October then and there to perform the things required of them by law.

The return judges of the Representative district, will meet at Carlisle, at the time fixed by law.

Given under my hand at Carlisle, this 17th day of August, 1859.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

THE undersigned offers at private sale that valuable Farm belonging to the Heirs of E. Stayman, dec'd., situated in Hampden township, Cumberland county, and bounded by the lands of C. Stayman, J. Eberly and others,

Containing 164 Acres and 101 perches,

of which about 154 are in a high state of cultivation, and the balance is covered with timber sufficient for the use of the farm. The improvements consist of a substantial We therboarded

Mansion HOUSE, a Stone Tenant House, a large Stone BANK BARN, Corn Cribs, Wagon Shed, Spring House, and all the other necessary Out-buildings. There are two Wells of good water, one at the house, the other at the barn; also two Apple Orchards of choice fruit, and a Peach Orchard. The fences are in good order, about 300 panels of new post and rail and board fence having just been put up. There is besides a great quantity of excellent Yellow Locust growing on the farm—some 1500 posts are ready to be cut—about twice the number required to place the entire property under post and rail fence.

The farm lies in one of the loops of the Conodoguinet creek, and is bounded on one side by it, and has running water in several of the fields. It is within 1 mile from the Carlisle and Harrisburg Turnpike. The bridges at Bryson's and Rupp's Mills, render it of easy access at all times. It commands the best grain market in the county, being only 1 mile from the aforesaid mills, 3 from Mechanicsburg, and 7 from Harrisburg.

The soil is of first-rate quality, consisting of a rich BLACK SLATE, very easy to till, and exceedingly reliable and productive in its yield.

As a good and desirable farm, the above property is worthy of the attention of those wishing to purchase. Persons who desire to make further inquiry will please address, or call on the undersigned, at his residence in Carlisle.

Valuable Mill Property and Farm

AT PUBLIC SALE.

ON TUESDAY, the 6th of September next, the following described Real Estate, situate about 3½ miles west of Carlisle, on the Canodoguinet creek, commonly known as Hays' Mills. The Grist or Merchant Mill is of stone, recently erected, and contains 4 run of stone, with Corn Kiln attached. The water power is one of the best on the creek. A new and substantial dam has been put in during the last summer. There is a plaster, Clover and Saw Mill, (the latter new, and with a "Johnston" Wheel" attached,) connected with the Grist Mill.

In connection with said Mill, about 6 or 8 acres of land will be sold with two tenant houses, thereon erected.

The Farm contains about 200 acres, principally of Black Slate and Bottom-Land, about 50 of which are covered with thriving young timber.

The improvements are a FRAME WEATH-

ERBOARDED HOUSE, a BANK BARN, and other convenient outbuildings. The Fences are in good order. A thriving young orchard and other fruit trees, consisting of pears, peaches, cherries, &c. Also a fine well of water and a spring. The land is in a good state of cultivation, about 5000 bushels of Lime having been put on within the last 8 years.

The above property will be sold separate or together, as may suit the purchaser. Possession of the Mill Property will be given at any time desired after the sale.

Persons desirous of examining the property, or obtaining further information concerning the same, may apply to the owner on the premises, or to A. L. Sponsler, Real Estate Agent, Carlisle.

Sale to commence at 1 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, when terms will be made known by

The street is graded, and the water mains run near to the property. It is bounded on the east by a 30 feet lot belonging to S. S. Smith; and on the north and west by property of I. B. Parker, Esq. It would be a good location for a female Seminary, or for a private residence, affording sufficient room for pleasure grounds and garden.

If not sold by the 6d of September, the lots will then be offered at public sale, at the Court House, at 10 o'clock, A. M., divided into six handsome building lots of 30 feet each, in front, and extending in depth from 300 to 367 feet.

The lots in respect to their location and size, are the most eligible building lots for
