Poetical. "HE WILL NOT WOO AGAIN." 'Twas but a word—a careless word, In pride and passion spoken;

DEAR BEAUTIFUL STANZAS. Lean by leaf the roses fall, Drop by drop the spring runs dry; One by one, beyond recall;

Miscellaneous. A MASON IN LOVE; OR, A SLOTT-MISTAKE. BY MISS G. W. BARBER. "Are you in love?" I'll prove it by fifty things.

again upon the green sward—a dance which seemed an appropriate expression of her young and happy heart.

THE wedding was postponed. Before Rosalie returned from the Falls, Ophelia was Mrs. Royalstone—Mason's Sign and Journal.

HINTS TO AUTHORS. BY JOHN BRATTON. Blessed public! darling public! how it must be patted and petted and sugared and buttered and humored and spoiled!

A Scene at the St. Louis Fair. A St. Louis correspondent of the Chicago Press furnishes the following:

ROMANTIC AFFAIR. The Homer (N. Y.) Republican narrated that years ago a Mr. T. of that city, then a young man, went to Albany to see some friends,

DOCTOR'S DEGREES. Some years ago, the University of St. Andrews, one of the most famous in Scotland, having rather a lean treasury, resolved to replenish it by a new branch of commerce;

COOK COMMITTED FOR TRIAL. Cook was brought before the magistrate's Court, but waived an examination. He was committed for trial.

TRIAL OF THE PRISONERS. Cook Committed for Trial—The Trial of Coppee Concluded—Sentence of John Brown—Speech of the Prisoner—He denies any Intention to Murder, or of Treason—Brown Sentenced to be Hung on December 22—Coppee Found Guilty on all the Counts.

THE TRIAL OF COPPEE. Coppee's trial was resumed. No witnesses were called for the defence. Mr. Harding opened the argument for the Commonwealth, and Messrs. Hoyt and Griswold followed for the defendant.

Gods and Gods.

Obey your teachers. It costs us more to be miserable than would make us perfectly happy.

How many a man become four-handed? By doubling his two fists. Oranges can be purchased for a penny a piece, how much would a whole cost?

The poorest coward can avoid shaking his shoes by wearing boots, or going barefoot. Why is love like a canal boat? Because it is an infernal transport.

New Proverbs.—A thorn in the bush is worth two in the hand. A man is most properly said to be "ripe for anything" when he is a little mellow.

No man is so deep but that a shallow place may be found in him. Love, while it frequently corrupts pure hearts, often purifies the corrupt hearts.

Mrs. Partington makes Shakespeare say, "sweet art is the use of advertisements." Slow Fire.—To "stole" a shot gun around half a day, and shoot nothing, or perhaps less.

The light heart, like the vine, bleeds most rapidly when warm. The richest man on earth is but a pauper, fed and clothed by the bounty of Heaven.

There is no objection to bruits in a house so that they emanate from the kitchen. An editor up in North Carolina says he is so poor that when two doves meet in his pocket he introduces them, as they are such strangers.

A fine woman, like a locomotive, draws a train after her, scatters the sparks, and transports the youth. A man who dines at different restaurants announces the discovery that in those places tender meat is always very rare.

Do you know, sir, why Mr. Bismarck has changed his politics? Because he has seen the small beer politicians, and beer will turn a man's head.

A married lady in London, Co., Va., is said to weigh five hundred & fifty-three pounds. Her husband is a great lady's man. Dr. South says: "The tale-bearing and the hearer should be banged up together—the former by the tongue, and the latter by the ear."

Four things come not back: the broken words of the heroes, the past life and the neglected opportunity. I'm all heart, said a military officer to his comrades. "My duty's not part of my life," said his superior in command.
