| The Washington Tamilly.  A correspondent of the Louisville, Journal says: In correctiag the error.in regafd to the rolationship between Lewis w. Washingto and the Washington, you inadjertently relli into some others. Dingerfietd Lowis io- not the grandson of Fielding, but of Warner Lewis and Retie Trashingtan, Fleding bing a son of Warner and Bettic Lewis. 'Neither is Dangerfeld Lewis the nearest living relative of General Washington, for while William Spottswood, of Orange countiy, Va., bears the same relation shiip (through his nother Elizabeth, the daugh ter of Augustine, the brother of Wastington) there are tlaree ot her persons living who are yet nearer-Robert Spotswond, of Henry county, Mo., Mrs. Adelino Butier Anderson, of Louis: vilie, Ky., and Mrs. Eliza Washington Dodge, of Suyth county, Va.; son 'and daughters of Gencral Alexander E. and Elizabeth SpotsGencral Alexander woop. A very singular coincietence may bere be stated. Gen. Spotswood was born in the same nionth, on the same day of the month; in. the same house, in the same room and" in the same corner of the roon, in whioh General Washington was born, and perhaps was more nearly 'like his great ancestor in size, features, and genẹral appearance than any other of his  Mrs. General Spotssrood was the danghter of Fielding, and grand daughter of Warner and Bettic Levis, by whom shat was brought up |  |
