Objections have been urged against the society because it does not relieve all the destitute; but it should be remembered that the idle and vicious do not come under its patronage, because it is contrary to the rules of the society, and mischievous to the community at large to sustain such persons in their idleness and vice. Death of Bishop Neumann.

The Press has the following particulars his painful dispensation of Providence: The Bishop, we are informed through one meets with our utter condemnation, increase with our utter condemnation, of the clergy of the diocese, who was in his company at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, complained that he never had felt so strangely in his life. It is greatly to be regretted that he did not call in medical advice at the first moment of feeling ill; but it was his character to be wholly regardless of self in the prosecution of the duties of his high calling, and he has fallen a martyr to his irrepressible zeal.

Bishop Neumann was born in Bohemia on the 28th of March, 1811. He came to Amer Republican party is the recipient sympathy and British gold, and are about the year 1834, and was ordained a priest by Bishop Dubois, in New York, on the 25th of June, 1836. He officiated as a missionary in the western part of New York, near Buffalo, for several years, with marked success. On the 16th of January, 1842, he made his profession in the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, and officiated as the superior of the Congregation at different times in Baltimore and Pittsburg, in which latter city he brought about the building o the beautiful Church of St. Philomena. He was appointed by the present Pope Bishop of Philadelphia, and was consecrated such on the 28th of March, 1852, succeeding the present Most Reverend Archbishop of Baltimore. He was the Fourth Bishop of I know more about this matter than I can state es-Philadelphia.

Bishop Neumann was not what would be called a fluent and eloquent speaker, but he more than made up for the graces of oratory by the solidity of his talents and the profunity of his thoughts. His great modesty preented his appearance as an author, but his bilities were well known by his brethren, ho held him in the highest esteem.

His memory, was prodigious, and his capacity as a linguist unbounded. He spoke not only all the dialects of the Austrian empire, but was master of the various tongues of modern Europe, in addition to the dead languages studied in the course of his professional career. The death of the bishop, so unexpectedly in the very prime of a most active and useful life, will be a heavy blow to the Catholics of his diocese, by whom he was justly held in high esteem and veneration. Such men as op Neumann are rare in any community, and his loss will be widely lamented."

OLD BROWN'S CAREER IN KANSAS .- At a "John Brown" anti-slavery meeting in Lawrence, Capt. Walker was called upon to state what he knew of Brown's massacre ai Pottawatamic. Capt. Walker said, "Gentlemen, there is no use in keeping back the truth or perverting facts.— John Brown told me himself that he was present at the murder of those men on Pottawatamic Creek."

(This startled like a thunder clap the defenders of Brown.) He proceeded: "I am ready to take an oath that John Brown made such a statement to me. of Onkville.

John Brown had those men in his power, and he could have kept them prisoners. For himself he never could justify taking a man prisoner and then deliberately cutting his throat.

Old Titus, whom he took prisoner, had threatened to cut his throat, had insulted his wife and threatened her life, yet he never felt justified in taking his life when his prisoner." Gov. Chas. Robinson also said that he believed, John Brown had acknowledged to him he was present and approved of the killing of those men on Pottawatamic Creek.—Dr. Adair, a nephew of John Brown, was questioned in prisoner in the Present of the head of the control of the con od in reference to John Brown's connection with the Pottawatamic massacre. He said John Brown had told him that he was present at the killing of those men. But there were palliating circumstances connected with it.

FRESH AIR .- Give your children plenty of fresh air. Let them snuff it until it sends the rosy current of life dancing joyfully to their temples. Air is so aheap, and so good, and so necessary withal, that every, shild should have free access to it. Horace Mann beautifully says: "To put children on a short allowance of fresh air, is as foolish as it would have been for Noah, during the deluge, to have put his family on a short allowance of water. Since [Sed has powed out on atmosphere of fifty miles] God has poured out an atmosphere of fifty miles deep, it is enough to make a miser weep to see our children stinted in breath."

JOHN BROWN'S POCKET KNIFE.—A citizen of Harper's Ferry, says the Richmond Enquirer, has just forwarded for presentation to Gov. Wise, the veritable pocket knife of John Brown. It is an old jack knife, a bone handle and two blades, and has evidently seen much service. A small brass plate on the handle is engraved with the name 'John Brown.' On one side of the large blade are now inscribed the words, 'Pirate Chief and Robbor of Kansas. Taken from his person. Attack on Harper's Ferry Armory, 17th October, 1859.' On the other side of the blade.—'Presented to Gov. Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, by Arch'd, M. Kitzmiller.'

Wise, of Virginia, by Arch'd. M. Kitzmiller.' LONGEVITY IN PROVIDENCE.—Seventy-two per LONGEVITY IN PROVIDENCE.—Seventy-two persons died in Providence, in 1859, at the age of seventy years and upwards, or ninoteen less than in 1858, and twenty-one less than in 1857. The greatest mortality was in December and January, months generally fatal to old people. The oldest person deceased in 1859 was ninety-eight years of age, and the next ninety-seven. There were five of ninety and upwards, and twenty-six of eighty and upwards.

"Hello, old cock," sang out that ragged imp again, and we there helpless! Soon we got up and made another trial, with better success. Perhaps we had skated in our peculiar style, fifteen feet, when a blundering chap came up belind, and we sat down, with our tired head pillowed in his lap— and he swearing at us, when it was all his own fault! How cold the ice was there, too! Every spot where we made our debut on the ice—oh! how cold it was! we made our debut on the ice—oh! how cold it was our bear skin drawers were no protection at all!—We tried again, for the papers all say it's fun, and down came our Roman Greeian nose, ou the cold julep material, and the little drops of crimson ran down our shirt bosom, and on to the cold ice. Once more we tried skating—made for the shore—sat down and counted the state.

If you eateh us on the smooth, glossy, chilly, freezing, treacherous, deccitful, and slip-uppery ice again, you'll know it! If any one ever hears of our skating again, they will please draw on us at sight for the bivalves and accompanying documents. We have got through skating. It's humbug. It's a vexation of spirit, of flesh, and toarrof of trowers! It's a head-bumping, back-aching, log-wearing, dangerous institution, and we warn people against skating. We tried it, and shan't be able to walk for a month. Skating clubs are a humbug, and all the rascally youngsters wish to get the ladies at it, that they may see—ff they too, don't say "the ice is dreadful cold!".
