The Rev. PETER CARTRIGHT, the pio neer of Methodism in the West, lectured before the Young Men's Christian Association of Carlislo, on Saturday evening last, in the Methodist Church, before a very large audience. He is an eloquent old man-his age 75-and an enthusiast in his calling. He also preached in the Methodist Church, morning and evening, to large and attentive audionces. His preaching is carnest, and in the old Methodist style-vchement, denunciatory, and persuasivo.

DOUBLING GAP .- Mr. A. A large expenditure is contemplated to make the place still more attractive. Mr. Kanaga will liave charge of the Springs next summer.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERIES .- That our town contains scores of unmitigated scoundrels, robbers, thieves, incendiaries, &c., has been made quite evident of late. On Tuesday and Thursday nights of last week, two men (belonging to Carlisle, it is believed, ) proceeded to the house of Mr. ABRAHAM HETRICH, a wealthy man residing in North Middleton township, and attompted to gain admittance into his house .---The members of the family were in bed and
