To the Public. THE subscriber respectfully informs his leased that well known house at the Railroad Bridge, East Main Street, Carlisle, (formerly kept by him as a tavern) where he will be glad to see his old friends and customers. The house has been put in good condition, and every attention will be paid to those stopping with him to make them comfortable. Ale, Beer and Oysters, constantly on hand.

Having a large and convenient Stable, with tuning Spring near it, Drovers would find it to their advantage to stop with him. Boarders will be taken by the week, month or year. WILLIAM MOUDY. Carlisle, March 8, 1860.

regular proposal reasonable in amount.

12. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and then, if they desire, separately for different service; and if the regular bid be the lowest offered for the advertised firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly 15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practiticable, the printed form of proposal furnished by the department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to rotain copies of them. Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should hids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdraw-al of a bidder or guarantet, will be allowed unless dated and received before the last day for receiving proposals.

Each bid must be guarantied by two responsible persons.

General guaranties cannot be admitted. The bid and guaranty should co signed plainly with the full name of each person. and guaranty should co signed plainly with the full name of each porson.

The department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also to disregard the bids of falling contractors and bidders.

16. The bid should be scaled, superscribed "Mail Proposals, State of _____," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office," and sent by mail, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not enclose proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the 1st day of Aigust 1860; but the service must be commonced on the 1st July preceding, or on mail day next after that date, whether the contracts be executed or not. No proposition to transfer will be allowed unless good and sufficient reasons thereof are given, to be determined by the department. In all cases the retring contractor will be required to become one of the Surcties on the new contract.

more than eighty rods from a station, will, immediately after the 31st of March next, report their exact distance from the nearest station, and how they are otherwise supplied with the mail; to enable the Postmaster General to direct a mail messenger supply from the 1st of July next.

19. Section eighteen of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1845, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let "in every case to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance, without other mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due colority, certainty, and security of such transportation." "Under this law, bids that propose to transport the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security," have been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty, and security," and will have the preference over all others.

20. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids. Making a new bid, with guaranty and certificate, is the only may to modify a previous bid.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors or sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and all bidders, guarantors, and sureties are distinctly notified that on a failuge to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, their legal liabilities will be onforced against them.

22. Present contractors, and persons known at the department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a poststantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster or by a judge of a court of record. No other certificate will be admitted.
