earth, and plant two or three tomato seeds in each; when the seeds have well sprouted, pull up all but the healthiest plant in each turnip, and let those that remain stand where they will have the benefit of the sun; the plant will grow very thriftily—the decaying turnip furnishing its food. When the weather be comes sufficiently warm, set the turnips in a well propared soil, not less than three feet, apart, make lath frames to keep the vines from the ground and keep the soil well hilled up around them and you will have a crop that will astonish the natives. The advantage consists in getting the plants started early without setting them back by transplanting.

FASHIONABLE WOMEN.-Fashion kills more women than toil and sorrow. Obedience to fashion is a greater transgression of the laws ot woman's nature, a greater injury to her physical and mental constitution than the Bardships of poverty and neglect. The slave women at their tasks will live and grow old, and see two or three generations of their mis-tresses pass away. The washerwoman, with searce a ray of hope to cheer her in her toil, will live to see fashionable sisters all die around her. The kitchen maid is hearty and around her. The kitchen maid is hearty and strong, when her lady has to be nursed like. Sick baby. It is a sad truth that fashion pampered women are almost uscless for all the good ends of human life. They have still less power of moral will, and quite as little physi-cal energy. They live for no purpose in life; cal energy. They live for no purpose in life; they accomplish no worthy ends. They are dull forms in the hands of milliners and serv-ants, to be dressed and fed to order. They dress nobody; they feed nobody; they instruct nobody; they bless nobody, and save nobody, nobody; they bless nobody, and save house, They write no books; they set no rich exam-ples of virtue and womanly life. If they rear servents and nurses do all. And when reared what are they? What do the over amount to, but weak scions of the old stock ?" Who ever heard of a fashionable wo-man's child exhibiting any virtue and power of mind for which it became eminent? Read the biographies of great men and women.-Not one of them had a fashionable mother.

A WEDDING ON THE CARS .- A wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon of last week, says the Pittsburg Dispatch, on a train on the Rittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, while the cars were under full headway. A couple from Damascus, O., weary of a single life, and mutually anxious to be "no more twain but one flesh," made their wishes known to conductor Fry, who, with his well known gallantry, rendered all the assistance in his power. A minister was found on the train, power. A minister was found on the train, and as soon as the State line was passed, they were bound in the "silken bonds of Hymen," to the infinite satisfaction of all present themselves, of course, included
