The Covode Investigating Committee.

The most disgraceful exhibition of the depths to which partizan malignity can descend is the investigation now going on by the Covode Committee of the House of Representatives. What a spectacle it presents to the country of the recklessness of faction, and the meanness of unscrupulous partizan warfare! The popular branch of the government appoints a committee, to do what? To investigate upon charges of official misconduct against the Chief Magistrate of the country which would subject him to impeachment? Does it propose to lay bare any supposed acts of executive corruption, in violation of the oath of his office? Does it pretend to proceed on proper information, and by legal and constitutional means, to protect the rights of the people against executive usurpation or abuse of power? Nothing of the kind. Not one of these allegations is made by any responsible or respectable member of Congress. Not one of these things is the President believed to be guilty of by those who have appointed the committee. The whole investigation is but a political trick, resorted to for the purpose of operating upon the Presidential election. For a purpose like this, is the country disgraced by the hitherto unheard-of act of appointing a committee, to search for something upon which some public accusation can be made, against the man the people thought worthy to place at the head of the nation. And, characteristic of this act, the committee are authorized to proceed, like cavesdropping pimps, to search every man's pocket who, by official or friendly relation with the President, is suspected of having "discontented papers," likely to involve the executive, by strained inference, in some political dereliction of duty. All the political profligates who have been properly turned out of office for misconduct or incapacity, or who have been baffled in their ambitious aspirations, are invited to come forward and betray the secrets reposed in them in the necessary confidence of official connection, or of friendly political intercourse. The manifest purpose of the whole investigation is to heap disgrace upon the President as the head of a great political party. And as they blacken and defame his public life, which has stood prominent for its integrity and purity for so many years, to damage and destroy the party which has elevated him to the chief position in the country.

The Covode committee has now been sitting for weeks, trying to pump evidence from willing and unwilling witnesses, tending to criminate the President and blast his personal and political reputation. So far the work has been a fruitless one. Nothing of a damnatory character has yet been reached—nothing raked out from old letters or voluntary revealings of private and confidential communications which tends in the least to implicate the President in the abuses which prevail, and always have and always will prevail, at Washington, while there is money to distribute in public service or jobs to secure by personal impunity and liberal promises to divide the spoils. Money has and always will be used for electioneering purposes. No party is free from doing so, and no party could carry on a political campaign without it. If it is the voluntary contributions of individuals it is nobody's business, unless it is used in an illegal way. There is enough unscrupulousness among politicians of all parties to use both public office and public money to promote the end which all are seeking—public place. But no sane individual believes that the man who holds the first office in the country, and whose personal and official reputation has hitherto stood unblemished, would betray his own antecedents and the confidence reposed in him by the nation, to misuse his office for the benefit of his friends, political or personal. So far, the worst complaints against Mr. Buchanan come from those who were his pretended personal and political friends, leading to an inference the very reverse of the impression that they would like to fix upon the public mind. If Mr. Buchanan could have been used by them, would they have ever quarreled with him.—Public Ledger.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE FROM THE APACHE INDIANS.—A Mrs. John Page was some time since, carried away from her home in Arizona by the Apache Indians, who, being closely pursued by the whites, rather than surrender their prisoner, lanced her in several places and left her for dead. At the same time the poor woman was suffering severely from fever and ague. Notwithstanding her disease and injuries, however, she managed to creep away from the place where she had been left, bound up her wounds, and managed to sustain life by roots until she arrived at a white settlement. A more wonderful escape has rarely happened.

☞ Speaking of the Potter and Pryor affair, the Washington Star says: "Col. Lander is a native and citizen of Massachusetts, but has spent some years on the extreme Western frontier, where he has been professionally engaged as civil engineer. Politically he is a very emphatic pro-slavery Democrat, and the fact that he is the cousin of Mr. Potter's wife we take for granted, is the reason why he was found acting in the matter in Mr. P's. behalf."

BLOOMING IN THE GRAVE.—A metalic coffin, containing the body of a young lady who had been buried more than four years, was lately opened in Memphis, Tennessee. The body was in an excellent state of preservation—the hair, particularly, was very life-like, and what was more astonishing, a full blown camellia japonica, which some affectionate hand had twined in the tresses of the girl, was remarkably fresh looking, the leaves retaining their soft greenish hue to perfection.

FORGERY.—A person in the employ of Mrs. Elizabeth Sprenger, of Lancaster, named Lawrence Speilman, lately presented a check for $100 at the counter of the Inland Insurance & Deposit Company, and obtained the money.—The check purported to be drawn by Mrs. Sprenger, but was subsequently ascertained to be a forgery. Speilman, soon after getting the money, left for parts unknown, and has not been heard of since.

DECEASED.—Lawrence Johnson, Esq., the well known type founder and stereotyper, died at his residence, in Philadelphia, on Thursday last. Mr. J. was about sixty years of age, a man of strict integrity, and universally respected. He had accumulated wealth by industry and strict integrity, and was the benefactor of hundreds of young men who have commenced life without means. The craft has lost one of its brightest ornaments.

☞ At a jubilee at Bayton's factory, in North Adams, Massachusetts, week before last, Mr. Bayton remarked that when he opened his mill, in 1832, wages for girls were 42 cents a week, and calico cost one dollar a yard; now some of his girls earn six dollars a week, and calico is sold for eight cents a yard.

☞ The Australian papers record another horrid massacre of an English ship's crew by Polynesian savages. The ship (the Pearl of Sidney) was burnt, and the nine persons on Board, including the captain, were killed and eaten.

☞ A manufactory of friction matches has just been put in operation at Cincinnati by two wealthy citizens of that city. The cost of the building and machinery has been $150,000.

☞ A shark was recently captured in Nassau, N. P., Harbor, and in the stomach of the fish was found a man's hand and a goat's head, with horns seven inches long.

☞ Some author tells us that "much is said about the tongue." True, the thing is in everybody's mouth.

☞ The cost of keeping up our Army and Navy amounts to thirty millions a year.

The only Preparation

Worthy of Universal Confidence and Patronage.

FOR Statesmen, Judges, Clergymen, Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20th, 1858.

GENTLEMEN: Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreebilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only the falling off was arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald.

Very respectfully, BEN. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, New York.

Siamaston, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC of its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all!

Yours truly, WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like. By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper.

W. H. KENEDY.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.
