My age is a hout 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years a decision, and I then intend to say that I will consent that we take a new belt apiece, since it began to ture gray, and the scale of the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disageabilities in-creased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling of the top and leave the old one to be fought for. Or I will consent that the present belt be struck in two with axe, and Mr. Wilkes, for America, shall hand me my half, and Mr. Dowling shall hand Sayers his. If Sayers does not agree to this, I will then come out and offer to run him fourth was added to them, by hair fulling off the top of my head and threatoning to make me bald. In this unpleasant prodicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expecta-tion that gray hair could ever be restored to its ori-ginal color except from dyes. I was, however, great-ly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only the falling off was arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and daudruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it. For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald. Very respectifully, BEN. A. LAVENDER. 100 yards, or one mile, or 5. mile the stakes and belt, or I will wrestle him for it, fight him for it, take hold of hands and jump off a house with him for it, or I will agree, in two months from to-day, to fight in succession the four best men that England can produce, begin-ning with Tom Sayers, at intervals of thirty days apart. If this does not get it for me, I will have to come home without it.'

Now that a treaty has been made between Heenan and his opponent, the Boy and Tom value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or griting bald. At Ro chester he got on the cars and country as soon as possible. The conductor came along and recalled him from his studied admiration so suddenly that he lost his hat, and of course his ticket. The conductor pitied him, and gave him a ticket through to Buffalo, and also a cap. At Buffalo he took passage on a boat bound for Chicago, and acting as cabin boy. At Milwaukee he asked the captain for money to get clothes. He found the depot, and con ded to come io Janesville, where he arrived safely with five shillings in his pocket.
