

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1860

CAN VOLUNTEER. WYERY THURSDAY MORNING BY.

Anerican

TOTAL B. BRATTON. TERMS.

47.

ck on de becial de nterest e r ns shet ertificaté r, that i thereafte the same Partice. States e excention lied upon lechadina r for the roprieto extent

er oblig

to me

Treshin .

| Fireh

ty, ince ly orga ent of h

favor

Perm

ls; Cu

le Cur

Cuml

rilato

len ; Yı Zearia;

on; Hu'. h. Fori o' Sani hephers Saria Spor,

Iga an

. EBER

LY

PA

bу

SIZE

form his

; Mr. lli the Bu

ers, ar

r and w style

g, ruch.

IT

01

Filds. One Dollar and Fifty Cents, paid a Two Dollars if paid within the year; Dollars and Fifty Cents, if not paid within These forms will be rigidly adhered to in every instance. Ny subscription discontinued until all arrestages an pild unless at the option of the

> Those of a greater longth i Such as Hand-bills, Posting-bills

Labels, &c. &c., executed

Boetical.

THE DEPARTED.

frour own ; we hold our pleasures little while ere they are fled ; he life robs of our treasures ; is our own except our dead.

remurs, and hold in faithful keeping. ver, all they took away ; in never stir that sleeping, can never seize that prev truth fades : stars fall from heave the great whom we revere; of honor can be given, ath lies upon a funeral bier.

Ficayo us; and no traces Similing angel band; no, and in their places, au anxious women stand.

Tet we have found little ones, still ours; They have been the baby smile we know. Which we killed one day, and hid with flowers On their read white faces long age.

en our joy is lost; and life will take it, Then the station is lost; and the with the state (Then is momory of the past romains; the with the string, cruel sting, that makes it it is the string beyond all present pains.

ider-hearted leaves to sorrow nt shadow—fond regret; a some fair bright to morrow, taken, living yet.

Love out, and do we dream we know it, Bound with all our heart-strings, all ou adjoid and cruel dawn may show it, Bhattered, descorated, over-thrown.

And the dead hearts forsake us never;
Doly the dead hearts forsake us never;
Lover has to death's loyal care has fled,
Is this charter do urs forever,
Audius charge can rob us of our dead.
So when false pomes to besiege our city;
Dimenur gold or make our flowers fall
Death, the angel comes in love and pity,
And to ave the sure of the sure all,

F WE KNEW. BY RUTH BENTON.

the cares and crosses for the lack of thrite and gain-

Leaving on his heart a shadow.

of piety and morality. Several friends of the husband had hinted, while Monro was in town, that his intimacy was not proper; but the husband, having the most implicit confi-dence in his wife, indignantly repelled any allusion to the subject. Sever of last April Monro came ind there in the subject. Cost of last April Monro came ind there in the subject. Cost of last April Monro came ind there in the subject. Cost of last April Monro came ind there in the subject. Cost of last April Monro came ind there in the subject is subject in the subject in the subject in the subject is subject in the subject in the subject is subje two days, not visiting, as is usual for the graduates of the seminary, his old professors papa says so, and adds that if it is not done shortly, the low plum boughs will make ano-ther Absalom of Robbie, sometime, when the and friends, and then mysteriously disappear-external statics. No subscription discontinued until all arcarages are puid unless at the option of the Ratics. Accompanied by the cASH, and to exceeding the durate durate three times for each inter for Orac and the twenty-five cents for each additional terms. These of a greater length is the would go to the country with it for a blue-eyed gander is in hot pursuit. There is no denying that the curls need she would go to the country with it for a few weeks, to which the husband cheerfully ac-quiesced. She took the 7 o'clock A. M. New under the weight of its own moss, and straggle Haven train for Norwalk, Conn., for which place her husband purchased her ticket and checked her trunk, as she said she could make up her mind on her way whether she would take a branch road at Norwalk for Danbury, where her brother lives, or continue on to Boston. This proposition the husband considered perfectly rational, and they then parted in the perfectly rational, and they then parted in the most affectionate manner. The 14th came, know how dear such curls are to mother's earts. and the husband, not hearing from his wife,

Here are the scissors. Robbie must sit and the husband, not hearing from his wife, though he had written to het, immediately telegraphed to Boston and Danbury, and an-swers came back that his wife and baby had not been seen. This, in connection with some trifling circumstances, which soon amounted to stubborn facts, gave rise to horrible suspi-cions, among them, that she had proceeded cions, among them, that she had proceeded no further than Norwalk, and had returned by the 3.25 P. M. train to New York, and taken the 5 P. M. train on the same afternoon to Albany. A consultation was had and tele-Be very still, now, while I comb out these to Albany. A consultation was had and tele-grams sent to all parts of the country, and to Halifax, to stop the steamer, in case the par-ties bad sailed for Europe. Nothing, however, was heard of them until the 23d, when a telegram was received by the husband stating that the parties had been rethe 23d, when a telegram was received by the husband stating that the parties had been re-cognized on Sunday, the 20th May, at Cincin-nati.

The husband immediately telegraphed to a range them in the latest style of trimming; keep them warm while eating it. friend in that city connected with the press, pommading, per-----no; no, my boy will not After the table was cleared awa riven in that city connected with the press, and the message was placed by him in the hands of Detective J. L. Ruffin, who soon de-coyed the reverend seducer, by a letter to the post office, and after tracking him to a houso on. Fourth street, arrested and looked him up. The lady, with her child, was immediately conducted, by the husband's friends, to one of the principal hotels, where she was kept until conducted, by the husband's friends, to one of the principal hotels, where she was kept until her husband arrived. The scene that ensued wear high heeled boots, and —, Faugh [I show the belonged to him is only belonged to him is the third between them can better be imagined than scribed-the husband, on his part, almost frantic, the heart-broken and repentant wife

The friends of the husband, anticipating a tragical conclusion to the affair, took every precaution, and have succeeded in preventing it. The reverend prisoner, Monro, was kept in close confinement, and the husband was not permitted to see him until he was brought call you the collend that links his into court, where a charge was made against eyed elf i you are already rebelling at being him by the detective and the husband's friends, and he was immediately reimanded to prison in default of giving $500 bail. The husband's friends, in consideration of the wife's lamentable condition, and for the BEAUTIFUL STANZA. heaven, who knows but what the first triumphal strain that welcomes us may be-

Leaf by leaf the room fall, Drop by drop the norms fall, Drop by drop the norm fall, Summer besatter fale and die; But the roses bloom again; And the spring will firsh anew, In the pleasant April 7kin. And the summer subond dow. So in hours of despess gloom, When the springs of gledness fail, And the roses in the bloom, Drop like maidens with and pale; We chall find some hope that lies Like a silebt gem spart, Hiddon far from careless cyce In the garden of the facet.

Some sweet hope to gladness wed, That will spring sitesh and new, When grief's whiter have fied, Giving place to rain and dew— Some sweet hope that breathes of spring, These to be that breathes of spring, Through the weary, weary time, Budding for its blossoming, In the spirit's glorious elime.

"Honesty is the Best Policy."

It was one cold November day, that a poor tailor, with his wife and children around him, fort them. Presently a stranger entered the shop, looking as if he were in great haste. He wanted to have a seam, which he had accidentally fair baby of mine—but three summers out of Paradise, and still smiling in his sleep re-membering what the angels said there—shall placed the roll of bills in his hand. He sharever be so metamorphosed. And yet the boy's babyhood is rapidly fleet ed her conviction that the money was the property of his morning customer-but for a moment he hesitated to consend to her sug-gestion to make an effort to restore it to the rescue her from her terrible fate and take her back to New York, and, probably from the best and most humane and impulsive motives, they were hurried from Cincinnati the same night for New York. What will be the ter-mination of this sad affair it is difficult to pre-mination of this sad affair it is difficult to pre-mination of this sad affair it is difficult to pre-tered the little shop, as the tailor and his fam-side, like a half-tamed bird a perch on one's the were shore to pre-mination of this sad affair it is difficult to pre-mination of this sad affair it is difficult to pre-tered the little shop, as the tailor and his fam-side, like a half-tamed bird a perch on one's the set the pre-tered the little shop, as the tailor and his fam-side, like a half-tamed bird a perch on one's tailor were forward to meet him, and asked the pre-tered the little shop, as the tailor and his fam-side, like a half-tamed bird a perch on one's tailor were forward to meet him, and asked

THE COLUMBUS ORANGE GIRL. "Be thou, O God I exalted high." ANOTHER REAL ROMANCE. The citizens of Columbus, and visitors at Doluter.

The Study of Children's Faces.

the closens of columbus, and visitors as the Capitol, will recollect a beautiful young girl, apparently "sweet sixteen," who daily carried about the legislative halls and State offices, a handsomely wrought basket contain-It is interesting to study human nature in children's faces—to see the effects of different modes of education upon diverse developments of mind and body. Many children look sour, willful and ugly; some sad, even; while othing the plumpest and sweetest oranges. Oh yes, everybody remembers Ettic, the beauti-ful orange girl; and have wandered in what nook she has hidden for the past two months; ers look sweet, pleasant and happy, as children should. Much as perfect or diseased physical na-for no more her sweet face and girlish form is seen in the capitol, and interested clerks with a great admiration for the rotunda are obliged to forego glimpses of the neatest gaitered foot tures, proper or improper diet, may have to do in producing these appearances, home discioline and example, as a general thing, have nore. Mothers do not realize that they fastripping up the marble stairs. Everybody about the State House admired ten their own feelings, so far as expressed, in their offspring. She who scowls and frowns Ettic, but it was with a respectful admiration, habitually, must not expect her child to look and if a gruff legislator was tempted to jest oyful, but gnarled or surly. Like mother, with the girl, or make light remarks, he was like child; only she who "sows the wind" in estrained by the modest demeanor and pure the heart of her daughter, may expect to see the whirlwind gather and burst forth, as our soul-look appealing from her heaven-blue harvest are generally more plentiful than the seed we scatter. Select a very pleasant-look-Ettie always brought a basket full and went tripping home with an empty one, and her scarlet silk purse filled with silver coin. She ing child, and notice if it has not a very pleaant-looking mother-one who answers was the sole dependence of a widowed mothnany of its thousand and one questions with a warm, er, and her noble efforts to keep away want were known, and made the fruit from her basloving smile, instead of turning away the in quiring mind, and fretting at its endless teas ket ten times sweeter. When the great Union meeting of the Ten-ings. Who of us, amid continual irritation, would nessee, Kentucky and Ohio Legislatures was held in Ohio's capitol, the beautiful orange preserve the same benignity of countenance? and can children be expected to do better than their seniors and teachers in this respect?girl was tripping about, disposing of her fruit to the "sons of the South," and receiving the How I pity the half dozen offspring of her in whose house there is no acknowledged ruler, save, perhaps, the youngest child 1 These youth do not look very happy—much less so than though they had been taught obedience At the end of one of the halls, viewing the noble row of princely dwellings on Third street, stood alone a youthful member of the Tennessee Legislature, when he was startled by a silvery voice asking: "Buy an orange, sir?" "How do you sell them ?" said the stranger to parental authority, for their mother neither feels nor looks very joyful. But displeasing as is a surly-faced youth, a sad child is indeed a very sorry sight. If looking into her eyes. "Five cents each," said the maiden holding its body has much vitality, a sensitive soul breathes an incongenial atmosphere, probably large one towards him. " Cheap." in the very heart of nome. Childhood should be laughing, rosy, sunny ! and when it is thus, how attractive ! I had almost said, how beau-tiful are they who represent it, though their features be very unsymmetrical! Many a mother is overburdened with care and sorrow, whose, is a continual struggle with the heavy, artillary of life it is thug when it is head to "Indeed they are." This introduction opened the way for a progirl artlessly revealed to the stranger the po-verty of her home, and the necessity of her supporting her sick mother. He was so struck with the girl's manner and singular beauty that he secretly resolved to visit her home and orting her sick mother. He was so struck become more intimately acquainted. He did who will do all things desirable for her-He so, and after successive visits, won the confiwho loves to see his creatures happy. dence and love of the maiden, and the mother's consent to their marriage; and when he went back to his Southern home, it was with

Return of the Jews to Palestine.

To the student of the Bible and Church hisinto court, where a charge was made against im by the detective and the hisband's friends, ind he was immediately remined to giving 5500 bail. The husband's friends, in consideration of the wife's lamentable condition, and for the little child's sake, demanded that he should rescue her from her terrible fate and take her back to New York, and, probably from the set and most humane and impulsive motives, they were hurried from Cincinnati the same ory there are few current subjects of more absorbing interest, or of deeper significance, and wife. He has taken her, the fairest of the Barey in Arabia.

Gdds and Ends.

111144

NO. 1.

IC Let well enough alone: Dr Love your neighbor as yourself. Nothing dries sooner than a tear. "Vice often lurks close to virtue." Down-the price of butter. IF A man winds up his clock, to make it run, and his business to make it stop.

 $D^{-} \Lambda$ false friend and a shadow attend only while the sun shines. I A man down east has invented yellow spectacles, for making lard look like butter. 17 Extraordinary elopement.—Mr. Jones. dog eloped with Mr. Brown's dinner.

Scarlet, silk and velvet, have put out the kitchen fire.

IF What is the first thing a young lady looks for in church. The mins.

IT A rose without a thorn-a woman without nails

. I Never look for the milk of human kinds ness in the pale of civilzation, JFA gentleman's comforter-a pretty wife with an amiable disposition.

Physician's prescriptions are now call-ed "death warrants in Latin."

IT A friend says he would like to see a feather from a flying report.

IT The light in the world comes principally from two sources—the sun and the student's lamp.

They call sleep "death's counterfeit." It is entirely current however. Everybody takes it quite as willingly as if it were genuino.

Only the noblest characters show them-selves in their real light. All others act comedy even into the grave.

Those women, who are most lover by This introduction opened the way for a pro-longed and serious conversation, in which the thought of by the other.

> I You can "become the owner of a home" by inflexibly making your expenses a little less than your income every week.

C If you fall into misfortune, disebgage yourself as well as you can. Creep through the bushes that have the fewest briarse

OF It will afford sweeter happiness in the hour of death to have wiped one tear from the eye of sorrow than to have ruled an empire.

I No man can be in two places at the same time, but many a hypocritical fellow has shown that he can be two things in one place.

127 A western editor proposes to bet his "head against a ten-penny-nail!" We decline tho wager; we can't bet a hard currency against a soft one.

In the matter of plain speaking, we are, many of us, like a soldier, who in his first battle was afraid to fire off his musket lest he might hurt somebody.

C A man is the healthiest and the happiest when he thinks the least either of health or happiness. To forget an ill is half the bat-

 If we know the clouds above us, Held by goatle blessings there, of the Weild we turn away all trembling, In our blind and weak despair? All our blind and weak despair? Weild we shrink from little shadows, while the only birds of Eden. Just in morcy flying past?

; prefet ; dand i dand ; pren , danda nd impr

Let as reach them in our bosoms, Let har reach them in our bosoms, For the key to other lives, And with love toward erring nature, Chernel good that still survives; So that when our disrobed spirits Son tornelling of light again, We may say, dear Father, judge us Av we judged our follow-men.

Misrellaneous.

dıv. From Forney's Pross i the I New York Blopement .-- The Rev. George Nugent

An account of the recent elopement of

An account of the recent elopement of a single for a sing ight this city, we have taken particular to shearing the facts of the case, and a solution of the constant we are personally the husband and wife, and and Lothario in New York more The husband is a promising young Bar of New York, known DEC. ere, as also is his wife. He now, as the papers repre-th the District Attorney's office: A office and the District Attorney's says to him, "Thus far shalt thou come, but no farther." Fear not. No farther." Fear not. A man has no more right to say an uncivil thing than to act one; no more right to say a rude thing to another, than to knock another what you are.

down.

he ?-

years old. cars old. About two years ago they were residing on About two years ago they were resuling on a Twentieth street. New York, opposite the Ge-nic Witheological Seminary, where this Monro and student of theology. He there with the student of the lady by seeing ow from his own, and, by charter and and anonymous letters to e. finally obtained an inand was soon after formally hand an of some intellect, occue position in society, and n of morality, the husband tion of his acquaintance in intimacy began, and tem until this unfortunate ed the husband's perfect tallity, being at all times and friend, even to the tallity being at all times n of his acquaintance orthquite desire fair: Mohm sonfidence and international the husband's perfect sonfidence and international times releane as a gries, and friend, even to the releane is sunding as sponsor to the infant atom is sunding as sponsor to the infant About this time one of those occasional in-mination of this sad affair it is difficult to predict. We trust for the best. lict. We trust for the best. "You'll see, you'll see! I'll soon take flight !" he had lost. The gentleman's countenance The husband and wife have a large circle of Pretty soon you will not believe in the wolf brightened, he replied that he had, and named warm friends in New York, and their influ- that talked to Red Riding Hood, and will lose warm friends in New York, and their innu-ence and advice will, in all probability; pro-duce some wholesome result. That the wife duce some wholesome result. That the wife not stay the little bark that slips so rapidly where he had put away the package, and where he had put away the package, and where he had put away the package. has been basely betrayed by this clerical not stay the little bark that slips so rapidly scoundrel, and her weakness taken advantage down the hurrying stream of life. Soon, the scoundrei, and her weakness taken advantage of, there can be no doubt. The very man who should have reconciled their difficulties, being a minister of the Gospel, (if no other being a minister) (if no other being a minister) (if no other being a being is initiated by the second seco laugh if he caught me, and say it was because I wanted the curls to stay and make a girl o There is nothing known of this man, except There is nothing known of this man, except his boy. See I there are tears glistening in that he comes from England, and represents these sunny clusters of hair, like dow among himself as the nephew of Sir George Nugent. the golden-blossomed jessamine vines, and IIe taught school in Wales, and came to this vour eves are looking at me with wide opened your eyes are looking at me with wide opened wonder, and your red lip beginning to quiver country without friends or means; was located, at one time, at Cohoes, near Albany, and then at West Point, as school teacher. The wonder, and your red up beginning to quite with ready sympathy. Oh, Robbiel even if the worst should come, and I should have to lay this bright head, with its locks of undimnseminary at which he graduated has already repudiated him; and we are informed that the ed lustre under a coffin-lid, and see the grass Rev. Bishop Potter, of the New York Diocese. grow between my darling and the bosom he once slept upon, I should still thank God for having given him, for having crowned my life with the holy blessing of motherhood; for it has taken the matter in hand, and when the evidence against Monro is received from Cinis such little arms as these around our necks, Robbie, that make us feel strong to do, and to suffer ; it is drawing such little heads as these You must persuade a child to place conficlass, close to our breasts, that keeps the hearts of some of us mothers from breaking. There ! that is grandpapa's step upon the dence in you, if you wish to form an open and upright character; you cannot terrify it into habits of truth.

CARE NO.

abits of truth. Hear no ill of a friend, nor speak any of an little lamb is shorn. Look at this bright heap under thy nurturing care; give them wisdom enemy; believe not all you hear, and appear of glistening silk, such as Persian loop hat you are. When a man has no design but to speak ain truth, he may say a great deal in a vory ms nevel plain truth, he may say a great deal in a very narrow compass. Satan's chain is in thy Saviour's hand; he a glittering wealth grew on your little head— did you, blue, eyed baby ? No, you must not clutch it with those desays to him, "Thus far shalt thou come, but no farther." Fear not. structive fingers. Go-grandpa is calling you -let him see his little man; but leave me these-the first curls cut from my baby's head.

I will put them away to remind me, in other lays, of his sweet, lost infancy. The secret of one's success or failure in nearly every enterprise is usually contained in the answer to the question: How earnest is UNASSAILABLE TRUTHS,-There is often an unsuspected triffe to be saved in every house-hold. It is not in economy alone that the wife's attention is so necessary, but in those he i The bread of life is love; the salt of life is work; the sweetness of life, poetry, the water of life, faith. Glory is well enough for a rich man, but it Hold. It is not in economy atone that the wife's attention is so necessary, but in those niceties which make a well-regulated house. An unfurnished cruet-stand, a missing key, a buttonless shirt, a soiled table-cloth, a mustard or different states a soiled table-cloth, a mustard hold. It is not in economy atone that the wife's attention is so necessary, but in those niceties which make a well-regulated house. An unfurnished cruet-stand, a missing key, a buttonless shirt, a soiled table-cloth, a mustard

each can raise an angry word, or cause dis

As daylight can be seen through very small holes, so little things will illustrate a person's character. Indeed, character consists in little acts well and honorably performance in the person's sated of beauty, tired of music, are often too of obstinacy. We do not easily believe be comfort. Depend upon it, there's a great deal Son, our Savior. Amen !"

acts well and honorably performed; daily life being the quarry from which we build itup, and rough-hew the habits that form it.

fortune, friends, family, country, for him; she may have the genius of a Sappho, the en-chanted beauties of an Armedian; but it is a SEVENTY ACRES PLOWED BY STEAM .- The finger, while your dancing eyes seem to say, at once if he had come in search of something "You'll see, you'll see! I'll soon take flight !'' he had lost. The gentleman's countenance which, it will be recollected, stands upon the very site of the Jewish Temple on Mo riah. The mosque is one of the Mahomme dans' most celebrated shrines, being scarcely men look upon these indications as a legiti-mate consequence of the liberalizing influence of Mahommedan intercourse with Christians, brought it forth to its proper owner. The gentleman glanced over the notes, and seeing that they were all correct, took out two fifty dollar bills, and placed them in the tailor's of Mahommedan intercourse with Unristians, and so they may be; but to the reader of the yet unfulfilled pages of Revelation, they also point to what, as it respects the Jewish na-tion, "prophets and kings" have long waited for, "but died without the sight." That the Macause of Omera charit has the former hand, saying as he did so: "Honesty is always sure of a reward. You will find that it is always the best policy."

The First Praver in Congress.

In Thatcher's Military Journal, under the and of December, 1777, is found a note con-taining the identical "first prayer in Con-gress," made by the Rev. Jacob Duche, a gentleman of great eloquence. Here it is-an historical curiosity: "O, Lord, our heavenly Father, high and as by no means improbable that some of the present generation will see the entire city of mighty King of kings, and Lord of Lords, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwelferusalem again in the hands of its ancient lers of the earth, and reigness with power su-preme and uncontrolled over all the king-doms, empires and governments; look down in mercy, we beseech thee, on these American owners. That mighty revolutions will follow in the wake of such an event is probably as certain as that the Jews will return ; at all events, affairs in that immediate region of the East must ere long become an engrossing States, who have fled to thee from the rod of the oppressor, and thrown themselves on thy gracious protection, desiring to be henceforth theme among the nations of the earth. able discussion of this vast theme, and the steps toward the fulfillment of prophecy as they transpire, will constitute a prolific field dependent only on thee; to thee they have appealed for the rightcousness of their cause; to thee do they now look up for that countefor the religious press; and those evincing the greatest familiarity with the subject will doubtless find their enlightening disquisitions nance and support which thou alone canst sought after with avidity.

under thy nurturing care; give them wisdon in council, and valor in the field ; defeat the Rarey, the horse-tamer, has been spending some time among the Arabs and their horses In Jerusalem he literally "astonished th purposes, O! let the voice of thine unerring justice, sounding in their hearts, constrain them to drop the weapons of war from their unnerved hands in the day of battle. Be thou natives" in subduing the ferocity of the Pa cha's stud, and by an exhibition of his powers over the horse creation before the resident Consuls. His pursuit after the Bedouin camp unnerved hands in the day of battle. Be thou present, O, God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best-and surest foundation that the scene of blood may be speedily closed, that order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored; and truth and instice religion and niety present and flourish. Be thou instice religion and niety present and flourish justice, religion and piety, prevail and flottrish among thy people. Preserve the health of their bodies and the vigor of their minds; shower down on them and the millions they shower down on them and the millions are the temporal blessings as is of very little consequence to a poor man with a large family. Narrowness of mind is frequently the cause of old in the soverally nothings, but Syria last summer, with three fine Arabian horses, which are to be forwarded to the Uniand through the merits of Jesus Christ, the nd through the merits of Jesus Christ, the Son, our Savior. Amen!" OLD HUNDRED.—You may fill your choirs with Sabbath prima donnas, whose darling notes emulate the steeple, and cost most as much—but give us the spirit of the Luthe-ran hymn, sung by young and old together. Mothers have hallowed it; it has gone up from the bed of the saints. The old churches, where generation after generation have wor-shinned and where many scores of the dear the bed of the saints. The old churches, where generation after generation have wor-shipped and whore many scores of the dear dead have been carried and laid before the aldead have been carried and laid before the al-tar, where they gave themselves to God, seem to breathe of "Old Hundred"—from vestibule to tower top; the air is haunted with its spir-it. Think a moment of the assembled com-pany, who have at different times and differ-ent places joined in the familiar time. Throng the different mean of the assembled com-large bay of 7 years. Mr. Rarey says the Arabian horse is smal-ler and less showy than the American horse, but more intelligent and docile to cower top; the air is naunced with its spir-it. Think a moment of the assembled com-pany, who have at different times and differ-ent places joined in the familiar time. Throng upon throng—the strong, the timid, the gen-tle, the brave, the beautiful; the rapt faces all beaming with inspiration of the beavenly and melodicus sounds. "Old Hundred!" king of but more intelligent and docile.

"Fifty cents a piece," politely replied the shopkeeper. "Very well," said the lady, "you may do

To keep your toes from turning in when you walk, you must practice turning them out. This you can do while walking in me up a dozen." The handkerchiefs were cut off and deliveryour room, or in the garden. inferior in national importance to those of ed to the lady, who gave the shopkeeper a Mecca and Medina. Politicians and states three dollar bill.

his promise to return in a fortnight for his bride. He came, and now the manly South-

Probably the surest way to get musquitoes out of your room is to smoke them out. Make a big smoke that will drive you out and they'll follow you. "Beg pardon, ma'am; but I—ah—told you the handkerchiefs were fifty cents a piece, that The Eve of the Law .-- It has become is—ah six dollars per dozen." "To be sure, sir; I understand as much ar so weak, from the want of proper practice in the different courts, that it is going to adverithmetic as that. Six dollars is the price; half of six three that is half price. I think they are cheap enough. Good day, sir." The lady shut the door; the shopkeeper opened his eyes. For five minutes he stood tise for a munil IT Bulwer says that "death often changes version into love." Certainly it does. Mosque of Omar should be in a fair way of passing into the hands of the people to whose fathers the site on which it stands was once nay have an antipathy to swine, and yet love still as a stump, gazing vacantly at the win-dow; then biting his lips, and coloring, very red, he gently removed the card pinned to the pork and sausages. given in an everlasting covenant, is what no red, he gently removed the card pinned to the reader of secular history fifty years ago could handkerchiefs, and resolved to sell no more A skeptic thinks it very extraordinary that an ass once talked like a man. Isn't it still more extraordinary that thousands of men are continually talking like asses ?

even have dreamed would ever have come to pass. Some of the hills around Jerusalem goods at half price. have already become Jewish property, and it Infidelity Dishonest.

A few months since the substance of the

to the husbandman, and yet one season he al-ways harrows her bosom and at another he following dialogue might have been heard : "Do you attend church, sir?" " No. Sir." "Yet I hope you think about religiou things ?" "Well, I did, years ago ; they called me r preacher. I was a member of the church and hought I ought to talk to people as you are doing now; but I gave it all up. I don't be-lieve the Bible now."

"Are you afraid to die?" "No. sir." "Have you ever been apparently near death ?"

"Yes, sir." "Was it when you believed the Bible and pelonged to the church ?" "Yes, sir." "Were you afraid of death then ?" "No, sir: I thought if I died I should go b heaven and be happy." "Suppose you should die now?" "I should be just as well off."

Have you any children ?"

"I have one little girl." Would you prefer that she be trained under the influence of your old or new views." "Oh, I leave her to her mother. She may each ber what she pleases.

"Then your wife is a Christian woman?" "Yes; she holds on."

more. Suppose that child of yours should come to you and say, "Father, which shall I believe, you or mother?" I insist upon a reflower.

pins-according as persons are in the habit of running away from their words. For in-"Well, I suppose I would say, "Go with your mother." — Christian Press.

over sides and stomach. I have seen it tried in fifty instances. It will give almost entire will prey upon the other.

JUPITER.-The admiration of many people the planet Jupitor now presents on clear eve-nings. He looms out in magnificent effulgence. But he becomes still more attractive nine, their domestic, are their first duties. DEATH OF A SUPREME JUDGE.—Peter V. died at Richmond, Va., on the 31st ult. The man confessed the deed. Death of a light of the save dutiful, the rapt faces all the rapt faces

.....

IT A lady who had been supconed as a witness on a trial, asked her husband in great and bashful, unless he is a very conceited fellow. IT Oliver Wendell Holmes says: "Our brains are seventy year clocks. The angel of life winds them up once for all, he closes the doors and gives the key into the hands of the himself, and trying to imagine what others are thinking of him, is certain to be timid

. · · ·

DF The earth is a tender and kind mother

Learn in childhood, if you can, that happiness is not outside, but inside. A good heart and a clear conscience brings happiness;

The following, which is said to be recorded in an Irish grave-yard, is excellent of Here lies the body of John Mound, Lost at sea and never found,

Talent in this country, is the readiest passport from one grade to another; but a good address, allied to boldness, often accom-plishes what the most labored efforts fail to

CA person who is always othinking of no riches or circumstances alone ever do.

angel of resurrection.

"That baby," said the delighted mos

"Yes; she holds on." "Now, sir, I wish to ask you one question ore. Suppose that child of yours should nel, she ought to have called him the sun-

Promises are made fast by nails or pulls her ears.

its kind :

minds will either feed upon their own good, or upon other's evil, and who wanteth the one excited with the brilliant spectacle which trepidation what she should say if the lawyers inquired her age. "Say," he replied; "why tell them you haven't yet reached the years of discretion."