M'Cormic's Reaper and Mower. HIGHLY IMPROVED FOR 1860

CONSTRUCTED from the first on correct principles, it has always been eminently suddecessful, and with its present improvements fully meeting all the requirements of the age, it now defice all competition.

Farmers who may desire it are at liberty to work one of these Machines through the harvest, with any other, and keep and pay for the one preferrance in the Machine is now perfectly balanced, not leaving a pound weight on the horses neets, its execution in reaping and mowing, in both wet and dry, is perfect, it cuts the widestwarth, and as now in use. It is so constructed that the labor of raking off is very much lightened, a castor wheel, on an entire new principle, on the grain side, wholly relieves the horses from the pressure of the machine from strain in turning, and is so arranged that the cutting bat is completely and easily thrown over obstructions while in motion by the driver, without the use of levers and complicated machinery. A very decided and important feature in its improvement consists in its perfect arrangement for separating and elegating the track in moving. sists in its perfect arrangement for separating and cleaning the track in moving.

It is the most simple, most substantial, most durable, and in every way the most complete and rollable Reaper and Mower in the world, and as sinch able Reaper and Mower in the world, and as sitch is WARKANTED.

The Two-Horse Machine (with casty draft for two horses,) cuts a swarth 54 feet wide; and the Four-Horse Machine a foot wider. For particulars address
