SHOCKING FATE OF A LOST CHILD.—The Newark Mercury publishes the following: "Several notices have recently been pub-

"Several notices have recently been pub-lished concerning a child named Thomas Henry Finley, aged four and a half years, who disappeared on July 5, having followed from home the band of the Turners, who held

g picnic that day. His dead body was found on Saturday, near the Kossuth Woods on "the Neck," by Mr. William Stephens, who was gunning. The barking of his dog in a marsh drawing his attention, he went to the spot, and found the body almost imbedded in mud.¹. The child had evidently followed the procession to the vicinity, and having started to return to his home on the hill, over the meadows, he became fastened in the mire, and perished from: exposure and hunger. During the night of the 5th his cries were beard, but nothing unusual was suspected, and no search was undertaken. The eyes and nose of the unfortunate lad had been eaten away, probably by muskrats, and the body was otherwise mutilated. One thumb was in his mouth, showing that in the agony of star-His mouth, showing that in the agony of star-vation the lad had attempted to relieve him-self. He had, perhaps, lingered in this hor-rible condition for two or three days, under a broiling sun by day, and exposed to cold at night, and finally perishing. The case is one of the most affecting that has occurred for a long time. Coroner Craven announced the ared intelligence to the bereaved parents, and sad intelligence to the bereaved parents, and the scene that followed was very touching."
