- Joseph Bailly, of Perry County. Assembly, WILLIAM J. SHEARER, of Carlisle. JOHN POWELL, of Perry County. Prothonotary, BENJAMIN DUKE, of Shippensburg. Clerk of the Courts, JOHN FLOYD, of Upper Allen. Register, JOSEPH C. THOMPSON, of Carlisle. Director of the Poor, GEORGE SHEAFER, of Hanpen. Auditor, ELIAS B. EYSTER, of Dickinson.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

ELECTORS AT LARGE.

Geo. M. Keim, of Berks county. Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

- 1. Fred'k. A. Server. 14. J. Reckhow. 2. Wm. C. Patterson. 15. Geo. D. Jackson. 3. Jos. C. Cook, Jr. 16. J. A. Hill. 4. J. G. Brenner. 17. J. B. Danner. 5. J. W. Jacoby. 18. J. R. Crawford. 6. Charles Kelly. 19. H. N. Lee. 7. O. P. James. 20. J. B. Howell. 8. David Schall. 21. N. P. Fetterman. 9. J. L. Lightner. 22. Samuel Marshall. 10. S. S. Barber. 23. Wm. Book. 11. T. H. Walker. 24. B. D. Hamlin. 12. S. S. Winchester. 25. Gaylord Church. 13. Joseph Lambach.

Resolution adopted by the State Executive Committee, August 9, 1860.

Resolved, That the Democratic Electoral Ticket be headed with the name of Stephen A. Douglas or John C. Breckinridge as an elector at large, and in the event of the success of said ticket, if the greater number of votes shall have been cast for Stephen A. Douglas, then the vote of the electoral college of the State shall be cast for Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnson, for President and Vice President; but if for John C. Breckinridge, then for John C. Breckinridge and Joseph Lane, for the same offices. If the vote of Pennsylvania cannot elect the candidates for whom a majority of the votes are cast, and it can elect any man running for the office of President of the United States claiming to be a Democrat, then the vote of the electoral college shall be cast for that candidate. If it will not elect either of the Democrats for whom it is cast, or any of the Democrats who were voted for in the States, then the votes shall be cast for the candidate who has the majority of the votes of the State; and that the Chairman of this Committee be instructed to obtain from the gentlemen on the Democratic Electoral Ticket of the State their several and distinct pledges of acquiescence in the foregoing resolution, and to report the result of his action in the premises at the next meeting of the Committee, to be held on the day of Democratic Pole Raising!

The Democrats of Southampton and adjoining townships, will raise a Pole at the public House of Geo. W. Coffey, in Leesburg, on Saturday, October 6, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Col. Chesnut, Dr. Meyer, and others, will address the meeting. Good music will be in attendance. Turn out, Democrats, turn out!

We would call the attention of our readers to the fact that PHILIP ARNOLD has just opened a new and splendid stock of Dry Goods, which he has selected with great care in the Eastern cities. All who want good bargains should give him a call.

We invite attention to the address of Hon. Wm. H. WELSH, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee of Pennsylvania. It is a thoughtful and earnest appeal to the Democracy of this Commonwealth to be "up and doing" in this trying hour of our country's history. It deserves to be well pondered by every patriotic citizen of our State.

OUR COUNTY FAIR commences on the 10th and closes on the 12th inst. We learn that the horse-stalls have been nearly all rented, and that the exhibition of cattle, sheep, &c., will be very large. The houses have been cleaned, the track put in order, and everything gives promise of a successful exhibition.

FAIR.—The Fair and Festival of the Empire Hook and Ladder Company, he remembered, will open on the 9th inst., in Rheem's Hall. We hope our citizens will attend; and not only attend, but "shell out" their quarters liberally. The Empire is a very efficient Company, and deserves encouragement.

DEMOCRATIC LADIES OF CARLISLE.—We desire your assistance in giving eclat to the Foster Mass Meeting. Make up wreaths, then, and have them ready to hand out to the various delegations, during the moving of the procession, which will take place an hour or two previous to the meeting. Your smiles and your wreaths will do much to enliven the occasion. We feel sure our suggestion will be heartily responded to by our ladies.

The Herald speaks of the "scathing rebuke" we received at the hands of Jons C. Knyble, Esq., at the late Republican meeting. Let us assure our neighbor that no Harrisburg gambler has either the courage or capacity to rebuke us. Nor shall a paid-for mouth like Schurz put language in our mouths we never used. No, sir, gamblers and paid mercenaries cannot and shall not malign us.

BEWARE OF ROORBACKS! The Opposition are desperate and unscrupulous. Beware of eleven-hour stories and "last cards."

DEMOCRATIC

MASS MEETING!

FOSTER AND VICTORY!

TURN OUT! TURN OUT!

ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1860.

IN CARLISLE.

The undersigned, members of the Democratic Standing Committee of Cumberland county, would cordially invite all their brethren to meet in COUNTY MASS MEETING, in Carlisle, on SATURDAY, October 6, 1860, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of reasserting their loyalty to the time-honored principles of the Democratic party, and to express our confidence in the Democracy and integrity of HENRY D. FOSTER, the nominee of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania for the office of Governor, and to pledge our united exertions to place him in that gubernatorial chair which his talents and accomplishments would so much adorn.

It is not intended that the subject of the Presidency shall be discussed on this occasion, the object of the meeting being to promote the election of our candidate for Governor and our local tickets. We appeal, then, to our Democratic brethren, to turn out in their strength on the day above named. It will be the first and last grand rally of the Democracy of Cumberland. Let it be a rally worthy of yourselves and your principles.

- Peter Monyer, Geo. W. Jacobs, A. M. DeLuff, Philip Zeigler, Wm. M. Johnson, Alex. Cornman, W. B. Bratton, P. W. Quigley, J. M. Harper, Jno. B. Church, Jos. Brown, J. G. Kotterman, Geo. Kissinger, A. Killian, Sam'l Spinger, Thos. Stough, J. D. Bowman, W. A. Middleton, Geo. W. Fisher, Sam'l Parks, Levan H. Orris, Wm. Griffin, Jacob Kost, John Scamer, Thos. P. Blair, Wm. M. Johnson, Adam Duke, D. Wherry, Wm. Samsenman, L. B. Ewalt, D. Boyer, P. Comroy, G. W. Mumper, T. Strohm, Wm. Ruth, Thos. Bradley, T. C. Scouller, Adam Gummell, O. H. Belne, David Knoderer, Wm. Kerr, Jr., Sam'l Beeton, J. M. Carothers, T. A. Liggett, County Committee.

The Tonnage Tax.

We noticed that a number of the Republican papers are publishing that "Henry D. Foster is one of the solicitors of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and therefore is supposed to be favorable to the repeal of the tonnage tax." A lie from first to last. Mr. Foster never was a Solicitor for the Railroad, and has said openly that he opposed the repeal of the tonnage tax. The Harrisburg gambler and spouter, JON C. KUNDE, however, is a Solicitor for the Railroad, and it is generally believed that he is well paid by that corporation for making speeches for CURTIS. Jons never works without a quid pro quo, and his "deals" and "shuffles" are all made that he may pocket the "almighty dollar."

WILLIAM J. SHEARER, our candidate for various townships, has said, over and over again, in his various speeches, that in the event of his election, he would oppose, with all his might, any attempt to repeal the tonnage tax—and this has been his position for years. But, yet, notwithstanding all this, we have a calumniator in this town who, not long since, declared in a speech that "SHEARER favored the repeal of this tax." A man who declares before he leaves town that he intends at a township meeting, to assert this lie, and then does assert it, deserves to have his ears cropped.

So far as the editor of the Volunteer is concerned, we are willing to take in explanation, the statement he made to Carl Schurz, that he had never read the speech, and believing the extract to be true, published it as such. Is the Herald really demented, or what does it mean? The editor intimates that the extract we published from Mr. Schurz's speech was not true, and yet the same number of the Herald contains Schurz's speech in full, and it appears the extract we published is the same, word for word, as the Herald publishes! Not true, indeed! It is true—just as we published it—just as the Herald published it. Mr. Schurz himself said he used the language, but intended it as language for Mr. DOUGLAS' mouth (how honorable!) and not his own.—The Herald cannot deny that Schurz used the language, for he said himself that he did use it.

MEETING AT CHURCHTOWN.—The Democratic meeting at Churchtown, on Saturday last, was large beyond expectation, and great enthusiasm prevailed. The meeting was organized by the selection of the following officers:—President, CHRISTIAN GLEIM Vice Presidents, Dr. Jas. Irvine, J. B. Burnett, M. Bricker, Henry Karns, P. S. Miller, P. Baker, Capt. J. Messinger, Jno. Paul, C. Belthover, D. H. Voglesong, Secretaries, J. W. Leidig, G. W. Pressel, Jas. A. Sibbett. After being thus organized, the meeting was addressed by Messrs. Miller, Ruby, Gilfillen and Newsham, of Carlisle. The speeches of these gentlemen were well received, and the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for "Foster and Victory!"

WHAT SWAPS AND CHANGES.—The Herald and the American plead for Mr. Schurz, and say he is but exercising his constitutional right, in delivering Republican speeches. True, gentlemen, true. This is what we said four years ago—that an adopted citizen had rights as well as native citizens. But, how did you meet this declaration then? By derisive laughter. Had Carl Schurz dared to speak in Carlisle four years ago, his life would have been in danger, for the very men who are now his apologists were the sworn enemies of all foreigners. Oh, consistency!

Sound the Bugle Blast!

Te yute, te toot! te yute, te toot! te toot! te toot!

FOSTER & VICTORY!!

Men of Cumberland county!—the stake for which the Democracy of Pennsylvania is fighting, is the preservation of this glorious Union! Oh! what glory will encircle our standard if success should crown our efforts. It is a sublime struggle. What patriot will refuse to enlist beneath the folds of a banner carried at the head of the legions who are struggling for such a prize?

Arouse, then, patriotic men of Pennsylvania, and join us in the most sacred and holy cause!

Remember, our Union is imperilled! Every vote cast for HENRY D. FOSTER is a vote cast in favor of the preservation of the Union! Old men—you whose locks have been whitened in the cause of Democracy—we invoke you to buckle on your armor, to come forth in your might, and by your example, fire the hearts of the young men, and urge them to action!

Young men, remember the fearful responsibility that rests upon your shoulders! Up! up! we beseech you! The salvation of the Union depends upon your efforts! Oh! what a glorious—what a sacred cause in which to labor! Henry D. Foster must be elected! He can be elected, if you do your duty. Pennsylvania is the battle-ground—our noble old Commonwealth is, in 1860, what Trenton was during the dark days of the revolution—the ground on which is to be fought the great battle for the preservation of the Union! Let us, then, render ourselves immortal by turning back the black tide of treason and disunion that threatens its destruction!

Foster's election, we repeat, will save the Union! Patriots, to the rescue! Sound the bugle blast: "Foster and the Union!" Up! oh! Democrats of the old Keystone, or be forever fallen!

The Foster Mass Meeting, ON SATURDAY NEXT,

Will be a rouser, and no mistake. The following eloquent speakers will certainly be here:

- Hon. Wm. H. WITTE, Philadelphia. CHAS. W. CARLISLE, Esq., " THOS. M. BRIDLE, Esq., " A. L. SPOWEN, Esq., " Gen. Foster will come, if possible. Now, Democrats of Cumberland, we appeal to you to turn out in your strength. It is, in the language of the call, "the first and last grand rally—let it be one worthy of yourselves and your principles."

Come in waggon, bearing flags and muskets! Come in carriages! Come on horseback! Come on foot! Hundreds will be there from adjoining counties. Let us see, fellow-Democrats of Cumberland, if we cannot beat the late meeting of our opponents ten to one. Let us see whether Carl Schurz, a Red Republican foreigner, will dare again to dictate to us how to vote. Come, from the mountains and the valleys, the boroughs and the villages! Come from your work-shops and your farms! Come, farmers! Come, mechanics! Come, laborers! Come, professional men! COME ONE AND ALL!

A GRAND RALLY.

The meeting of the Foster Club, at Raymond's Hotel, on the evening of Sept. 26, was by far the largest we have yet had in Carlisle. It reminded us of the meetings of 1856, for the enthusiasm was quite as great. Eloquent and forcible addresses were delivered by Messrs. Gilfillen, Newsham, Williams, (a voting student of Dickinson College), Miller and Shearer.

Keep up the fire, boys!—your enemies are asleep in your possession. A few days more, and the day is ours! Work on!—Foster is gaining strength every hour. His speeches are telling with astonishing effect. Democrats, let your combined efforts be directed towards his election. Foster's election will turn back the tide of Black Republicanism—overwhelm the Disunionists, North and South, and pave the way for an easy Democratic triumph in November next. Up, then, ye gallant sons of Carlisle and Cumberland county, and strike for Foster and the Union!

Democrats, poll every vote! For the sake of your children, come out and vote! For the sake of your country, vote! Vote, every man of you! Vote for Foster and the Union!

Wm. J. SHEARER, Esq.—The Perry County Democrat, the old organ of the Democracy of "little Perry," pays the following compliment to our townsman, Mr. SHEARER, one of the candidates for Assembly in this district:—"WILLIAM J. SHEARER, Esq., one of the Democratic candidates for Assembly in this district, paid our county a visit last week.—He made many warm friends during his stay and will receive the full party vote in this county. Being a Democrat, regularly nominated, of fair talents, affable in his manners, a native of this county, and popular here and at home, we regard his election as one of the certainties of the campaign. His colleagues on the ticket, Col. Power, will shortly visit Cumberland, where he will receive a warm welcome. Cumberland nobly sustained the Colonel last fall, and will do so again. His friends in this county are determined to return the compliment if it be in their power to do so at the coming election."

FORNEY'S "PRESS."

FORNEY'S "PRESS," of the 24th ult., contained an article which, we presume, was intended as a very severe criticism on our course as editor of the Volunteer. The article, we take it for granted, is Col. FORNEY'S own, for we doubt whether either of his henchmen is capable of giving vent to so much vindictiveness, spleen, and blackguardism. The Colonel must have had a very tough breakfast for his breakfast the morning he indited this delectable piece of composition. We will not reply to it in the same spirit. Respect for our readers will not permit us to defile our columns by the use of so many choice and disgusting epithets.

The offence we have committed, in the opinion of this Militia Colonel, is our denunciation of those who, with impious hands, have dared to strike down the regular Democratic Electoral ticket, and substitute in its stead a spurious one, which they dominate "the straight-out Douglas ticket." We have said that Col. FORNEY was the leading spirit in this conspiracy against the Democracy of Pennsylvania. We say so still. We said that FORNEY was doing more to elevate Mr. LASCOS to the Presidency than any Republican editor in our State. We say so still. But, to a few brief extracts from FORNEY'S very dignified article. He says:—"We can make allowances for the difficulties under which any honest man must labor, who attempts to conduct a Democratic newspaper while holding an office under the present corrupt Administration of the General Government. His interest is always in conflict with his judgment—his pocket with his principles—his official obligations with his duties to his readers. No man in the State has been more generously indulged by the people around him than the very Mr. BRATTON who conducts the Carlisle Volunteer. In order to show him to retain his office, they have charitably submitted to his support of the worst acts of Mr. BRECKINRIDGE and his Cabinet. In order to show him to retain his office, he betrayed his principles on the Lexington question, for what is generally supposed to have been a compromise to those who would not follow his example."

Now, is not this cool, considering that it was FORNEY, a recent and traitor to the Democratic party, and who is now reveling in the emoluments of the fat office he received from the Black Republicans, in consideration of his desertion of the Democratic party? Why, the crimson blush of shame must have mounted to his temples when he wrote the above paragraph. And he appears to think, too, that the people of this county have submitted to our support of the National Administration, merely to please us, and retain us in office! Oh, fade, valiant Colonel. In making such an assertion you write yourself down either a knave or a fool, or both.

Another extract:—"Among those who have been favored by his (BRATTON'S) professions of friendship is the editor of THE PRESS. Inclination and old associations led us to believe these professions, and induce us to pass over his unflinching subservience to the tyrant at Washington. In days gone by it was our pleasure to serve him, and in later times to plead in his behalf to those who objected to his libels and his inconsistencies."

The above recalls to mind old recollections. We recollect when we spent days and nights and weeks to put in our little might to secure FORNEY honorable and lucrative positions. We have advanced his claims for every position he ever sought, except the one he now holds. We are glad to say, too, that Col. E. has always professed to be our friend, but it is painful to us to see him now to accuse us with a "want of gratitude." Such slanders is unworthy even FORNEY. We despise the despicable wretch, who after he betrays the party and the men who made him, to hear him whine about his former friendships and complain of the "ingratitude" of those whose self-respect will not allow them to endorse the course of a man who has been purchased, body and soul, by a party he despises in his heart, but which he panders to for the purpose of enriching himself. If, in our whole country, there is one man more than another who displays "his utter want of gratitude," that man is the Clerk of the Republican House of Representatives—now, for another extract:—"Mr. BRATTON, like the rest of his school, conceals the truth in order to assist the wrong. While denouncing the straight Douglas electoral ticket, and calling upon the friends of Douglas to vote for the enemies of DOUGLAS on the fusion ticket, he is dishonest enough to refuse to state that the straight Douglas electoral ticket not only meets the warm approval of STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, but was absolutely appointed at his earnest request. Will this man, who has just been elected to the Senate, because DOUGLAS is for the straight ticket?"

The assertion that the "straight DOUGLAS electoral ticket was appointed by Judge DOUGLAS' earnest request, we venture to say is not true. What authority has FORNEY to make such an assertion? We doubt very much whether he has the confidence of Judge DOUGLAS. Certainly, in this State, DOUGLAS' most devoted friends will have nothing to do with FORNEY. They avoid him, purposely, because they know and feel that FORNEY is under strong suspicion. No, sir—Judge DOUGLAS did not counsel the breaking down of the regular ticket in this State. It is a calumny upon his character as a Democrat and as a man.

Another extract from FORNEY'S article and we are done:—"Mr. BRATTON flies the flag of DOUGLAS and JOHNSON, but his colors, like his statements, are false. The pirate who goes forth to ravage and to burn, to rob and to murder, unfurls the flag of some civilized nation in order more effectively to accomplish his fiendish purposes; and so with the postmaster of the Carlisle Volunteer. The name of DOUGLAS printed at the head of his column is a deesy and a cheat."

It is the common trick of the burglar, when hotly pursued, to cry out "stop thief!" that he may draw attention from himself. So it is with FORNEY. When he says that we placed the name of Judge DOUGLAS at the head of our paper for the purpose of deception, he utters what he knows is false. What object could we have had in view in raising the name of DOUGLAS to our mast-head, and then secretly opposing him? When, as a member of the Reading Convention, we voted for several DOUGLAS men as Delegates to Carlisle, was that a "cheat" too? When, last winter, with one exception, we published every speech that Judge D. delivered in the Senate, and thus created an early and a strong feeling for him in this county, was that also a "cheat"? No, FORNEY, you know better, but your malignant heart and the duty you owe to the Republican cause prompts you to falsify.

Now, farrowell, JOHN W. FORNEY. You have intimated that our long personal friendship must close. So be it. Our intimacy commenced in boyhood, and we believed it sincere. But we were mistaken. We found a viper beneath the rose; we found dishonesty when we expected honor; black-hearted treachery when we expected truth and sincerity. "Dinna ye hear the slogan?"

THE ISSUE FAIRLY STATED.

Is the Negro Equal with the White Man?

The object of this article is to show that the above is one of the issues fairly presented to the people of Pennsylvania and the United States in the present Gubernatorial and Presidential contest—that the Republicans maintain the affirmative of this issue, advocating the equality of the white and black races, and that the Democrats and supporters of BELL and EVERETT maintain the negative.

The Republicans assume high authority for the position they occupy in maintaining the equality of the races—nothing less than the Declaration of Independence, and this sacred and venerated instrument is referred to by their candidates and orators as directly at variance with the institution of slavery. Allusion was made to the Declaration of Independence as sanctioning this doctrine of equality of the races at the late mass meeting in this borough, by Mr. JUNKIN, the candidate for Congress, Col. CURTIS, the candidate for Governor, and last and not of all, that wandering fugitive, CARL SCHURZ. The institution of slavery, say the Republican orators, is in direct conflict with that clause in the Declaration of Independence, which declares that "all men are created equal."

This clause, we say, was cited by Col. CURTIS, Mr. JUNKIN, and CARL SCHURZ, to show the equality of the white and black races.—We have before us the speech of SCHURZ, published in the Herald Supplement of the 23d ult., in which this doctrine of the equality of the negro and white races is attempted to be sustained from the clause quoted from the Declaration of Independence. That we may not do injustice to this fugitive orator, if report is true, by the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania, for the next little sum of $7,000, to persuade the honest Germans of Pennsylvania to be negro worshippers, and vote for CURTIS and LASCOS, we will briefly quote from SCHURZ'S Springfield speech, delivered to the Abolitionists of Massachusetts, to show that he considers a negro equal to a white man.

This speech of SCHURZ was in reply to the argument of Judge DOUGLAS, who held that the clause in the Declaration of Independence referred to the white race alone and not to the African—that the characters, motives and conduct of the signers of the Declaration could not be vindicated on any other hypothesis—most of whom held, at that time, the African race in servitude, for in 1776 slavery existed in almost every State in the Union, and had not been abolished even in Pennsylvania.—But, the immoderate CARL becomes indignant and very wrongly and abusive of Judge DOUGLAS, because he dares to insinuate that THOMAS JEFFERSON and CHARLES CANNON and BARNABAS RUTLEDGE and all the other signers of the Declaration and sages of the Revolution, when in that instrument they declared that "all men are created equal," they did not intend to put themselves upon an equality with their negro servants.

But to prove our position, we will advance a few extracts from the speech of this Dutch Abolitionist, as rare a bird in Pennsylvania as a white abolitionist or black slave, and had to be imported into our good old Dutch Commonwealth from the prairies of Wisconsin, at $7,000 for the campaign, to persuade the honest Germans that they are on a perfect equality with negroes!

CARL becomes not only indignant but eloquent at the slanderous imputation of Judge DOUGLAS that old THOMAS JEFFERSON, when he wrote the Declaration of Independence, did not intend to say that his servant Sambo was created equal with himself, and bursts forth in the following sublime oratory:—"This is the way Mr. Douglas wants you to read and understand the proud pages of American history. That is the kind of history with which he finds it necessary to prop his mongrel doctrine of popular sovereignty.—That is what he calls vindicating the character and motives and the conduct of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Thus he did not blush to slander JEFFERSON, who when speaking of his country, meant the world; and when speaking of his fellow-citizens, meant mankind."

And this is the mode in which this important German vindicates the memory of THOMAS JEFFERSON from the slanderous abuse of Judge DOUGLAS. Judge DOUGLAS affirms that when JEFFERSON declared "all men were created equal," he intended the white race and not the African. CARL SCHURZ denounces this as a slander upon JEFFERSON, "who," he says, "when speaking of his fellow-citizens, meant mankind," including of course Cuffy, Sambo and Caesar, and the entire colored population. Now, we submit, who is the slanderer of JEFFERSON? Judge DOUGLAS, who vindicates the memory of this great statesman from placing the colored upon an equality with the white race, or CARL SCHURZ, who declares that the author of the Declaration of Independence, meant mankind?—thus necessarily including the sable Africans?

Again, CARL SCHURZ thus apostrophizes the spirits of the committee who framed and reported the Declaration of Independence:—"I see the illustrious committee of five rise from their graves, at their head THOMAS JEFFERSON, and I hear him say to Mr. DOUGLAS, 'Sir, you may abuse us as much as you please, but have the goodness to spare us with your vindictive oratory of our character and motives.'" Look at the brazen effrontery of this wandering fugitive Abolitionist. He dares to put such language in the mouth of THOMAS JEFFERSON, and addressed to one of the greatest of American statesmen. He, indeed, attempts to vindicate the character of JEFFERSON from the "slanders" of Judge DOUGLAS, and this by making JEFFERSON say to an Abolitionist as SCHURZ himself!

With entire propriety might we represent the spirit of THOMAS JEFFERSON addressing SCHURZ in his own language, thus:—"Sir, you may abuse us as much as you please, but have the goodness to spare us with your vindictive oratory of our character and motives," by asserting that the Declaration of Independence maintains the equality of the negro with the white man. And this, fellow-citizens, is the entertainment to which you have been invited in Pennsylvania, to listen to the slanders of this itinerant Abolitionist, who, Judas-like, has been hired by the Republican State Committee, not for thirty, but for seven thousand pieces of silver, to traverse our Commonwealth, slandering the memory of the immortal JEFFERSON by declaring that in the Declaration of Independence, JEFFERSONS ignored the distinction of races, and placed the African upon an equality with white men.

We have thus shown the Republican doctrine of negro equality as advocated by their candidates and hired Abolition orators—by CARL SCHURZ, the great Magnus Ambold of Republicanism, the essence and embodiment of its principles, and who dares to pronounce Judge DOUGLAS the slanderer of JEFFERSON because he declared that in the clause of the Declaration of Independence that declares "all men are created equal," the African race was not intended to be included by its author.

The Democratic doctrine, as we understand it, is that contended for by Judge DOUGLAS, that the Declaration of Independence never was intended by its author as sanctioning the doctrine of the equality of the white and black races. If the negro is created the equal of the white man, he ought to be treated as his equal—we ought to make him a companion, and take him to our table and our bed; we ought to give him the right of suffrage, subject him to military duty, and make him eligible to any and all the offices in our republic. This is the necessary sequence of the Republican doctrine of negro equality, and hence, in the States where the government has been in the hands of the Republicans for some time, as New York and Massachusetts, we find the right of suffrage conferred upon negroes. And in Massachusetts, the most thoroughly Republican State in the Union, intermarriages between the white and black races are said to be more frequent than in all the other States of the Union combined!

The Democratic party, as we understand its principles on this subject, hold that the negro is inferior to the white race; that he never was intended by his Creator to be placed upon an equality—that for some great and wise purpose, which it is not necessary now to investigate, the Creator never intended the negro to be made a companion and equal by white men. Hence we find in his creation, certain indelible marks of inferiority stamped upon his lineage. His black skin, woolly head, flat nose, long heels, and that strong and peculiar aroma so offensive to the nasal organ of white men, and his improvident nature and incapacity to provide a comfortable livelihood, all designate the negro as inferior in the grade of humanity to the white man.

But yet, CARL SCHURZ, in his great speech to the Abolitionists of Massachusetts, republished in a Supplement to one of the Republican papers of this town, tells us that if the Declaration "that all men are created equal" does not include the African race, then according to the theory enunciated by Judge DOUGLAS in his Springfield speech, "our Declaration of Independence is a diplomatic dodge, no longer the sacred code of the rights of man, but a hypocritical piece of special pleading, drawn up by a batch of artful pettifoggers, who when speaking of the rights of man, meant the privileges of a set of aristocratic slaveholders, but styled it the rights of man in order to throw dust in the eyes of the world, and to inveigle noble-hearted souls into lending them aid and assistance."—"Your boasted Revolutionary sires, no longer heroes and sages, but accomplished humbuggers and hypocrites, who said one thing and meant another, and obtained false and money and assistance and sympathy on false pretences."—"Your great American Revolution, no longer the most impudent imposition ever practiced upon the world." With what force and propriety might we portray the consequences of the doctrine of negro equality, taught by this hired Abolition lecturer, and described in his own language the result of denying his favorite dogma of negro equality. We might represent CARL as enforcing the truth of his great Abolition creed, thus:—"I tell you, my German brethren of Pennsylvania, unless you will admit that the negro is created equal with the German, English, Irish, French, or the rest of mankind who wear white skins, and are willing to receive and associate with them on terms of perfect equality, then your Declaration of Independence is a diplomatic dodge, drawn up by artful pettifoggers, to throw dust in the eyes of the world."—"I tell you further, unless you are willing to take Cuffy and Sambo to your bed and your table, and take them into your society and companionship as you would those of your own color and nation, then are your boasted sires no longer heroes and sages, but accomplished humbuggers and hypocrites, who said one thing and meant another."—"And I tell you further unless you are willing that your sons should 'intermarry with venches, and your daughters be committed to the embraces of sable husbands, as is done in Massachusetts where I made my great Abolition speech, published in the Carlisle Herald Supplement, then your great American Revolution is no longer the champion of universal principles, but a mean Yankee trick, a wooden nutmeg—the most impudent imposition ever practiced upon the world."

Verily this CARL SCHURZ is the most impudent imposition that ever attempted to lure the good people of Pennsylvania upon the necessity of making equals of the negro race.

And yet this same CARL SCHURZ, who is said to have "left his country for his country's good," and who had the brazen-faced impudence to declare his abominable abolition doctrines of negro equality in our county, is the travelling companion and co-ordinator with Col. CURTIS and BENJ. F. JUNKIN, the Republican candidates for Governor and Congress, and hired by the Republican State Committee to lecture the Germans in their own language; for he stated publicly that his part of the programme, assigned him by the State Committee, was to speak in German to the German citizens.

We have stated the Republican doctrine of negro equality fairly and impartially, as expounded by their abolition champion, CARL SCHURZ, who travels in company, and speaks from the same stand, with Col. CURTIS and BENJ. F. JUNKIN, the Republican candidate for Congress in this District.

A word in conclusion. We say to all who believe with CARL SCHURZ in the doctrine of negro equality, and placing the black race upon an equality with white men—vote for CURTIS and JUNKIN. On the contrary, all who repudiate what we consider this Republican heresy, who believe in the Democratic doctrine that the African is an inferior race of the human species, never intended by their Creator to occupy a position of equality with white men; who are unwilling to confer upon the negro the right of suffrage, or have them sit in the halls of State or National legislation; who would be unwilling to be governed by a black Governor or President, or treat them as equals, and have them for sons or daughters-in-law, as they have in Massachusetts—all such vote for Gen. FOSTER and Maj. BAILEY, the Democratic candidates for Governor and Congress—men who repudiate the Republican doctrine of negro equality, and will protect our State from the shameful spectacle of negro suffrage, and placing the African in our Legislative Assembly upon an equality with white men.

THE STATE, DISTRICT, AND COUNTY TICKETS.

Democrats of Cumberland!—TUESDAY NEXT is the day of the election. Are you all ready? It is important that every Democratic voter should be out. If your vote is out, we will give FOSTER 400 or 500 majority in Cumberland, and elect our County Ticket by a similar majority. Up, then, and leave not a voter behind!

IMPORTANCE OF OUR TICKET. Laying aside the Presidential question for the present, we have a Governor to elect, and on this question the Democratic party are thoroughly united. Besides a Governor, we have a Member of Congress, Legislature, and county officers to elect. This National, State and county affairs combine to give interest and importance to the October election. The Republicans have nominated a full ticket of their own, and are determined to elect their ticket.

GENERAL ANTI-SLAVERY.—Gen. FOSTER, for the office of Governor, we have on the one side HENRY D. FOSTER, and on the other ASHMEAD G. CURTIS. Whoever knows full of these men, and is candid enough to admit the truth, must confess that any comparison that might be instituted between them would make to the advantage of FOSTER. He has a reputation for honesty which no amount of calumny could taint with the least suspicion. His solid talents are acknowledged by all. He has learned to know the wants and wishes of the people by long and intimate association with them as a private citizen and as a public man. And although he has never hunted public station, he has served long enough in the councils of the State and of the Nation, to have become perfectly familiar with the transaction of public affairs.

CONGRESS AND LEGISLATURE. Gen. JOSEPH BAILEY is the nominee for Congress. He has been an active, zealous and consistent Democrat from his youth up, and has heretofore filled positions of a public character, having served in the Legislature, been State Treasurer, &c. He has the capacity to make a useful and efficient member of Congress, and will, we feel assured, devote himself to the interests of his District. The Legislature, we have Wm. J. SHEARER of this county, and JOHN POWELL of Perry—both good men and true, who will, we feel satisfied, make faithful and honest legislators.

COUNTY TICKET. Besides Congressmen and members of Assembly, we have five County Officers to elect, and all will assist, we feel satisfied, that while the Democratic ticket has claims on the Republican ticket, that should secure it success by a large majority. We repeat, then, that the only duty required is for the voter to turn out on the day of Friday, OCTOBER 6, and cast his vote for the ticket which we believe can be devised to produce confusion, by the circulation of falsehoods on the day of the election. Democrats, be not deceived by Black Republican demagogues, who will approach you but to deceive you. Stand by your own colors, and elect your ticket. You see it, and we feel confident you will.

The Tonnage Tax Again.

BE WARNED IN TIME.

ANDREW G. CURTIN, was Gov. POLLOCK'S chief official adviser, and Gov. POLLOCK SIGNED A BILL TO REPEAL THE TONNAGE TAX, and "all other corporations taxes upon the Pennsylvania Railroad!" The people were saved from this result only because the Supreme Court decided the latter clause (and therefore the whole section was unenforced) to be unconstitutional! CURTIN approved that act of Gov. POLLOCK, for he never disavowed it. It is fair to tell it for granted, then, that if he is elected Governor he will sign a bill to repeal the Tonnage Tax, and would use the power of his office to have it passed through the Legislature. Do beware in time,
