

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

JOHN B. BRATTON, Editor & Proprietor.

CARLEISLE, PA., NOV. 1, 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT, STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HERSHEL V. JOHNSON, OF GEORGIA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, ELECTORS AT LARGE.

Geo. M. KEIM, of Berks county. RICHARD VAUX, of Philadelphia.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

- 1. Fred'k. A. Servor. 14. I. Reckhow. 2. Wm. C. Patterson. 15. Geo. D. Jackson. 3. Jos. Crockett. 16. J. A. Ahl. 4. P. O. Bremer. 17. J. B. Danner. 5. G. W. Jacoby. 18. J. R. Crawford. 6. Charles Kelly. 19. H. N. Lee. 7. O. P. James. 20. J. B. Howell. 8. David Schall. 21. N. P. Fetterman. 9. J. L. Lightner. 22. Samuel Marshall. 10. S. S. Barber. 23. Wm. Book. 11. T. H. Walker. 24. B. D. Hamlin. 12. S. S. Winchester. 25. Gaylord Church. 13. Joseph Laubach.

Rally, Democrats of Carlisle.

A meeting of all the Democrats of Carlisle and vicinity, who are opposed to Black Republicanism and the election of Lincoln, will be held at Gill's Hotel, West High street, on Saturday evening next, November 3, at 7 o'clock.

Democratic Meeting.

The Democrats of Southampton and the adjoining townships, will hold a meeting at Leesburg, on Saturday next, at 4 o'clock. William J. Shearer, Esq., and others, will address the meeting. Turn out Democrats! James Chesnut, George W. Coffey, John S. Dougherty, Committee.

All persons having Guardianship or Administration accounts to settle for December Court, must have them filed in the Register's Office on or before the 13th of November.

On our first page will be found an address from Hon. WILLIAM H. WELSH, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, to which we would call attention. There are also on the same page several other political articles worthy a careful perusal.

Those knowing themselves indebted to us will much oblige us by bringing along the cash. We have our debts to pay, and in order to do so, and thereby make an honest living, our patrons must pay us. Little amounts, scattered all over creation, nearly, and that's just what we should have now to have our just dues. We trust our patrons will heed this notice, and save us from writing another of quite a different character.

Election, Tuesday, November 6.

ELECTORAL TICKETS.—The genuine Democratic Electoral Ticket is now printed, and may be had at this office. We shall be happy to supply all our friends, and would advise them to get their tickets in time, so as to guard against being cheated by the spurious ticket that has been put in circulation.

BALTIMORE COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGERY.

The Chair of Practice of Dental Surgery, made vacant by the decease of Dr. CHAPIN A. HARRIS, the late President of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, has been filled by the appointment of Dr. FERDINAND J. S. GORRAS, formerly of Carlisle. This gentleman has been for some years connected with this Institution as one of its Demonstrators. He thus brings to the discharge of his new duties, in addition to his skill as an operator, much experience as a teacher. Professor AUGUST, the Dean of the Faculty, has been assigned the duty of teaching the Principles of Dental Science, which formed part of the Chair of the late President.

BEEF CATTLE.—During the last ten days, a large number of droves of fine beef cattle have passed through the southern section of our borough, on their way to the Philadelphia and New York markets. These droves come principally from the Western States, but many are from Western Virginia and Pennsylvania. Our butchers have secured a goodly number of fine beves, and we may expect to have in our market, during the winter, prime beef, and at reasonable prices. Many droves of stock cattle have also arrived here, and home speculators have purchased a great number of the finest of these cattle for the purpose of supplying the neighboring farmers.

FORSEME TIME PAST, BEEF in the Carlisle market has been unusually high, and of rather inferior quality, although the butchers have been buying from drovers at very low prices. Give us good, prime beef at reasonable rates, and our word for it, the sales and profits of the victuallers will be greatly enlarged.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END.—The Philadelphia stock market, on Friday, was very heavy, and prices generally had a downward tendency. So says the North American. In New York there was a great depression in stocks also, notwithstanding the effort on the part of the Republicans to toss them up until after the November election. The fact is, the low rates at which the government loan was taken, and the startling fact that there was no bidder south of Washington, the depressed state of the stock market, and the unwillingness to invest in any securities, notwithstanding the great superabundance of capital, indicate clearly that men are beginning to look at this as the "beginning of the end." We fear that the capital and business of the North will yet find the nigger a bad investment.

MANAGERS IN BERKS COUNTY, PA.—The Kutztown (Pa.) Geister Zeit says that a rich bed of Manganese has recently been discovered upon the land of John Kohler, near that borough.

PROGRESS OF THE "IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT."—The white and black boys of Boston have got to stoning each other on the Commons.

The astute and valiant "Captain" of the Herald, attempts to make light of our remarks in the Volunteer of last week, on "the great issue" about to be decided by the people. He thinks, or affects to think (for the "Captain" is so very funny, and so much inclined to indulge in sparkling wit that it is next to impossible to know when he is in earnest), that we are "troubled with dreams and night-mares," and, in the goodness of his heart, he proscribes the kind of "pills" we should take to relieve us of "the blues." Now, notwithstanding we appreciate the kind intentions of the "Captain," we must nevertheless inform him that when we stand in need of a dose of pills, we prefer to have them prescribed to us by a regular "Dr.," and not by a "snob." "Every man to his trade," is very safe advice, and our neighbor ought to profit by it.

But, badinage aside—it is too much the habit of Abolition demagogues to sneer at the warnings of those who believe our country is in danger, and the peace and tranquility of our people in jeopardy from this everlasting "nigger question." It is too much the habit, we repeat, of these conspirators to attempt to make light and talk funny about the peril of our Union. The Herald says the "Republican party stands pledged to preserve the Union." But LINCOLN, the candidate of that half-party for the Presidency, says "this country cannot endure half slave and half free." And SUMNER declares that the mission of the Republican party "is to humble the South and root out slavery." Now, if the Herald is honest in its declarations, and desires to "preserve the Union," why don't it denounce the treasonable words of LINCOLN and SUMNER? Or, is our neighbor of the opinion that the Union can be preserved by humbling the South and rooting out slavery? Is this the manner of protecting the Union? Do tell.

The present campaign in the North by the Republicans, has been conducted upon the principle—if principle it can be called—that the South shall have no say in regard to the settlement of new Territories; that the decisions of the Supreme Court (in reference to slavery) need not and should not be heeded; that the Fugitive Slave Law should be put at defiance, &c. In a number of the New England States it is made a penitentiary offense for any man to obey the law of Congress, on the subject of runaway slaves; and in Ohio a Supreme Judge has decided that negroes enjoy the right of suffrage, and at the late election fourteen thousand negroes voted in that State, and by this means Ohio was carried, by a few thousand, for the Black Republicans. But yet, in the face of these outrages—in the face of the Constitution, law, justice and fair-dealing, Black Republican scribblers tell us they are pledged to "preserve the Union." They can heap every abuse upon the South, steal its property, murder its citizens when they come North in search of their slaves, deny them their rights in the Territories, applaud John Brown for shooting down Virginians, threaten to "root out slavery," and then turn up the dirty whites of their eyes, and exclaim, "we are pledged to preserve the Union!" Was demagoguism ever more beautifully exemplified? Let the people reflect before they trust this deceptive party. Let them look at the breakers ahead!

BOROUGH IMPROVEMENTS.—The spirit of improvement seems to have seized upon the property holders of South Hanover street, and, if we may judge from present indications, the majority of new buildings for some years to come, will be erected in the Southern portion of the borough. Just now, Mr. John Gutshall is erecting at the corner of Hanover and Walnut streets, a splendid three story brick hotel, which will be one of the largest and most commodious in the borough. It will be finished during the coming winter, and ready for an occupant by the first of April next. Nearly opposite, Mr. James Bentz has had erected a large and handsome brick dwelling; George Hoffer one, and Mrs. Lehman one, both of brick. In the same vicinity, on an alley, Mr. William Blair has had erected two very neat brick tenant houses. Next summer, it is anticipated, many other houses will be put up in the same neighborhood.

In addition to the above, on Pitt street, John Mell, Esq., has erected a two story brick edifice; and on the same street, Messrs. Black and Delaney two brick dwellings. On West street, Mr. George Beston and Mr. M'Combs have each put up a handsome brick dwelling.

On Bedford street, the members of the Cumberland Fire Company have just completed their magnificent Hall, which is an honor to the Company and an ornament to the borough. The Hall is two and a-half stories high, and is well calculated for the purposes for which it is intended. On South Bedford street, Sheriff M'Cartney has in progress of construction two brick tenant houses, but we presume they will scarcely be finished this season. A number of frame buildings have also been put up during the summer. We have already noticed the large Hotel, on High street, the property of Mr. Robert Corman. We are pleased to observe that it is already doing an extensive business.

The Episcopal congregation are now renovating their church edifice, on Centre Square, and the improvements and additions promise to render it a beautiful and classic building. On West High street, Mr. S. M. Hoover is erecting a two story brick dwelling.

We have doubtless omitted to mention some other improvements; if so, we shall note them in a future number.

SLAVES EMANCIPATED.—The Paris (Ky.) Citizen says:—"Mr. Noah Spear left here the other day for Xenia, Ohio, taking with him a family of valuable negroes, consisting of a man, his wife and two children, whom he had emancipated and handsomely provided for. He purchased them an excellent farm, at a cost of nearly $50 per acre, gave them a wagon and a pair of mules, a large quantity of provisions, &c. The man's name is Edom; he is an industrious, sober man, who will do better when thrown upon his own resources, than most of his class. This is the second lot of negroes Mr. Spear has taken to the same place."

"Old Age," says Lord Bacon, "is a lower whose foundation is undermined." Not an inapt comparison, but Mrs. Sinclair has given us a far more beautiful illustration.—"Old age is like a flower without a root—the first blast lays it low."

Stand to Your Arms, Democrats.

ELECTION—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6th. Democrats of Cumberland!—this is the last opportunity we will have of addressing you previous to the Presidential election, which takes place this year on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6. Notwithstanding our disastrous defeat in the late contest, let us not be discouraged nor dismayed. Let us stand by our colors, and, by a mighty effort, beat back the Goths and Vandals who are striving to clutch the reins of government. Let us give a full day to the cause of our country, and victory may yet crown our efforts.

If there ever was a time when our Union required the most strenuous efforts of its friends, that time is now. For the first time in the history of our Government its enemies—the sectional Abolitionists—have dared to promulgate their pernicious and treasonable doctrines in every Northern State. Their candidates for President and Vice President are both residents of the North, and both the sworn enemies of the South. WASHINGTON, in his Farewell Address, warned the people of America to beware of sectional parties, and to indignantly frown upon the first attempt to alienate one section of the Union from the other. This is the "first attempt" the Abolitionists have made "to alienate one section of the Union from the other." In 1850, it is true, they advocated (in the North) the same pernicious doctrines they now advocate, but yet their candidate for Vice President was an old line Whig, and therefore they affected to disclaim sectionalism. But, becoming bolder in their treasonable designs, they now select both their candidates from the North, and thus "alienate one section of the Union from the other," and trample under foot the warning words of the Father of his Country! Will the North sanction this attempted outrage? Will our people of Pennsylvania and of the North generally scoff at the warning words of GEORGE WASHINGTON? Are they prepared to insult his memory, by doing the very thing he beseeched them, in his last hours, not to do? If they are ready thus to act, then farewell to the union of the States! Let wise men ponder before they mock at the words of WASHINGTON! Let them remember that he, in the providence of God, achieved our liberties, and that we can remain free, happy and independent only, by adhering to the advice he gave us. Pause, then, voters of Pennsylvania, before you commit the great blunder of supporting sectional candidates for President and Vice President. Stop and think before you vote! Read over the Farewell Addresses of GEORGE WASHINGTON and ANDREW JACKSON, and indignantly frown upon the first attempt to alienate one section of the Union from the other." Do this, and save your country from the ruin that now threatens it.

UNION ON THE READING ELECTORAL TICKET.—The Democratic Committee of Allegheny county met on Saturday last, the 20th ult., and adopted the following resolution: Resolved, That we, the Democracy of Allegheny county, discarding all dissensions, heartily co-operate in an undivided support of the Reading Electoral Ticket.

The Democratic Committee of Lancaster county met in Lancaster on the 20th ult., and unanimously adopted the following resolution, approving of the action of the State Executive Committee at Reading: Resolved, That we approve of the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee at Reading, and that we recommend the Democrats of Lancaster county to give a united support to the Reading Electoral Ticket.

FOR ABRAHAM LINCOLN—FOR UNION FOR FREEDOM, FOR FRATERNITY.—Such are the concluding words of the Bulletin in which the Chairman of the State Committee of "people's party" announces the result of the late election. These words, with a few additions, very well express the principles and purposes of Black Republican party. Thus—they are for Abraham Lincoln, for a union of negroes with whites, for the freedom of negroes and their equality with whites, and for fraternity, that is, a brotherhood of the white and black men and a sisterhood of the white and black women. That precisely the kind of union, of freedom, of fraternity, with the Black Republicans, under the leadership of Lincoln, are endeavoring to bring about.

AN ARMED SECTIONAL PARTY.—The Father of his Country left on record his farewell warning "to beware of sectional parties," and Daniel Webster has declared that—"The Constitution of the United States is a written instrument—a recorded fundamental law; it is the sword, and the only sword of the Union of these States; it is all that gives us a NATIONAL CHARACTER."

Now, the Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated Abe Lincoln before the people: "The Black Republican party has distinctly repudiated the word national. They refuse to be regarded as a national party. In proof of it, it is only necessary to clip the following from the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, which were adopted May 16th, 1860, and that nominated