Is it not the RED-SHIRTED fireman whose only interest, in the matter is a worthy spirit of rivalry in the race to save the property of those who are sometimes loud in their defunctiation of what they term "begging." But enough of this: we feel confident that there are chough true friends of the firemen in Carlisle to sustain us in this contemplated enterprise. We do not ask for your cash without giving you a sufficient return, but on the other hand we are prepared to give it fair and inst without giving you a sufficient return, but on the other hand we are prepared to give it fair and just equivalent for every dellar that may be left with us. This is the season too when all are, more or less, disposed to scatter abroad a portion of their surplus change in the purchase of gitts for the "loved ones at home;" and it is to this class that we would hold out peculiar inducements, feeling confident of being able to give them not only a just equivalent for their money, but also a fair portion of pure and unalloyed pleasure.

Velvet, Brussels, Three Ply, Ingrain and Rag Carpets, which in quantity and quality cannot be surpassed, all of which I will sell very cheap. Also Oil Cloths of all widths, as cheap as can be purchased elsewhere.

FURS, FURS, FURS, in great quantity and very cheap. Mirrors of all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit all to call and examine my large and extensive stock, feeling assured I can sell goods at such prices as will satisfy every one, that it is to their interest to buy of ments fy every one, that it is to their interest to buy of ments fy every one, that it is to their interest to buy of ments of the form Brodies New York a large of the form Brodies New York a l

Paor. O. J. Wood. Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six mouths, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its cevering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

STEAM ENGINES AND MILT GEARING:

To this department of our business we give pay-ticular attention. Our already extensive stock of prior of paye, flow and save will be furnished with a printed catalogue of our salver shop comprises all the various tools for turning, planing and finishing shafting and casting, by good and careful machinists.

of every desirable capacity, from 10 to 25 horse power, built in the best style and on accommodating the complete of the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skilful I at once made application to the most skilful physicianis in the country, but, receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1357, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of soft black hair which no money can buy.
